On Friday afternoon the board of directors of the Y.W.C.A. gave a tea and sale of home cooking in the cosy club room of the "Y" where a bright fire blazed cheerily and the visitors who had been welcomed by Mrs. William Jackson, the president, lingered. Mrs. D. A. Shaw and Miss Emma Gwatkin were in charge of the delicious wares and Mrs. Ernest Cunningham made tea at the table centred with a silver candelabra holding silver candles and set on pink silk. The tea assistants were Mrs. E. C. D. McCallum, Miss Isabel Ross, Miss B. Ireland, Miss Eiste Mackenzie and Miss Ethel Shannon;

The sharp, cold air of Friday evening but increased the enjoyment of the members of Chalmers Young People's Society when they drove along the country roads to the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Fairfield, Collin's Bay. Here blazing fires in the open fireplaces were a welcome sight and the hospitality of their host and hostesses was shown in the arrangements made for the comfort of the guests. Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Gilbert chaperoned the party and also did more than their share in providing entertainment. Refreshments were served and several hours spent in games and dancing before the happy party returned to the city.

A pleasant feature of the weekly meeting of the Church Woman's Aid of St. George's cathedral on Friday was a visit from P. D. Lyman, one of the church wardens, who presented the members with the $1,200 debenture they had taken up during the year. It was framed and will hang on the wall of the committee room where the weekly meetings of the Aid are held. The presentation was made on behalf of the advisory board of St. George's cathedral. . . .

Major F. Yeats-Brown and Mrs. Yeats-Brown are at the Hotel Frontenac during their stay in town and several small entertainments are being arranged for them. A number of Queen's staff were present at the presentation of the splendid film "Climbing Mount Everest" at the Grand Opera House on Friday evening and enjoyed, as did the rest of the audience, Major Yeats-Brown's interesting description of the trip to the "Roof of the World."
