What the Press Agents Say About Coming Attractions

DOUGLAS FAIRBANKS
AT THE GRAND
In keeping with the letter of the sagacious critics that the supreme test of a successful photoplay should be characterized in the first instance by a good story replete with action, Douglas Fairbanks in "The Mark of Zorro," a United Artists production that is being shown at the Grand Opera House for the last four days of the week fulfilled that requirement.
For the cast, Fairbanks surrounded himself with an exceptionally strong one. When Doug first went over this vehicle, he realized that a number of changes in his company would be necessary if justice was to be done to the story because of its deviation from anything heretofore done by him. As a result of which a most careful selection was made; therefore we find that Fairbanks has gathered a host of new faces that have never appeared together with him upon the screen.
It is a great source of satisfaction that screen lovers display after having viewed one of Fairbank's offerings.
"The Mark of Zorro" is an exceptional feature and has created the greatest sensation in every locality in which it has appeared. It is not, therefore, a matter of speculation why people flock in such great numbers to view "Doug" upon the silver sheet, since it surely is in excellent keeping with the policy of producing the best for lovers of amusement.

'THE DUMBELLS' RETURN.
Good-news travels fast, and most every one knows that The Dumbells are to play a return engagement in "Cheerio 2nd" at the Grand Opera House of two days commencing Monday, March 10th, but only those who saw this fifth and best of The Dumbells series, really know how good it is.
Just to mention a few of the high-spots in "Cheerio 2nd," there are three songs by Ross Hamilton, "Flirting," "When the Sun Goes Down," and "Lonesome For Someone," each a production number with a special setting of its own. Then Al Plunkett sings four or five new ones, including "Everybody Sings a Little," which is the finest thing this splendid artist has ever done. There are three excellent sketches, including that little gem called "The Disorderly Room," where all the dialogue is sung to popular tunes, which will be repeated here by request.
Many consider the Overseas Orchestra the biggest feature of the show. It certainly provides a most enjoyable half hour. For clean comedy the six comedians can't be beat. Stan Bennett, Pat Rafferty, John Hagan, Morley Plunkett, Ben Allen and Jack Grace are a whole show in themselves. "Cheerio 2nd" should not be missed.

BILL HART IS BACK!
The admirers of William S. Hart, Paramount star, who retired from the screen nearly two years ago, packed the Grand theatre last evening, to witness his new western picture, "Wild Bill Hickok," which signalled his return to the screen in response to popular demand. Mr. Hart not only plays the star part in this picture, but he is author of the story and he supervised its production. The result is a typical Hart western thriller of the most approved pattern. See it to-day or on Saturday.

WANT LONGER O.T.A. TRIAL.
A Resolution Adopted by Two Presbyterian Sessions.
The following resolution was adopted by the Kirk sessions of St. Andrew's, Stirling and St. Andrew's, West Huntingdon:
"Whereas the province for more than one hundred years was under a license system, which lamentably failed to regulate a destructive and wasteful liquor-traffic; and whereas the province has been for only a few years under the Ontario Temperance Act, an act which in spite of some defects, has greatly lessened the evils of intemperance; and whereas the only alternative offered seems to be a discredited system of government control; therefore this Kirk session is of opinion that the Ontario Temperance Act should have considerably longer trial. The Kirk session, too, while expressing genuine appreciation of what the government, and especially the attorney-general, are doing to enforce the act, would express the hope that these efforts will not be relaxed."

BAILEY MYSTERY REMAINS.
Man in Luxembourg Asylum Is Not Army Officer.
London, March 7. — The mystery of the whereabouts of Major Norman Percival Bailey, army officer, who disappeared last December about the time his wife was found dying in a flat they had occupied in Brighton, Sussex, with a dagger in her heart and a bullet in her brain, has not been cleared up in Luxembourg, after all. A telegram was received yesterday by the chief constable of Hove, Sussex, stating that Major Bailey was in a lunatic asylum in Luxembourg.
Reuter's today learned that the public prosecutor at Luxembourg informed the chief constable of Hove that a close examination of the man interned in the Luxembourg asylum had been made by the authorities and the person in question was not Major Bailey but an Italian.

SPORT

VERONA HOCKEYISTS ARE CHAMPIONS THIS SEASON.
The greatest excitement prevailed at the Holt Rink, Royal Military College, last night when Verona and Sunbury played a sudden death game for the championship of the County Hockey League, the Verona six winning out 3-2 after forty minutes of overtime.
By the kindness of the R.M.C. authorities the league was able to secure the Holt rink for the final, and it was well crowded with wildly cheering spectators who got their money's worth in excitement.
Sunbury, after a nip and tuck series with Wolfe Island, finally got to the finals by hard work. Verona had a much easier time and had no great trouble disposing of opposition in its own section.
The teams were evenly matched, and, cheered on by their supporters, disputed every inch of ice and made the battle one that will be historic in the annals of the county league. Sunbury scored the first goal amid wild cheering from the supporters of the southern team. Then Verona evened things up and the score stayed at 1-1 for the full sixty minutes. In the first overtime period Sunbury scored and made it 2-1. With only a minute or so left to play, and while one of the Sunbury defence men was dancing an untimely jig, a Verona forward wriggled through and tied it up once more.
Three more overtime periods were played, forty minutes extra in all, and at the end of the last one, with just about a minute left, Verona scored the winning goal.
Leighton Gordon was the star for Sunbury and K. Trousdale for Verona.
Sunbury—Goal: Turner; defence, C. Patterson, L. Patterson; centre, L. Gordon; wings, H. Gordon and Noble; subs, Wiltse and Meddow.
Verona—Goal: Revell; defence, E. Trousdale and Manson; centre, K. Trousdale; wings, Martin and Craig; Referee—Joe Smith.

to their usual standard of perfection, and did not rally throughout the game. While the field work of the Frontenacs was hair raising and applauded to the spectators to be unnatural, nothing being missed. Any team that can hold No. 3 Battery to high praise. Although No. 3 Battery had an off night and made a few costly errors their play was of watch. Both teams will step on the field on Tuesday next in a very determined mood and fans who fall to see this final game will miss the treat of their lives. The stars for Frontenacs were Compeau and H. Richards, while for No. 3 Battery the two Fugas as catcher and pitcher were hot stuff. An effort will be made by Col. Constantine, president of the league, to have Gen. Elmsley, G.O.C., at the final game to present the league trophy to the winning team. Tuesday evening will be the last of indoor baseball for this season, and the hardest struggle yet seen in indoor ball will be staged. Umpires will be Lawess, Arnel and Young.

INDOOR BASEBALL.
Before a very large crowd in the armoures last night, the Frontenac Regt. won the 4th game of the championship series, defeating the No. 3 Battery by the score of 11-4. This ties up the championship series, and a grim struggle will take place in the armoures on Tuesday evening next when the final decision must be made. No 3 Battery were not up to their usual standard of perfection, and did not rally throughout the game. While the field work of the Frontenacs was hair raising and applauded to the spectators to be unnatural, nothing being missed. Any team that can hold No. 3 Battery to high praise. NO NEW DEVELOPMENTS.
In the Arnold Case—The Commandant in Ottawa.
No new developments have occurred in the Arnold case. Major-Gen. Sir Archibald Macdonell, commandant of the Royal Military College in Ottawa, but would give no information before he left.
There was a story in circulation that the senior cadets had been ordered to remain within the college enclosure until further notice, but R. M. C. authorities would not confirm this.
It is likely that the commandant is now carrying out his own personal enquiry into the conditions governing recruits at the college. His action in going to Ottawa is taken in some places to indicate that something of importance has come to his notice and that he has gone to take up the matter with the department. Further developments may be expected around the first of next week.

Labor Representatives Here.
John Flett, of the American Federation of Labor, and representing the carpenters' union, Mr. Odell of the shoe workers' union, and Mr. Noble, representative of the electricians' union, were in the city on Thursday and spoke at a meeting of the members of the Trades and Labor Council. The meeting was very largely attended and the addresses were very much appreciated. J. Melville, president of the Trades and Labor Council presided.

Suffers Fractured Arm.
Joseph Phillips, employed at the Davis dry dock, was taken to the General Hospital on Friday morning suffering from a broken arm. It is thought that he was in the act of taking off a belt when he was caught. Upon examination at the hospital it was found that two bones in the right forearm were broken.

"Take films" to Gibson's.
The R. M. C. hockey team left today at noon for Toronto to play off with Osgoode Hall in the finals of the Intermediate Intercollegiate hockey series at the Arena to-morrow afternoon.
"Films developed" at Gibson's.
On account of the mild weather, it has been found necessary to postpone all the curling games which were scheduled to be played during the past two or three days.
In New York the French francs on Thursday held for the first time in history below four cents apiece.
