What the Press Agents Say About Coming Attractions

"ASHES OF VENGEANCE" OPENS AT CAPITOL

Commencing to-day, and showing to-morrow and Wednesday, at the Capitol Theatre is presenting "Ashes of Vengeance," a First National picture starring Norma Talmadge. "Ashes of Vengeance" is by far the most pretentious production in which Miss Talmadge has ever been presented. The impression this production made in its world premiere on Broadway is best described by excerpts from the criticisms of the New York press.

The New York World said: "Ashes of Vengeance" is a notable mountain among the myriad molehills of the screen." Daily News made this comment: "In the full sense of the word a masterpiece." Because the love story is held prime factor in this production, instead of being secondary to splendent splendor, the Herald remarks: "Ashes of Vengeance" actually reverses the usual form for movie spectators. It possesses a good story and a wealth of legitimate drama." The Sun and Globe declares: "The merits of the picture are too numerous to mention. Like the two-headed calf and the Cardiff giant, it must be seen to be appreciated." The Times says: "The film is an ambitious one—the last word in gigantic and picturesque setting." And the Bronx News sums it all in a sentence: "It is romance—magnified, glorified and entrancing."
