HISTORICAL PAGEANT

To Be Put on at Kingston Exhibition—Committee Making Arrangements.

A meeting of the committee that will assist in arranging for the historical pageant to be put on during the week of the Kingston Industrial Exhibition in September, was held in the office of the department of agriculture on Thursday afternoon.

The exhibition committee is assuming the expense of the pageant, for which the committee will provide the hundreds of performers needed. The John Rogers Company, which is putting on pageants in many places in Ontario, will send a man to train the performers, provide costumes, stage lighting, etc.

OBITUARY

Late Joseph Wilson.

A good citizen has passed to rest Thursday night in the person of Joseph Wilson, who for many years was in the contracting business in this city. The deceased took an active part in the educational work and was for several years a member of the Board of Education.

Late Mrs. Caroline Bennett. The death took place on Friday of one of Kingston's grand old ladies in the person of Caroline A. C. Smyth, widow of the late Henry Bennett. She was born in Kingston, Oct. 16th, 1831, and had been a resident of this city all her life.

The funeral will take place Saturday afternoon from the residence of her granddaughter, Mrs. S. J. McClelland, 185 Clergy street, to Calverly cemetery. Rev. Dr. R. H. Bell will conduct the services.

COUNCIL TO DECIDE

About Chinese Laundry, at Corner of Brock and Division.

At a recent meeting of the Board of Health, a complaint was received regarding the location of a Chinese laundry at the corner of Brock and Division streets. The matter was referred to the city solicitor, and acting on information received from the solicitor, the board, at a meeting held on Thursday afternoon, decided to refer the matter to the city council.

The board authorized the medical health officer, Dr. A. R. B. Williamson, to give the necessary notices for the closing up of the Revere House and the dwelling at 73 Queen street. The people engaged in the business in the Revere House will be given until May 15th to secure new premises, while the tenants who are not engaged in business, will be given ten days to vacate the building.

Sunbury Aid Held Meeting.

The March meeting of the Sunbury Union Aid was held at the home of Mrs. Harvey Dixon and was one of the largest meetings held since the organization of this society. Twenty-eight members responded to the roll call. A large number of visitors were also present. The chief item of business was means by which the seating capacity of the choir could be enlarged and after a lengthy discussion Mrs. H. Shannon, Mr. Adair and Miss Kells were appointed a committee to look after the necessary repairs. After the business meeting the members and their guests enjoyed a delightful lunch served by Mrs. H. Dixon, Miss Kells, Mrs. Harvey Shannon and Mrs. C. Stoness. Receipts of meeting amounted to $16.10.

Smallpox at Brockville. Brockville, April 4.—A third case of smallpox developed yesterday at the seminary of the Standard Church of America, when Nelson Scott, a student belonging to Bordenwood, Frontenac county, was removed to the isolation hospital. Two students were previous sufferers from the disease.

Trout Season Shortened.

Toronto, April 4.—Hon. Charles McCrea announced that the fish and game committee of the legislature has reconsidered its decision to shorten the trout season for speckled trout by a month and has reduced the cut to fifteen days. The season will be open from May 15th to September 15th, both days inclusive—a cut of fifteen days off the former season that opened May 1st.
