Indians Are Back—John Ross Had His Hand Badly Lacerated.

Athens, March 24.—Adjacent farmers have begun sugar-making. Syrup in limited quantities, has appeared on the market. The Hollingsworth grocery is being renovated and decorated. W. A. Johnston moved last week to the Latimer house, Wellington and Elgin streets. Mr. and Mrs. Kermit Thornhill have returned to the American side after spending the past few months in the Thornhill house, Wellington street. Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Brown have leased the Alexander Eaton house, Main street. At the residence of Albert Carr, near the mill pond, a sale of the household effects of his son, Herbert Carr, took place last week. The latter, with his wife, has taken up residence across the border, and wished to dispose of their furniture.

A family of Indians, from St. Regis, arrived last week and are again domiciled in George Ireland's house. They are quiet, peaceable and industrious and have occupied these premises at intervals for about ten years.

Miss Cora Grey, Brockville, has returned for the millinery season. Nurse Grey has been somewhat indisposed at her apartments, Victoria street. W. G. Parish is considerably improved in health, much to the delight of his friends. Miss Caroline Larose, matron of the Galt hospital, is convalescing favorably at the home of Mr. Parish, following a four months' cessation of duties as the result of poisoning from an infected finger.

Mrs. Fred Scovill is a patient at the General Hospital, Brockville. Miss Hazel Burns is able to resume her place in Lamb's drug store. When closing down, his circular saw, preparatory to quitting work for the day at J. Shaw's, John Ross had the misfortune to have his hand badly lacerated a few days ago.

The smallpox scare is abating. There were but few cases, and those of a mild type. There was a general vaccination epidemic, especially among the students, and gymnastic exercises and athletic stunts are taboed.

Two enjoyable surprise parties took place recently to celebrate birthday anniversaries, one on the 14th inst., at Mrs. Clara Chant's, and the other at Miss Susan Whitso's on the 15th inst. On the evening of the 16th inst., under the direction of the organist, Miss Carrie Robinson, A.L.C.M., an interesting song service was held in the Methodist church.

On the morning of the 20th inst. Rev. Mr. Upham, pastor of the local Baptist church, united in marriage Miss Hazel, daughter of Mrs. Lucy Yates and the late Philip Yates, of this place, and Albert McGouglie, Flower Station. The newly-wedded pair left in the afternoon for Toronto and other points.

On the 21st inst. Messrs. R. Rahmer, delegate from the Methodist Sunday school; James Brown, delegate from the local Tuxis square, and Leslie Burnham left for Carleton Place, to attend the boys' conference.

This evening at the Epworth League, there is to be a debate on the advantages of the country vs. city. Affirmative side is to be taken by Boyce Sheffield and Clarabelle Livingston; negative by James Brown and Marjorie Gile—all high school students.

Honored The Team.
George S. James, secretary and manager of Perth Rink Company, tendered a complimentary dinner in the Hicks House, Perth, Saturday night, to players, officers and supporters of the Perth hockey team, when upwards of sixty were present. Mr. James also presented the players and coach with beautiful signet rings bearing their initials. At the plate of each player was a small hockey stick of orange and black with the player's name and inscribed thereon, "Souvenir Perth Rink Company to Perth Crescents, 1923-24."

The Ottawa Journal of Monday has the following:

"If the harvesters hiking to Ottawa to tackle the Government desire work, they may have it from the local Employment Bureau where farm jobs at from $25 to $35 a month, with board and lodging, await them. However, only experienced men need apply."

"Or if there are river drivers wearied with a winter's inactivity, they may travel northward. Orders are coming in for them, the wages paid being $50 and $60 a month."

SPRING

Where soft the willow catkins rise and gleam
Against the reeds—a woody background here;
'Tis here we first behold the returning life
That hails the tender childhood of the year.

And see! the snow has gone from off the heights,
Where last year's grasses drably lie revealed
Until a younger growth shall hide the old,
And spread its greenness over hill and field.

The tender skies are grey and soft with cloud.
That shower the earth when'er the veil is torn,
Or part to show the gleaming sun beyond,
Still mounting northward over Capricorn.

And here the trees are budding fresh anew;
The lilac-twigs are breaking to unfold,
And all around the scent of early life
Is like a story, new yet often told.

While high o'erhead the while the song is heard
That pours from out of feathered throats at morn,
And fills the air with music and with song,
That late in southern clime was breezed and born.

These are the first—the heralds of the flowers
That soon will fill with light the sheltered dell,
While overhead the trees will meet in shade,
And sighing branches whisper "All is Well."

GERMANY TAXES THE ALLIES

Irving Fisher in the April Yale Review.

Being unable or unwilling to pay all her bills by taxes, Germany resorted to inflation and paid partly by paper money newly created for that purpose. German inflation will go down in history as the most instructive lesson in unstable money the world has ever seen. It has not only been the symptom of German economic degeneration but has become in turn the principal cause of that degeneration. It created a vicious circle which drew Germany down to the bottom of a madly whirling vortex where she now lies struggling to recover by substituting the more stable Renten mark and gold mark for the discredited paper mark. Inflation is a form of indirect taxation; for, just to the extent that the government compels the people to take marks which depreciate, to that extent it taxes the people. No has this tax fallen wholly on the Germans; for to the extent that paper marks have been sold abroad and not afterward realized on, Germany has taxed, or at least mulcted, the foreigner also. In effect this amounted to making the Allies pay the reparation!
