DOHERTY CHALLENGES FLOUTING OF U.F.O.

He Demands Recognition as Leader of the Ontario Opposition.

Toronto, Feb. 8.—Promptly upon the opening of the first business session of the legislature yesterday Hon. Manning Doherty, leader of the "Progressives," announced his intention of contesting on the floor of the House Premier Ferguson's announced decision to recognize the Liberals, rather than the former U.F.O. group, as the official Opposition.

The former minister of agriculture delivered in uncompromising fashion his notice of motion that on Tuesday next he would take up the matter, and, a moment later, in speaking to the protest of Peter Hoeman, Labor member for Kenora, at the splitting up of the Labor representatives, accused the Premier of attempting to "break up the seating of this party."

Premier Ferguson explained the preliminary negotiations between party representatives which had preceded the final seating arrangement, and would have spoken in reply to Mr. Doherty's vigorous protest at non-recognition for himself as leader of the Opposition. Former Attorney-General Raney, however, arose to a point of order and invoked the speaker's ruling as to whether Mr. Ferguson was in order in discussing a notice of motion. Fate determined that Speaker Thompson's first ruling—called for in his first minute in the chair—should be against the government. He ruled that the matter could very well wait for discussion on Tuesday next, and Mr. Ferguson had to wait.

JACKIE TRIUMPHS IN "LONG LIVE THE KING."

Undoubtedly the greatest picture in which Jackie Coogan has been permitted to use his remarkable genius in Metro's "Long Live the King," now the feature at the Capitol Theatre. Last night its premier in this city was attended by a great and appreciative audience which through the evening continued to give ample evidence of the tremendous popularity which Jackie now has at his command. In fairness to him it is such beautiful and impressive productions as "Long Live the King" that enhance his popularity and make him more beloved.

The story of "Long Live the King" is a familiar one to readers of American books. It is a screen version of the famous novel of the same name written several years ago by Mary Roberts Rinehart and which attained a tremendous sale. It hinges around the romantic adventures of the little Crown Prince of Lavinia—a country threatened at every turn by revolution and anarchy. It is a highly exciting romance and the producers have not only lost none of the fascination of the novel, but have added to its delight by giving it a wonderfully beautiful presentation.

"THE COVERED WAGON"

At the Grand Four Days Commencing Wednesday Next.

"The Covered Wagon" book and play, deal with the real conquest of the trail by the great prairie schooler Trek of North America history, an incursion into unknown lands fully comparable to the Aryan migration into Europe or the Goth and Saxon conquests of the western half of the wide Roman realm.

It was the custom to start at a number of Missouri River points and converge at Grand Island, where after crossing the Platte, the united caravan journeyed northward. Some started from Council Bluffs, others from St. Joseph, but the particular band with which the story deals outfitted at Westport Landing (now Kansas City), made its way to the site of the present Leavenworth, and proceeded across the boundlessly fertile valleys and timber ranges of eastern Kansas and southeastern Nebraska to the common valley in point.

The chief dangers of the plains were Indian attack or the Indian setting of prairie fires, menacing the whole caravan and its possessions. These were safely avoided or conquered, and the swollen rivers were crossed without loss of life.

Further on, as the trail proceeded into the more desert regions and into the sterile Rockies, intolerable climatic conditions, privations and sufferings, especially starvation and thirst, offered terrible obstacles.

The trail looped along and into the northern edge of Utah. Here came word borne of Kit Carson, scout, that gold particles had been found in panning the streams of central California. Half the expedition fell away and bore due west, jured by the bright hope of gold.

"The Covered Wagon" symphony orchestra will play at each performance.

THE SCIENCE DINNER.

Held at Queen's University on Thursday Evening.

The best yet was the unanimous verdict of the men of Science after their splendid dinner on Thursday evening. As toast-master D. Hutchinson was an admirable choice. In proposing the toast "To the memory of the members of this society who died on active service," Col. Alexander Macphail impressed his hearers with the necessity of remembering those who had died that "we might live."

The toast to "The Faculty and the University" was ably proposed by C. Allen, and responded to by Principal R. Bruce Taylor, who explained the absorbing topic of health insurance, adding with his usual wit "that the trustees were not trying to do the students in the eye."

J. A. Bell proposed the toast to "The Professor" in a very fitting speech. It being responded to by Brig-Gen. Mitchell, Toronto, in an address which outlined the immediate future of the engineering society.

F. S. Lee proposed the toast to "Science '14," several representatives of that year being present.

"To Our Guests" was given by R. Cleland and J. M. Campbell replied in a splendid address which explained the work going on in developing the St. Lawrence waterways and the importance of this development to Kingston.

J. M. Douglas proposed the toast to "Our Sister Universities" it being responded to by representatives from Royal Military College, Varsity and McGill.

The musical numbers were a faculty song by H. Haslam, and a rendition by a quartette of a number composed by members of the faculty.

FOUR COAL MINERS CRUSHED TO DEATH

Inverness, N.S., Feb. 8.—Inverness coal mines are idle to-day and the whole town is mourning for four miners who were crushed to death in a collapse of the roof caved in, burying the men under tons of rock and stone. The victims were married men with families.

A DESERTED VILLAGE.

Is Explained as a Scotch Village on a Tag Day.

Renfrew, Feb. 8.—At the annual congregational meeting of St. Andrew's church last night the suggestion was offered that a "drive" be made for the raising of funds to wipe out a few thousand dollars of debt on the church. Rev. Mr. Rollins, the new minister, expressed the hope that if this were done the town would not resemble a deserted village. He had, he said, learned a few days ago what a deserted village was. It was a Scottish village on tag day.

Want Farmer Released.

Toronto, Feb. 8.—A petition said to be signed by nearly every farmer in Colborne township, is being presented to the Attorney-General of Ontario asking that the two-months sentence imposed on J. Benson Cox for assault on Charles Balpitt, a home boy who hanged himself near Goderich, be remitted.

To Extend J. P.'s Powers.

"OUT TO WIN."

A life and death struggle at midnight in a burning Zeppelin, midway over the English Channel, with hero and villain swaying on a narrow platform ten thousand feet above the sea, is only one of the numerous thrills in "Out to Win" at the Strand today and Saturday with beautiful Catherine Calvert and Clive Brook in the leading roles.

Bound to the posts of her bed, and with her mouth gagged, Miss Louise Larson, a young movie actress on Friday was found dead in her rooms in a fashionable New York apartment house.

Indoor Baseball.

A double header of indoor ball was played in the Armouries last night when No. 3 Battery defeated "A" Battery, 24-12, and 4th Hussars defeated "B" Battery 17-13. Both games were only fair displays and were noted for numerous errors on the part of the losing teams.

H.P.'s a New One.

The latest story concerning the best-known species of the motor car tribe comes from Percy Marmont, the young English actor.

"A friend of mine," says Marmont, "recently drove up to a petrol-filling station in his 'H.P.'"

"How many?" queried the man at the pump.

"One," replied my friend.

"What 'yre trying to do—was it?" came back the retort, amidst roars from the mechanics.—"S.S." in The Light Car and Cyclecar.

The old-fashioned cutter and sleigh didn't have the speed of today's chummy roadster, but, take it from Father, it was there—with oels on.

Colborne township farmers, in view of a boy's suicide, may send back the Barardo Home boys they have engaged, and refuse to accept any more.

Trapped in Box Car.

Every year, as surely as the wheat harvest itself, there is a new crop of adventures in the hinterland of Canadian West and North. Men there, for one purpose or another, and before they get out again things happen to them. This past season has had enough of such happenings to prove the rule.

The adventure of John McBride began in the West and ended in the East, but it very nearly ended in another world. McBride had an August excursion across half the continent that didn't cost him a cent but almost cost his life. He crawled into a box car standing in the railway yards in Edmonton, and went to sleep on top of the coal with which it was loaded. When he awakened the car was in motion, the door was fastened tight, and he was trapped. He beat frantically upon the door, but with no result. He scraped his hands and feet on the floor. And the train went on for ten days later it came to a stop in London, Ont., where the car was opened, and McBride saw daylight again. He was too far gone to get out of the car alone, and men who saw him said he looked like the picture of death. It had been a back-hole, starvation ride all the way from Edmonton, and the car of Alberta coal had been hauled to somewhere in Eastern Ontario, instead of to London, there would most likely have been no more of John McBride.

Wave Hair by Wireless.

Women will soon be able to have their hair permanently waved at home with the greatest ease and without any risk. An invention by a young Australian is now being perfected for this purpose.

It is claimed that the new permanent waving machine will do away with the use of electric wires in heating the curlers.

The latter are heated by steam, and the heat by means of which the wave is effected never reaches drying point. For this reason even dyed hair can be waved successfully.

When the hair has been wound round each curler and fastened with a patent clip instead of with strings, it is enclosed in a velvet-covered cushion through which the heat is conducted.

Wireless waving machines have been installed in many hairdressers' saloons, and small sets may be had for the home. For the purpose of heating the water, these are connected to a small gas ring.

Public opinion has no official existence, yet it is stronger than all your judges, stonger than your rulers. What we need especially to learn, is the gospel of thoroughness.
