 "THE HILL BILLY"

At the Grand Opera House the last half of this week.

Archie Marks Coming.
 Lovers of popular priced amusement will be glad to learn that Archie Marks and her popular players will open a three days' engagement at the Grand Opera House Monday evening, Feb. 25th.

Miss Marks needs no introduction to the playgoers of Kingston for her admirers are legion.

The opening play, "Sweet Rosie O'Grady," is a comedy of love and romance and Miss Marks has a part that fits her like the proverbial glove.
 In addition to the play, six big va-deville numbers will be given between the acts and changed nightly.
 Manager Perrin has surrounded his popular star with a company of uniform excellence and nothing has been left undone to make the present season a banner one in the show's history. There will be a bargain matinee Wednesday.

CANADIAN CLUBS RECORD.
 Was Organized in Hamilton Over Thirty Years Ago.

"I am not ashamed of my country," said W. Sanford Evans, the first president of the first Canadian Club, when it was organized in Hamilton, Ont., over thirty years ago.
 The days of the founding of the movement in the early '90's were dark days. Times were hard, the country's political and economic positions were troubled and not hopeful, the exodus across the border was at its worst. Yet Mr. Evans rose at the first banquet and said: "I am proud to respond to this toast, for this club is an embodiment of the spirit of Canadian nationality and I am not ashamed of my country. This club is, first and foremost, the voice of this developing Canadian nationality, and upon this fact we base our strongest appeal to Canadians. This club is educational. We wish to fit ourselves, for adequate knowledge of our country, for the duties of citizenship."
 "One of the chief uses of this club, we hope, is that it will give us the habit of independent-thinking. In a club of this kind, where we know no party distinctions, we can develop habits of independent thinking—reason from the fact up, rather than from the party leader down."
 "It carries the badge of no party," said Earl Grey, who watched the Canadian Clubs from the serenity of Rideau Hall. "It wears free as the fresh air that comes down to us as an invigorating tonic from the slopes of the Laurentian Mountains. Its sole and only object is to promote the well-being of the Canadian nation."

How stand the clubs after thirty years? "It is easy to organize Canadian Clubs but it is not so easy to keep them alive," said President B.
 C. Nicholas of the Association of Canadian Clubs, at the annual meeting at Victoria last September. "The schools of Canada should provide an excellent recruiting ground for potential Canadian Club membership.
 I would like to see Junior Canadian Clubs organized in all our schools." It is a brilliant record that has been made by the Canadian Clubs of Canada and elsewhere, a record of countless meetings and addresses for educational purposes. The underlying object has usually been the stimulating of interest in Canada.
 Since the days of their founding the country has doubled in population, vastly increased in wealth and confidence, and greatly widened its interests and part in world affairs.
 Luncheon clubs have grown in numbers, and the Canadian Club has many rivals, where social service and individual pleasure and gain have been added by the jolly boosters who call each other by their first names. The place of the pioneer club must be secure, for its work is not done, but it has broadened and intensified for many years.

"Flaming Barriers" at Capitol.
 Jacqueline Logan, Antonio Moreno and Walter Kiens are featured players in the Paramount picture, "Flaming Barriers," a George Melford production which opens at the Capitol Theatre to-day. "Flaming Barriers" is worthy of commendation as something out of the ordinary run of screen entertainments.
 It is the story of a city man sent by his father as an efficiency expert to the little town of Burbridge and the machine shop of Patrick Malone.
 The fact that Malone's daughter, Jerry, captures Barton's heart at first sight does not make his task any easier. But he comes through with flying colors, returning home in triumph to teach-Barton, Sr., the royal game of golf, on which subject Sam is not a mere enthusiast but a "bug."

"Flaming Barriers" has been treated in true Melford fashion. It's a big picture in every sense of the word. The supporting cast includes, among other popular artists, Charles Ogle as an impetu-ous inventor, Robert McKim in a heavy role, Luke Cosgrove, chief mechanic of the Malone plant, and Warren Rogers as the burlesque Mayor of Burbridge.

Grenfell of Labrador.
 That indefatigably energetic and practical missionary Dr. Wilfred T.
 Grenfell sends us a charming set of stories relating to the people of Labrador, the land of his adoption, in "Northern Neighbors." All the joy, raiment, tragedy and comedy of that rather terrible coast appears in these articles. Little bits of veritable history, for they are that, though none the less interesting on that account.
 There are not many who are able to imitate the good and clever doctor in his self-sacrificing and useful work. The world would be all the better for it if there were. But there are hundreds of lives, young and old, who would be better off and might be inspired to higher things by a careful reading and pondering over these tales. Every school and Sunday School library should contain this book, and it would be well for the country if it could be placed in every Canadian home.

Who buys hath need of a hundred eyes; who sells hath enough of one.

Viola Dana.
 It will be most welcome news to the film fans of this city to learn that Viola Dana in "The Social Code" opens at the Strand Theatre to-day. "The Social Code" has been hailed as Miss Dana's finest contribution to the screen.

Revival Services Held.
 Bethel, Feb. 20.—Every one is delighted with the winter weather and sleigh driving is being well enjoyed by both old and young. The sawing machine is busy in our neighborhood. Mrs. R. Jackson, Yarker, is making a visit at her parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. Hamilton. Miss Daisy Salisbury entertained at tea a number of her young friends, on Monday evening. Master Georgie Jayne's cheerful voice is once more heard among the school children, since he has had whooping cough.

Revival meetings are being held in the Methodist church at Camden East this week. Some from here are attending. Miss Grace Gallagher, Camden East, is visiting at the home of W. McWilliams. Mrs.
 Myrtle McWilliams is spending this week with Mrs. Sarah Connolly, Yar-ker. Mrs. Finkle, Colebrook, is with her sister, Mrs. Joseph Lewis.
 Rev. Mr. Nickle, Newburgh, made some calls through here on Friday.
 George Greer, Napanee, at S.
 Hamilton's on Sunday. Mr. and Mrs.
 P. Alkenbraek took tea at the home of Jay Hamilton on Monday. Miss Dorothy Hamilton has returned from visiting Miss Marion Simmons, Bicknell's Corners. Mr. and Mrs. Roy Sampson, Newburgh, visited her aunt, Mrs. W. Jackson, Sunday.

A Wonderful Bargain.
 Men's spring and fall overcoats to go at $10.50 at this mighty bankrupt sale. The Lion Clothing House.

Miss M. Hackett, Brockville, died on Wednesday aged sixty-five years.
 Two sisters survive.

Because of the presence of scarlet fever in Belleville, the hospital there is closed to visitors.

It is reported in Berlin that there is an attempt to run the former crown prince for president.

It is the end that crowns, not the fight.

Portland Paragraphs.
 Portland, Feb. 19.—The Ladies' Institute held a box social and concert here on the 14th. A great quantity of ice has been hauled out as the weather was very favorable for the past ten days for those that had to get out ice. The dance held at the Commercial Hotel, on Friday, 15th, was well attended and all report a good time.

SCENES IN THE PLAY BETWEEN CANADA AND GREAT BRITAIN; SCORE, CANADA 19; ENGLAND 2.

The ladies of the English church held a meeting at the Misses Done-van's and did some work for the missionary box that they intend shipping this month. Mrs. Clate Sly went to Brockville, last week, to visit her daughter, Mrs. Ammond. E. Bell and Mr. Harrington have a gang of men, filling their ice houses.

Ambrose Dier, Smith's Falls, had five stitches put in his tongue. While tobogganing he ran into a barbed wire fence and his mouth and tongue were badly torn.

J. G. Pennell has been appointed assessor and tax collector for Napanee at a salary of $500 plus excise stamps.

DIED QUITE SUDDENLY.
 William Lewis, Camden East, Had a Paralytic Stroke.
 Camden East, Feb. 20.—Mrs. Lucas and Ruby returned home on Friday last after spending the past two months with friends at Deseronto. Mrs. Dixon is visiting friends in Toronto. Clifford Hannah and bride returned home on Saturday night from their honeymoon trip.

 A number of John Skinner's friends gathered at his home, on Saturday evening last, to celebrate his birthday. The evening was spent in music and social discourse after which lunch was served. All joined in wishing Mr. Skinner many happy returns of the day.

Death again visited this village and took from our midst William Lewis. He was in apparently good health until Friday evening last when, about to retire, he suffered a stroke, reviving on Saturday but passed away about eleven o'clock that evening. Deceased was seventy-three years of age and is survived by six sisters and three brothers. The funeral service will be held Thursday, at his late residence. John Lambert and family spent Sunday at Petworth with his mother.

 Miss Grace Gallagher has returned home after visiting at W. McWilliams, Bethel, for a week. Special services are being conducted by Rev. Mr. Nickle, in the Methodist church, this week. A shower was tendered to Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Hannah in the hall, on Monday night. They were the recipients of many presents and all join in wishing them bon voyage through life.

Several are engaged in filling ice houses for the summer supply. Mrs. R. Saul and Mrs. Cameron spent Tuesday in Napanee. Mr. Hodge, Odessa, venturiquist, presented "The Babes in the Woods."

Mrs. Christopher Knight, Brockville, died on Wednesday aged seventy-six years. She had lived for thirty years in Brockville. A husband, four sons and three daughters survive.

Campbell Byers, Smith's Falls, is moving to Maplehurst Farm, Bishop's Mills.
 Though good be good, yet better is better.
