REQUEST OF G.W.V.A. REGARDING PENSIONERS

Asks That the Pensioners of This District Be Examined in Kingston.

At the meeting of the executive of the G.W.V.A. Monday night the following resolution was passed:

"Whereas it has been brought to our attention that many ex-service men called for pension examination are required to go to Ottawa and that in many cases this works a hardship on those who have to engage substitutes to carry on their work, besides entailing unnecessary expense to the Department of S. C. R. in providing travelling expenses and other allowances;

"Be it resolved therefore that this association recommend to the government that all examinations of pensioners resident in Kingston and vicinity be made by the local representatives of the Board of Pension Commissioners."

Copies were sent to Hon. Dr. Beaud, D.S.C.R.; Dr. Arnold, director of medical services, and Dr. W. B. Ballantyne, unit medical director.

A letter was received from the premier acknowledging the communication of the Kingston branch concerning preferential treatment of ex-service men for civil service positions. The premier thanked the association for the letter and assured them that this policy would be retained by the government and that he would communicate the presentations of the branch to his colleagues.

THE BRITISH HIKERS LEAVE FOR OTTAWA

Addressed Large Gathering on the Market Square on Monday Evening

The party of hikers, delegates of Toronto's stranded British harvesters, proceeded on their march to Ottawa Tuesday morning after having spent a day and two nights in Kingston. They could not speak too highly of the treatment accorded them here and said it was by far the best they had received anywhere so far.

Monday night a public meeting was held in the market square by the little band and gave reasons for the march to Ottawa and the grievances which they will put before the government. They are determined to go through with their mission and the speakers impressed the large crowd who gathered to hear them.

They had nearly all secured a bath at the Y.M.C.A. during the day and in the afternoon had been guests of the Capitol theatre. After their meeting in the evening they were the guests of the Grand Opera House and the Arlie Marks Company and returned immediately after the performance to their quarters at the armouries. Donations of clothing and cash were given to them during the evening by sympathetic citizens.

J. Toner, one of the party, who had been taken to the Kingston General Hospital on Sunday, had recovered sufficiently Tuesday morning to rejoin the party and continue on his way. The boys were all in good spirits and were hoping for a continuance of the prevailing good weather.

OBITUARY

The Late F. J. McCheyne.

Frederick John McCheyne passed away at the General Hospital on Saturday morning, after an illness extending over a period of several months. Although Mr. McCheyne had only been a patient in the hospital for a few weeks, he had been in a critical condition for some time before that, and, although the very best medical care was given him, very little hope was entertained for his recovery, and the end came on Saturday.

Mr. McCheyne was born at South Crosby, May 21st, 1874, and was the son of Richard and Louisa McCheyne. In his early manhood he followed the calling of an engineer.

The funeral was held from R. J. Reid's undertaking parlors on Monday afternoon, the service being conducted by Rev. Dr. Lennon, and the body was placed in the vault at Cataragui cemetery, awaiting burial at a later date. The pall-bearers were Lyn Brooker, Horace Hunt, Robert Tait, John Burley, Stanley Christmas and Ellsworth Lashaw.

Deceased is survived by his wife, Louisa McCheyne, Kingston; one son, Earle McCheyne, who served in the world war, and is at present in Manitoba; his mother, Mrs. (Capt.) Brooker, Portland; four sisters, Mrs. Lucina Brooker, Watertown, N.Y.; Mrs. Charles Woodcock, Vancouver, B.C.; Mrs. H. A. Donnelly, Winnipeg, Man.; Mrs. Edward Kennedy, Portland, and three brothers, John Brooker, Hamilton; William Brooker, Detroit, Mich., and James Brooker, Portland.

Late Mrs. Perryman.

There passed away on March 24th, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. A. Fraser, 338 Brock street, Temperance Rogers, widow of the late John Perryman, at the age of seventy-six years. Mrs. Perryman was born in London, Eng., on March 20th, 1848.

With her husband she came to Canada in 1871. They settled in Kingston and made many friends. John Perryman died about two years ago. All the children of the deceased lady were at her bedside when she passed to rest. There are four sons, three daughters, twenty-three grandchildren and sixteen great-grandchildren. The surviving children are: Mrs. W. A. Monck, Hamilton; Mrs. G. O'Riley, Hamilton; Mrs. A. Fraser, Kingston; John, Hamilton; William, New Bedford, Mass.; Richard, Royal Oak, Mich., and George, at home.

The funeral will be held Wednesday afternoon from the residence of her daughter, Mrs. Arthur Fraser, 338 Brock street, to Cataragui cemetery.

Death of a Child.

Kenneth, the infant son of James Smith, 768 Princess street, passed away on March 23rd. The funeral was held on Monday afternoon to Cataragui cemetery in charge of the firm of S. S. Corbett.

The Late Mrs. W. W. Chown.

A lady esteemed and renowned for church work throughout Canada passed away Tuesday morning in the person of Mrs. W. W. Chown, 164 Division street. Mrs. Chown was formerly Miss Alice J. B. Wheeler, Tamworth. In 1882 she went with her husband to Belleville and in 1906 they again changed their place of residence, going to Edmonton, Alta. Some years ago they returned to the east and took up residence in London, Ont., and about four years ago returned to Kingston. Wherever they had gone, Mrs. Chown had been a leader in church work. She was president of the Alberta branch of the Women's Missionary Society of the Methodist church; was president of the Y.M.C.A. Ladies' Auxiliary at Belleville, of the Ladies' Aid at London, Ont. Everywhere found this fine lady active in good work.

She was a woman of splendid talents, beautiful character and charming manner. Her life was a benediction to all who came within the range of her influence. Eminent in herself, she served with a joy and delight that created enthusiasm. In church she was a centre of activity, in the home, a sweet, tender and devoted mother and in the places of sadness and sorrow an angel of mercy and tenderness. Her rare qualities made her everywhere a favorite and her passing will awaken the keenest regret among her friends in the city, in the district and in the several places where she had lived.

Surviving are her husband, W. W. Chown; two brothers, James Wheeler, Tamworth and John, Watertown, N.Y.; two sisters, Mrs. McVittie, Idaho, and Mrs. J. A. Amey, Moscow; three sons, William Allen, Toronto, Russell C., Toronto and LeRoy, Calgary, Alta.

While in Kingston Mrs. Chown was an active member of Sydenham street Methodist church, where the funeral will be held Thursday afternoon, Rev. Dr. R. H. Bell officiating.

V. S. Tompkins has resigned the leadership of the Brockville Rifles band. He cannot reside in the town during the summer.
