What the Press Agents Say About Coming Attractions

"LOVING LIES" AT GRAND.
To-night affords the last opportunity to see a very fine bill of motion pictures at the Grand Opera House. "Loving Lies" is the big picture on the bills and those who have seen it are still talking about it with interest. Monte Blue, as the tug captain, shows that the stories about his early life as a sailor are not all "bunk" but that he knows the smell of sea water and fears it not. The filming leaves nothing to be desired and there is a storm scene that is wonderful.

The plot is interesting. It is woven about the young sea captain and his wife—of happiness and calm, of sorrow and storms, the whole thing seeming to work in with the moods of the sea itself. It is a good one.

On the same programme, as an entree, is found the Mack Sennett five-reeler, "The Shriek of Araby." Just imagine Mack Sennett handling this shiek stuff with his terrible Arabs and beautiful women, etc. The result is better than one could picture. The programme will be offered for the last time to-night.

"BRINGING UP FATHER" COMING
To the millions of friends, admirers and Americans, who have followed the adventures of Jiggs Mahoney, the George McManus comic, will be pleased no doubt with the announcement that a new "Bringing Up Father" play will be the next attraction at Grand Opera House, Wednesday, April 9th, bargain matinee and night. The piece which is in two acts and five scenes is entitled "Bringing Up Father On Broadway." All the beloved characters, to even Maggie, who still has lofty social aspirations, will appear in the flesh. They will be impersonated by a carefully selected cast, augmented by a beauty chorus of twenty young women. The latest chronicles and adventures of the Mahoney "Gang" takes "The Gang" as "Father" is pleased to call them, to extreme portions of the globe; even as far as King Tut's Tomb. The fun is kept at top speed throughout and the song hits along with other surprises, features, novelties and laugh-compelling situations add to the gaiety of the occasion.

STIRRING DRAMA IN "THE ETERNAL CITY"

A youth fighting desperately to bring to ruin the woman he loved—unaware of her identity.

That is the strange situation about which the story of "The Eternal City," which opens a three days engagement at the Capitol theatre Monday, revolves. It is the centre of one of the most gripping stories ever written, and is from the pen of that master novelist, Hall Caine.

George Fitzmaurice produced the story in Italy, with a cast that includes five players of stellar rank—Barbara La Marr, Lionel Barrymore, Bert Lytell, Richard Bennett and Montagu Love. This First National picture has been pronounced the masterpiece of a decade.

Bert Lytell is cast as the youth, David Roma, with Miss La Marr essaying the role of Donna Roma. David returns from the great war to find his sweetheart, Roma, has disappeared from her home in a small village. Heart-broken, and unable to learn of her whereabouts, he becomes a vagabond, wandering aimlessly about the country in search of the girl.

In Rome his discontent cause him to join the ranks of the Fascist, then on the verge of overthrowing the party in power. The chief objective of their wrath is Baron Bonelli (played by Lionel Barrymore) an unscrupulous war profiteer who was devoting his immense wealth to fighting the Fascist.

It was common gossip that the baron has a mistress—a sculptress. When David learned that she had executed a statue in honor of the fallen war heroes he became so indignant that he gathered a squad of former soldiers and destroyed the work of art. With the broken pieces at his feet he looked upward to a balcony of the castle and there he saw

The denouement of this episode is one that will linger long in the memory. In conjunction with the regular programme two excellent vaudeville acts will be presented. The Morgan Dancers are clever dancers and sing the latest song hits. Hope and Mantion, instrumentalists, have many musical novelties which will find favor with the patrons of the Capitol.

E. REMINGTON DEAD AT 95.

Gave $250,000 to Syracuse University 35 Years Ago.

Syracuse, N.Y., April 5.—Virtually impoverished by a philanthropy toward Syracuse University, it is intimated in an official acknowledgment making mention of a return for his kindness, Eliphalet Remington, aged ninety-five, of Ithaca, oldest trustee of Syracuse University, and donor of its first property here, is dead, after a year's illness in a sanitarium at Herkimer. Benefactions by Remington and his brother in favor of Syracuse University totalled over a $250,000, coming nearly half a century ago when the Remingtons were rated exceedingly rich men. The concern they founded for the manufacture of firearms was of world standing, but after reverses they made an assignment of stock in favor of creditors, the typewriter taking its name from them, coming too late to save their fortune.

Moving About at Consec.

Consec. April 4.—Mrs. S. J. Maybee, who has been absent on a visit of over three months among her children, returned home on Monday. She visited for sometime in Niagara Falls, N.Y., Easton, Pa., and Philadelphia, N.Y., and Mrs. Spriggs are vacating the Laxter house where they have lived for the past year and are moving into the house lately occupied by C. VanWart. Mr. VanWart has moved into his new home which was owned for a long time by R. Bedford. Halton Spencer, Salem, was a visitor in the village, on Thursday, while Claude Waukecker, of the same place, spent a short time in the village on business on Monday afternoon. Epworth League was held last night at the Methodist church instead of its usual time on Friday evening. It is expected that Mr. French, a relative of C. French, at the Stone Mill, will become a resident of the village in the near future.

At the Police Court.

Owing to the absence of Magistrate Farrell, Ald. R. E. Kent was on the bench at the session of the police court on Saturday morning. There was but one case on the docket, that of a young man charged with disorderly conduct and it was remanded until Monday.

A Remarkable Hen.

Brookville, April 5.—A hen possessing four feet, and laying two eggs daily, is the unique possession of W. Halpeny of this town. The bird, nine months old, has in reality two bodies with the exception that there is but one head.

Dr. Kindred, Tweed, left for Winnipeg, where he will spend several months.

CAMBRIDGE WINS FROM OXFORD CREW.

Putney, England, April 5.—Cambridge won the annual boat race from Oxford in the Thames today. The Oxford crew was heavier and more experienced, but the light blues crossed the mark by four and a half lengths. It was the seventh-sixth revival of the historic race from Putney to Mortlake and the result was a complete surprise.

VILLAGE IN FLAMES; CHURCH MENACED

Seven Buildings, Including Bank Branch, Burned in Arthabaska County, Que.

Victoriaville, Que., April 5.—At five o'clock yesterday evening, fire broke out in a store owned by Joseph Frechette, in the village of St. Paul de Chester, Arthabaska county, and quickly spread to adjoining buildings. At eight o'clock seven houses were in flames, including the bank branch. At this hour the parish church was also menaced, but the parishioners were striving valiantly to check the progress of the flames.

No further communication has been received, owing to the wires being down.

LATE ROMAIN MOSIER.

Prominent Wolfe Island Resident, Who Died on March 30th.

Wolfe Island, April 5.—On March 30th, Romain Mosier, son of the late Samuel Mosier, passed away at the age of seventy-four years. Mr. Mosier had been ailing for some time, but his illness was not thought to be of so serious a nature. He was born at Chippeau Creek in the vicinity of Grimsby, Ont., and moved with his father to Wolfe Island about seventy-three years ago, his mother having died at Grimsby when he was a baby. Mr. Mosier spent all his life upon the island. He owned the best two hundred acres in the township.

In his younger days he served the township as deputy reeve and later as commissioner. He was a staunch conservative in politics, an able speaker and debater, and took an active part in all elections. Mr. Mosier's grandfather was one of the U. E. Loyalist's stock, having left the United States after the independence was signed. In religion he was a Presbyterian, and his funeral sermon was preached by Rev. A. Russell, of the Union church. Mr. Mosier leaves to mourn his loss, three daughters: Mrs. Franklin S. Walker, Black River, N.Y.; Mrs. John Gray, Whitby, Ont.; and Mrs. Harry R. Davis, Kingston; also four sons: Wallace R. Dewar, Lake, Sask.; William M., Ward F. and Wellington E., all of Wolfe Island. His remains were placed in the vault at Marysville under the charge of the James Reid & Sons, undertakers. Interment will take place at Sandhill cemetery in the near future. The bearers were Braden Orr, Herbert Sluman, David Watts, David Bustard, William Alum and Edgar Siville.

R. T. HARRISON DEAD.

At Bongard—He Was a Man of Fine Attainments.

Bongard's, April 3rd.—Following an illness of some duration, Rowell T. Harrison, passed away at his home at Bongard's, March 29th, at the age of sixty-two years. The funeral was held on Wednesday and was largely attended. After a short service at the home the body was conveyed by six of the deceased neighbors to Bongard's church, where an impressive service was conducted by Rev. Mr. Brethen, after which the remains, followed by many sympathetic friends, were deposited in Glenwood cemetery, Picton.

Deceased was the second son of J. H. Harrison, who in his nineteenth year, survives. In early life he married Maude, only daughter of the late J. D. Bongard, who, with one son, Allan, mourns the loss of a kind and indulgent husband and father. A brother, B. E. Harrison, and two sisters, Mrs. E. A. Williams, and Mrs. D. T. McCarnock, Picton, survive him.

The late Mr. Harrison was a man of fine character, good social qualities and possessed exceptional mechanical ability, the loss of which will be greatly missed by the people among whom he dwelt.

Mrs. A. Condie, Waupoos, died at her home on March 24th, after an illness of nearly two years. Deceased leaves besides her husband, one son and one daughter. The funeral was held on Thursday at Waupoos church, buried at Glenwood cemetery, Picton. The service was conducted by Rev. Mr. Brethen and was largely attended.

Mrs. Allan Harrison, who underwent a serious operation at Picton Hospital, is progressing favorably toward recovery. Mrs. Thomas Bongard is visiting relatives in Picton.

P. Thurston and son have gone to Indian Point, where they are engaged in fishing for another season. Mr. and Mrs. A. Kerr, Waupoos, visited with friends here recently.

Lieut.-Col. Theodore A. Wroughton, assistant commissioner of the R.C.M.P., Vancouver, B.C., has sent in his resignation with a request that he be retired on a pension.

The late Dr. G. W. Judson, Lya, who died suddenly, is survived by his widow and two sons, Dr. Arthur H. Judson, Brockville, and Frank Judson, Toronto.

Back To The Old Home.
Pleasant Valley, March 31.—Sugar-making operations are in full swing. A good season is reported. Watson Bros. have finished sawing wood in this vicinity. Mrs. Thomas Bradford has recovered from her recent critical illness. Many are suffering from the grippe. Mrs. John A. Hughes was called to the bedside of her mother, Mrs. F. Walker, Harrowsmith, who suffered a stroke this morning. Many attended the Dramatic Club entertainment at Harrowsmith and Sydenham. Mr. and Mrs. Harry Watson arrived from Flint, Mich. Their many friends are glad to learn that they will again occupy their farm here after an absence of nearly two years.

George Hamilton has moved to the Hagle farm. The funeral of the late Miss Rose Collins, Toronto, was conducted from the residence of S. Reynolds. Service was held in the Free Methodist church, Rev. Mr. Crowder officiating thence to Sydenham where the remains were laid to rest in the family plot. Our sympathy is extended to the bereaved ones.

Mrs. A. Manson has returned from a pleasant sojourn with friends at Cosby. Miss Fleming has resumed her duties as teacher. Mrs. George A. Phillips, Smith's Falls, visited their father, George Bagg, recently. Miss Ada Botting is convalescing at her home here.

The Prince and Popularity.
The Prince does his duties so heartily and thoroughly, that his fellow-subjects must be loath to grudge him his athletic pleasure. At the same time his life has a public value, and he has a public responsibility not to risk it beyond reason. We cannot help feeling that his healthy spirits have carried him here a little over the border-line, and that he would add to his very great popularity if he let it be known that he was resolved to lessen his risks in future.
