NEWSBOYS ADDRESS KIWANIS MEETING

To Ask Support for Their 'Union-President Mills' Inaugural Address.

At Monday's noon meeting of the Kiwanis Club President "Billie" Mills, with his officers grouped about him, handled his first order of business since his election to the chair. He gave a brief but inspiring and interesting inaugural address in which he outlined the principles and aims of Kiwanis and described the possibilities for good work.

For the year 1924 the president asked the same support from the members which had been accorded preceding presidents.

"Kiwanis," he said, "is a wonderful international organization. It is nine years old on the twenty-first day of January and in that nine years, since the first club in Detroit, has grown to 1,121 clubs all through Canada and the United States with over 54,000 members."

He spoke of the good work done by the Kingston club in the past and mentioned it as the sponsor of the Belleville and Peterboro clubs. Kiwanis wanted active members, not chair-warmers. He would far rather see a man give one hour of his time each week to Kiwanis work than five dollars at any time during the year. Kiwanis is not tied to any limited, narrow fields of endeavor. Its opportunities are great and all-embracing.

Briefly the president sketched the work before the committees for 1924, but withheld the names of the chairmen. He suggested as good work for one committee an enquiry into, and effort toward, better playground accommodation in Kingston. His concluding remarks were to promise the members that he would see to it that all meetings started sharp on time and were finished as nearly as possible within an hour, except in the case of special banquets or formal functions.

Newsboys on Hand.
At the request of the president Kiwanian (Dr. L. J.) Austin introduced a deputation to the Kingston Newsboys' Association, consisting of "Benny" Renaud, the president, and Earl Waterman, the secretary. The two manly little fellows occupied seats between the president and vice-president and were the guests of the club for the day. President "Benny" Renaud told of the organization of which he is the head and asked the attention of the members to Secretary Waterman's remarks. The other little chap, the secretary, was mounted on a chair and proceeded to outline his ideas. The Newsboys' Association is for the purpose of promoting co-operation between the boys and courtesy to patrons. The membership is not what it should be and the Kiwanians are petitioned to help out in a drive for members. Chief of Police Robinson, the honorary president of the association, has helped the boys to organize.

The address was given in a straightforward and manly fashion, and won the approval of the Kiwanians as well as their laughter at some of the naive statements.

Kiwanian Frank Hoag gave some information about a club he had visited in Montreal and Kiwanian Bruce Hopkins asked for the support of the club for the Kingston Tuberculosis Association. He named several speakers of international renown who will be here to address meetings under K.T.A. auspices and asked for a general attendance of Kiwanis at these meetings.

Kiwanian "Ernie" Smithies led in songs which were particularly good, and Kiwanian Broom presided at the piano. The attendance was good and the first meeting under the new executive a very bright and successful event.

Truth and politeness are seldom synonymous.

AN AWFUL ATTACK OF PIMPLES ALL OVER HIS FACE

Pimples breaking out on the face and other parts of the body is a sure sign that the blood is not in proper shape.

While the skin is the object of the attack the real seat of the disease is in the blood on account of the entire circulation being poisoned.

Burdock Blood Bitters quickly and effectually banishes pimples and all other skin diseases as it goes right to the root of the trouble by cleansing and enriching the blood.

Mr. Conrad Anderson, Keifield, Sask., writes: "A year ago I had an awful attack of pimples. They broke out all over my face and I could not get rid of them in any way. One day a friend told me about your Burdock Blood Bitters and let me have a bottle he had to spare. After using it I noticed a change, so I bought three more bottles, and now I don't know there is such a thing as pimples."

D. W. Griffith's "White Rose" is a Masterpiece of the Screen.

One of the finest pictures ever seen in Kingston opened at the Grand Opera House yesterday when "The White Rose" was shown for the first time.

For six months D. W. Griffith, master motion picture producer, shut his eyes to the world at large, at least to problems of the world in general, and reconstructed in his own mind scenes in the Old South as they were before progress struck that region with its sweep.

He was making a new production, "The White Rose," and while the story is a modern one, it has reflections of an age gone by and glories of a time that will never return. Although the story of "The White Rose" will appear as an up-to-date subject, its fundamentals hark back to age-old theories and prejudices. In order to place the proper frame about this moving canvas, Mr. Griffith sought a locale where change has been less notable than elsewhere in our land. He has gone far into the old Bayou Teche country of western Louisiana and placed his leading actors against a background adequately representative of a social order that has held uninterrupted sway for two centuries.

The tale of a wronged girl; the scorn heaped upon her and the struggle she has in "beating back" is not new. It practically dates back to Mother Eve and the earliest womanhood. The world hasn't changed much in many things; they still put sick men in prisons and defiled innocence, yet undiminished, is made the football of false pride and standard. We like to ape our forbears; we seem bent, and it must be the childishness in us, to do as those before us did.

Mr. Griffith has been most happy when at work upon a big theme but placed in provincial setting. Witness, his "Way Down East" when he told an old, old story amid the bigotry of New England and matched his human shadings with the shifts of Nature. He has now turned to the Old South, a land he knows well and has heard from childhood as his people trace back for centuries in that region.

"The White Rose" is possibly one of the most forceful and beautiful things Mr. Griffith has attempted in his long and noteworthy career. He surely knows the land which he pictures and he is familiar with its traditions and shortcomings.

To make this story doubly effective he has chosen a cast of exceptionally brilliant players. Among those who are seen in leading roles are Mae Marsh, Carol Dempster, Ivor Novello, Neil Hamilton,

SYRUP PEPSIN
Made them feel jolly again

Good Health in Happy Old Age

THE chief concern of elderly people is their health, and that is best assured by regular daily bowel movement. There is no truth, however, in the notion that because you are old you need a "strong physic."

In fact, just because you are old a mild laxative is better for you. The trouble with purges and cathartics and physics is that they shock the system and weaken it and make the muscles of digestion flabby. Mr. John Mues, 128 Prince Edward St., St. John, N. B., says Dr. Caldwell's Laxative Syrup Pepsin is the best medicine on earth and Mrs. George Luth, Pope, Mass., who is in her 79th year, has found it easy to take, gentle in action and entirely satisfactory.

Does Not Grip
You can be sure of satisfactory evacuations every day if you will take a spoonful of Laxative Syrup Pepsin at night when you retire. You will not need to take it very long as a few doses will soon encourage the bowels to act for themselves. The popularity of this wonderful family remedy has become so great that it is now the largest selling liquid laxative in the world. Because of its mildness and freedom from gripping it is especially ideal for the entrance of age, for children and for elderly people.

Effective at Small Cost
Get a bottle of Dr. Caldwell's Laxative Syrup Pepsin at any drug store. The formula is on the package, and the cost less than a cent a dose. Take it when you feel heavy, sleep poorly, have headache or night cramps, for these are also symptoms of constipation. Give it to the children when they are restless, feverish or have a cold. Laxative Syrup Pepsin will keep you and your family free from constipation, a condition that lowers the vitality 25 per cent and raises the blood pressure 28 per cent. Freedom from constipation lessens the pain of kidney trouble, neuritis and rheumatism.

WINTER ECZEMA 'CHAPS' & COLD-SORES

KEEN wintry weather brings a host of skin troubles. Cold-sores, chapped hands, unsightly face-sores and blotches, become a source of discomfort and annoyance. To end the trouble and make your skin clear, healthy and flexible, give the face, arms and hands, a nightly dressing with pure herbal Zam-Buk.

Zam-Buk instantly soothes the smarting irritation, kills disease germs, and quickly heals all soreness, roughness and chafing which, neglected, often develops into eczema or other chronic skin disease. Use also Zam-Buk Medical Soap and enjoy real skin health.

This was an obstinate case.

Mrs. Henry Amey, 43, Lyall Avenue, Toronto, says: "My daughter's face and neck were a mass of eczema. Her doctor prescribed treatment for over two months, but to little avail. I was about to call in a skin specialist when I heard of Zam-Buk treatment reaching other sufferers from this dread disease. So I got a box of Zam-Buk and a tablet of Zam-Buk Medical Soap. In a few days there wrought a decided improvement. Day by day the sores gradually healed, and within a month my daughter's skin was thoroughly cleared of the terrible disease."
