"THE HUNCHBACK OF NOTRE DAME"

Opens at Capitol Theatre Tomorrow Night—A Record Breaker.

"The Hunchback of Notre Dame," the massive and much heralded film production of Victor Hugo's story masterpiece which swept into overnight fame in Toronto and Montreal, will be given its local premier at the Capitol theatre to-morrow when it begins a limited engagement of three days. Never before, it is said, has there been offered a picture production representing so stupendous a cost—$1,500,000—never a film presentation so exact in its details, so artistic in its conception, so wonderful in the acting of its seventy-five principals, two hundred sub-principals and in the handling of the mob scenes in which more than 2,000 persons take part.

Lon Chaney, admittedly the finest interpreter of unusual character roles on either stage or screen, plays the stellar part of Quasimodo, the deformed bell-ringer of Notre Dame, with Ernest Torrence as Clopin, the underworld king; and Patsy Ruth Miller as Esmeralda.

Carl Laemmle, who founded Universal City out in Southern California, it is said, has achieved something there which awakens the utmost admiration. He has taken Hugo's rather turgid melodramatic novel, and after building a replica of Paris' famous cathedral, he has retold Hugo's story in pictures—vivid, vivid pictures that hold the attention and excite admiration by their undeniable power and beauty. The spirit of the story is Quasimodo, the hunchback, an elemental creature, twisted in body and restricted in mind, who haunts the great church, Quasimodo, as Mr. Chaney presents him, is said to be a grotesque monster, and yet under the forbidding aspect the actor succeeds in making the character human and pitiful. His daring poses on the projecting gargoyles of the cathedral, his bold descent, stone by stone, of the front facade of the great church, his hazardous swinging on the great bells at the risk of his life, the gruesome scene of his castigation in the market place and the pathos of his final act as, dying, he rings his own death knell on his beloved bells, are features, it is said, that make "The Hunchback of Notre Dame" the most noted film production to date.

Among the other principals in the big caste are: Norman Kerry who plays Phoebus; Tully Marshall, as Louis XI; Raymond Hatton, as Gringoire; Nigel de Bruiler, as Don Claude and Gladys Brockville as the crazy Goulu.

"The Hunchback of Notre Dame" is being presented by the Capitol theatre just as it was presented in other cities when it was shown at dollar and a half prices. A special score written for the production by Dr. Hugo Hiesfeld, the noted New York impresario, will be rendered by an augmented orchestra under the directorship of Miss M. Teigmann. Because of its great cost of production, it is to be shown at a slightly increase in price. The price set for Kingston is thirty-five cents for the matinees and fifty cents with a few reserved at seventy-five cents for the evening performances, it will be shown twice daily, 2.30 and 8.15.

"The English Review." The English Review for March contains the first number of "The Empire Supplement," which will henceforth be included every month. Its object is twofold—to ventilate questions of Imperial interest, and to render a periodical which reflects English views a more effective link of common thought and purpose with the scattered populations of British race overseas. Already such numerous promises of assistance have been received from public men and writers distinguished in Imperial affairs that the certainty of authoritative contributions is assured.

The English Review has a larger circulation than any similar periodical of its kind and it is widely quoted in the press of Great Britain. If with its Empire Supplement it gains new readers and secures the notice of the press throughout the Dominions, it will be able to assist in the formation of an Imperial public opinion.

Visitors to Canada have commented on the fact that, while American periodicals are ubiquitous, similar English publications are rarely seen. The English Review, which seeks to uphold British interests throughout the Empire, and to promote closer union of the British race, will help to make good that deficiency. The Review will be posted to any address in Canada for twelve months for $3, which may be remitted in bills, or by cheque, or by express or money order.

Steamship companies serving Canadian ports received a total of $1,129,625.66 in subsidies from the Canadian Government in the fiscal year just ending.

THE MARCH HATTER SPEAKS.

By ELEANOR GUNN

Several variations of the tricorne are bidding for popularity. When Rebovux made a four-cornered hat and then reduced it to three by curving the back point, it did seem that the possibilities of this particular model had been exhausted. But behold, forthwith came another version of many flaps, if not actually angles, produced in satin like the original.

Artificial as well as real flowers, for feathers, ornaments and the several units which go to make a composite hat? If it is a feather season, can one complain because flowers are not added for good measure? Just now, ribbons and fabrics are supreme, but there are flowers, if branded so that their heads nod forward from a short back trim, which are accepted and curiously enough, flowers of the type which are not, as a general rule found on hats. After many seasons of small flatly applied flowers or none at all, it is rather nice to meet an Easter or a calla lily, a tulip or crocus, a pond lily or gardenia thriving on a straw or silken coil. Feather faucets, too, have much to commend, them and not since Eve's day surely, have leaves been so important!

Satin has become a staple between seasons, as well as all year-round material. In tete de negre, or black, it retains its creditable prestige, whether the crown is sectional or on the order of a stove pipe-cut down before attaining its full growth.

The Best Cough Syrup is Home-made.

Here's an easy way to save $2, and you have the best cough remedy you ever tried.

You've probably heard of this well-known plan of making cough syrup at home. But have you ever used it? When you do, you will understand why thousands of families, the world over, feel that they could hardly keep house without it. It's simple and cheap, but the way it takes hold of a cough will quickly earn it a permanent place in your home.

Into a 16-oz. bottle, pour 2 1/2 ounces of Pinex; then add plain granulated sugar syrup to fill up the bottle. Or, if desired, use clarified molasses, honey, or corn syrup instead of sugar syrup. Either way, it tastes good, never spoils, and gives you 16 ounces of better cough remedy than you could buy ready-made for $2.50.

It is really wonderful how quickly this home-made remedy conquers a cough—usually in 24 hours or less. It seems to penetrate through every air passage, loosens a dry, hoarse or tight cough, lifts the phlegm, heals the membranes, and gives almost immediate relief. Splendid for throat tickle, hoarseness, croup, bronchitis and bronchial asthma.

Pinex is a highly concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract, and has been used for generations for throat and chest ailments. To avoid disappointment, ask your druggist for "2 1/2 ounces of Pinex" with directions, and don't accept anything else. Guaranteed to give absolute satisfaction or money refunded.
