GEORGE MASOUD INJURED.

When Elevator Crashed Down With His Automobile.

George Masoud, the popular wholesale and retail ice cream dealer is confined to the Hotel Dieu as result of serious injuries which he received at the Blue Garage, corner of Bagot and Queen streets on Thursday afternoon about three o'clock. Dr. S. J. Keyes, who attended Mr. Masoud at the hospital, stated that he had a bad injury to his back but there were no bones broken.

Mr. Masoud was seated in his automobile and was riding down on the elevator at the garage when one of the cables broke and the elevator fell for a distance of about ten feet. When the elevator struck the ground, Mr. Masoud was able to get out of the automobile, but he had to be taken to hospital for treatment. The auto was not greatly damaged as a result of the fall.

HAVE "BOOTLEGGERS" GONE OUT OF BUSINESS?

Two More Lemon Drinkers Before the Police Magistrate on Friday.

Have the "bootleggers" gone out of business in Kingston? Extract of lemon is becoming such a popular beverage in Kingston one would think that all the booze peddlars were on their vacation or quit the business. In the police court on Thursday, two tipplers stated that they had been drinking extract of lemon and on Friday morning two more arraigned before the magistrate stated that they had been indulging in extract of lemon. A fine of $10 and costs was imposed upon each.

Contract Awarded For New School at Athens

S. C. A. Lamb, secretary of the Athens High School Alumni Association, has announced that the contract for the new school building, to replace that destroyed by fire, has been awarded to Fred Haggerty, Brockville, and men have been started cleaning up and excavating for the foundation. The contract calls for completion of the building by October first. A history of the school is being prepared by the secretary and two or three matters of information are sought. Information is desired concerning the establishment of a school in a brick building south of the then M. E. Parsonage, the date of John B. Holmes' School in the Baptist church, and the date of Rev. J. E. Johnson's school in the old town hall. Any readers who can supply any of those pieces of information would be thanked for forwarding them to S.C.A. Lamb, at Athens, Ont.
