DIVISION COURT CASES

An Automobile Action—Woman Wins Action Against Her by Plumbing Firm.

The sitting of the Division court on Tuesday last from nine o'clock in the morning until 3.40 in the afternoon with a short intermission for dinner. Two automobile accident cases appeared on the docket. The case of John Gibson vs. Thomas Nicholson took considerable time. John Gibson, who is a taxi driver, asked damages to the extent of $102.02 for damages to his car, which he claimed were caused by the Nicholson car running into him. After the case was presented by T. J. Rigney, who represented the defendant, and A. E. Day for the plaintiff, Judge Lavell stated that he would reserve his decision, but before the court adjourned he announced that the plaintiff had failed in his action and the defendant was entitled to the amount of his counter-claim, which was $18.

Another very interesting case was heard. A local plumbing firm entered action to recover the sum of $2.35 which they claim a Coborne street woman owed them for work done in her home. The woman denied that any such work had been done by the firm, and as there was only one man's word against that of the defendant, the judge dismissed the claim.

There was a very amusing case on the docket. A woman sued her landlord for $60 to which she claimed she was entitled as the landlord had ordered the bailiff to take possession of her gramophone for rent. The bailiff said that he had sold the machine for ten dollars at an auction sale, and it was later bought by a second-hand dealer. The second-hand dealer when asked by Judge Lavell as to the value of the machine stated that he had bought it for $5 and after placing twenty-five records with it, he had sold it for $8.

The court found that the machine should not have been taken as the rent was not really due, and allowed the owner $10 for the machine.

George Fair brought action against Richardson and Wilder for a wood lot deal. After hearing the evidence, the court gave damages to the plaintiff for the full amount.

There were fourteen judgment summons cases which were all disposed of in quick order with one exception. When the man in this action was called to the witness box, he presented a receipt from the bailiff which he claimed settled the account in full. The judge adjourned the case until April 29th to allow the plaintiff to show proof that the account was not paid as claimed by the defendant.

ANNIVERSARY OF VIMY

Observed by the 21st Battalion Club—Addresses on the Operation.

The seventh anniversary of the Battle of Vimy Ridge was observed in the G.W.V.A. assembly hall on Tuesday evening. The event was under the auspices of the 21st Battalion Club, the programme consisting of an illustrated review of the famous operation, a short address by Major (the Rev.) R. Bruce Taylor, and vocal and instrumental numbers.

Major (Dr.) L. J. Austin carried out the duties of chairman in a very able manner. Major-General Sir A. C. Macdonell, K.C.K., C.M.G., D.S.O., reviewed the object of the attack on the ridge, its supposed impregnability by the Germans, the elaborate preparations by the Canadians, and their final assault and capture of the stronghold. Major Taylor reminded the audience of the importance of this Canadian success upon the Allied campaign on the western front, its rightful place among notable dates in Canadian history, and of the fact that it is most fitting the anniversary should be observed. He spoke feelingly of the sacrifice made by thousands of Canadians in laying down their lives that the British cause should prevail. The major, who had served as chaplain of the 42nd Battalion, asked that two minutes of silence be observed in memory of the fallen.

The vocal part of the programme consisted of solos by Mr. T. F. Geley and Mr. E. Hess, Mrs. R. G. Betts and Miss Campbell acted as accompanists. Mr. George Newlands favored with a violin solo, and Mr. Arthur Christmas rendered, very acceptably a saxophone solo. Before the commencement of the programme and during the course of it the orchestra, which had been arranged by Mr. W. J. Christmas, played much appreciated selections.

A vote of thanks was proposed by Major F. K. Ladlow, seconded by Major W. M. Nickle, and supported by Major (the Rev.) W. E. Kidd, to the G.W.V.A. for the use of the hall, the chairman, General Macdonell, Principal Taylor, and all who assisted in the success of the evening. The singing of "God Save the King" concluded the programme.

INCREASED RENTAL OF POST OFFICE BOXES

People Must Pay High Price for Use of Box for Their Mail.

Postmaster James Stewart has been notified that there will be an increase in the rental of boxes at the post office. People who desire the privilege of receiving their mail from a box rather than a street delivery, will have to pay more for this privilege.

The order from Ottawa states that in towns where there is a street delivery, the rental of the boxes will be advanced. In the case of those holding small boxes, the rent is to be advanced from one to six dollars per year and in the case of large boxes the rental is to be raised from three dollars to ten dollars per year.

There are about two hundred boxes in the Kingston post office.

Given Month in Jail. On a charge of disorderly conduct, a young man was, on Wednesday morning, sentenced by Magistrate Farrell, to one month in jail. The case was before the magistrate on three occasions and evidence was produced to show that the young man had been misbehaving himself and the court decided that he should be punished with a month in jail. The young man cried like a baby after he had been sentenced.
