 What the Press Agents Say About Coming Attractions

"SASSY BITS OF 1924."
 The artists and model chorus is one of the many features of the new musical comedy "Sassy Bits of 1924," which is the attraction announced at the Grand for Thursday evening, Feb. 7th. This splendid combination of mirth and melody, which is making its first bow to the local theatregoers, is said to be full of pep and has scored a most decided hit throughout the country. The company numbers twenty-five people, including the famous Ted Rely Dancing Girls, who sing and dance with becoming grace and charm. An exceedingly clever cast of musical comedy players will be seen in the leading roles. "Sassy Bits of 1924" promises to be one of the best musical comedy treats of the season.

"THE COVERED WAGON."
 The darky character of the "Oh! Susannah" song was from Alabama, found himself in Louisiana, and was booked for Oregon. "The Covered Wagon," which will be disclosed at the Grand Opera House, commencing February 13th, for four days, is a story of Dixie folk trekking to the great Northwest with "Oh! Susannah" shimmering on the banjo and sung lustily by everybody, from the small boy to the grave and bearded elders.
 That was probably only a side reason why the famous Players-Lasky Corporation chose Lois Wilson to play the role of Molly Wingate, the fair driver of a prairie schooner and heroine of "The Covered Wagon." She was an Alabama girl when she went on the stage, though it would be quite too much to attribute her whole artistic excellence to the town made famous by Octavus Roy Cohen. Indeed, Pittsburgh deserves a share, the place of her nativity. Stephen Collins Foster, America's greatest writer of lasting melodies including "Oh! Susannah" was a native of Pittsburgh.
 Lois Wilson's career since 1920 is known to all the film fans, such outstanding hits as "Manslaughter," "Miss Lulu Bett," "Midsummer Madness" and "What Every Woman Knows" being noteworthy. It shouldn't puzzle anybody that in this picture both Warren Kerrigan and Alan Hale are crazy about her.
 The story is a picturization of the late Emerson Hough's epic of the winning of the West, which has created a furor since James Cruze put it into moving pictures. It will be presented here in the same elaborate manner that has made it famous in New York.

 The Foresters Had a Fine Time at Installation and Banquet.

Odessa, Feb. 4.—Mrs. Lewis Snider has returned from spending the past three weeks with relatives in Sydney, George Montgomery has moved in his old home, recently vacated by Fred Montgomery, and Mr. Haggard will occupy the new Montgomery home on Wilton avenue.
 A number of friends met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Clark last Wednesday night to give a farewell to Mrs. Gladwin Clark, who left Friday to join her husband in Charleston, West Virginia, where they are to make their home. Mr. and Mrs. Clark came here last June from Omaha. Mr. Clark has been assisting his father in the post office until recently. They will be greatly missed by a large circle of friends.
 The public installation of officers in the I.O.O.F. held last Wednesday night had a very large attendance. Members from Yarker, Napanee and Enterprise and other places, accompanied by their wives and friends, added greatly to the Odessa Lodge. After the business part was over a banquet was served in the town hall when probably two hundred partook of delicious refreshments and a very pleasant and sociable time followed. There was a social dance at a later hour and kept up until the small morning hours. The music was furnished by the Yarker orchestra.

 The many friends of Mrs. Benjamin Mabee were sorry to hear that she had passed away at her daughter's home, Mrs. David Arbuckle's, Ottawa. The deceased had spent most of her life as a resident of the village. To mourn her loss are three daughters, Mrs. Horace McGuire, Mrs. Fred Burt and Mrs. David Arbuckle, all of Ottawa. She had reached the great age of ninety-two years. The remains were placed in the vault at Catarqui to be interred in the family plot later.

MAY BOOST HOCKEY AT WINTER OLYMPIC

It is Believed That This Game Should Receive a More Important Place.

Chamonix, Feb. 5.—Norway made a run-away race of the last two ski events in the Olympic winter sports yesterday, winning first place in the whole series with a total of 134 1-2 points, 58 points to spare over Finland, which finished second with 76 1-2 points. Great Britain took third place with 30, and the United States was fourth with 29.
 The Norwegians showed excellent form in all the events in which they competed. They were in admirable physical condition and displayed great efficiency in all branches of winter sport, with absolute supremacy in the ski events.
 The standing of the nations on the final accounting was:

Sweden	26
Austria	25
Switzerland	24
Canada	19 1/2
Szech Slovakia	11
Belgium	6
Italy	1

Points

day especially to see the United States and Canadian teams in the final hockey match. Once the game was over the two teams buried the hatchet and Captains Monroe of the Canadian team and Captain Small of the United States cordially drank each other's health at the feast.
 The hockey results were the subject of the speeches of the evening and all the delegates except the Swedes expressed the desire that the points awarded for hockey be raised above those for other events, such as figure skating, bob-sledding and curling. Baron De Coubertin agreed to place the question before the next international meeting. Some of the speakers put forward the idea of counting 50 points for the hockey finals and others suggested counting elimination games at ten points to the winners and the semi-finals at 25 points. The United States team left for Switzerland yesterday to play two exhibition games, returning to Paris at the end of the week.

Internal cleanliness protects against disease

It is but a step from those immediate results of constipation—headache, heaviness, loss of appetite—to serious disease. Such minor ailments are a warning that poisons from food waste are flooding your body. Keep clean internally.
 In constipation, say intestinal specialists, lies the primary cause of more than three-quarters of all illness including the gravest diseases of life.

of the intestinal tract gained by X-ray observation, has found at last in lubrication a means of overcoming constipation. The gentle lubricant, Nujol, penetrates and softens the hard food waste and thus hastens its passage out of the body. Thus Nujol brings internal cleanliness.
 Not a Medicine
 Nujol is used in leading hospitals and is prescribed by physicians throughout the world. Nujol is not a medicine or laxative and cannot gripe. Like pure water it is harmless. Get rid of constipation and avoid disease by adopting the habit of internal cleanliness. Take Nujol as regularly as you brush your teeth or wash your face. For sale by all druggists.

Laxatives Aggravate Constipation
 Laxatives and cathartics do not overcome constipation, says a noted authority, but by their continued use tend only to aggravate the condition and often lead to permanent injury.
