IN MEMORIAM. In loving memory of my dear husband. Thomas McMaster, who was accidentally killed on April 4th, 1923.

I, who loved you, sadly miss you, As it dawns another year. In the lonely hours of thinking Thoughts of you are always near. This day brings back to memory, Of a loved one gone to rest,
Those who think of you to-day
Are those who loved you best.
—Sadly missed by wife and child:

IN MEMORIAM. In loving memory of mother, who died March 31st, 1923, at her son's, Edgar Timmerman, Sydenham, Ont.

Gone but not forgotten, Her memory lingers still; She was a loving mother, While she on earth did dweil.
But now she has departed,
For the land, beyond the skies, But for those who love her She still lingers nigh.

Her daughter, Mrs. E. Badour, Co-balt, Ont., March 31st, 1924.

IN MEMORIAM. In loving memory of my dear mo-ther, Mrs. Elizabeth Curry, who died on April 2nd, 1922.

Perfect be thy rest, dear mother, Tis sweet to breathe thy name, in life we loved you dearly In death we do the same.

Dearest mother, you have been absent. lust two years ago to-day, How we miss your presence with us Only my poor aching heart can tell. -Your loving daughters, Pearl and Sarah.

"What size, please?" asks the clerk when you go into a store to buy a new hat.

You tell him the size you wear and he goes to the neatly arranged shelves from which he selects different styles for your approval. You try on a lot of them-and finally come to one which seems to have been made just for you.

Having such a large number of hats in stock is the secret of being able to satisfy everybody.

And the same thing accounts for the A-B-C Classified Section's being able to satisfy everybody. It has such a large stock of fresh, new, up-to-date opportunities that there's one to fit everybody who comes along.

It won't take you very long to find an ad. just made for you. These alphabetically and numerically arranged offers are even more convenient and systematic than the haberdasher's shelves.

The latest styles in spring opportunities are now on
