CLEAN-UP WEEK
April 23rd to 31st Inclusive

The City Council has selected the above dates as CLEAN-UP Week. All citizens are required to have all objectionable materials removed from their yards and lawns, thereby making our city more beautiful and sanitary, besides lessening the risk of fire. Immediately after the CLEAN-UP Week, I will inspect all premises in the city, and report to the Health Committee. The responsibility of a favorable report rests with the householders. Your co-operation will be appreciated.

EUGENE SLEIGHT,
Sanitary Inspector.

AMUSEMENTS
What the Press Agency Say About Coming Attractions

LONDON'S GREAT CONCERT
EIGHT AT GRAND TONIGHT.
"London's Great Concert 8," the first of the world famous English concert companies to come to Canada, will appear at the Grand Opera House tonight.

This company is composed of well known artists, whom lovers of music will welcome, among them being Tom Copeland, the Scottish singer and comedian; Molly O'Moore, Irish Soprano; Suzette Tarrl, London's favorite soubrette; Dorothy Alwynne, Scotland's leading female violinist; Wilfred Virgo, tenor; Joan Duff, the sixteen-year-old sensation classical pianist; Walter Nunn, L.R.A.M., cellist; Richard Alexander, baritone, better known as the "Singing Sergeant." Their meritorious musical entertainment has been received with wonderful receptions in every city in the Dominion where they have appeared, since arriving here from London a few short weeks ago.

Individually, each one a stellar artist of great renown, they are one and all made a success of the concert platform. Combined, as they appear here, they bring to us an entertainment of rare delight and musical charm, which is certain to bring home to us in a very delightful way how the best in music can be the one avenue whereby all can forget the trials and worries of this chaotic world for a time.

THE ORIGINALS (OLD DUMB-BELLS) IN "RAPID FIRE."
An unique attraction, one which is certain to make a direct hit in Kingston is coming to the Grand Opera House next Friday and Saturday. It is the "Internationally famous Company of Canadian ex-soldier entertainers known to the theatre-going public as the "Originals." Starting first as the Dumbbells and later organizing their own company, the Originals have in their cast fifteen members of the Originals, eighteen Dumbbells.

The revue which this company is bringing here is called "Rapid Fire" and has all the earmarks of being the brightest, snappiest, and most elaborate of all their productions. The cast is headed by the well known favorites Red Newman, Jack Holland and Jimmie Goode. But there are, in reality, no stars. Every one is a real entertainer of note and the revue opens with a bang and runs right through in the same liling manner as its predecessors. "Rapid Fire" is a potpourri of good things presented in a variety programme of twenty-five mammoth numbers all new, which includes all sorts of musical numbers, comedy skits and sketches, single and concerted numbers, etc., etc.

Leonard Young, the managing director, is the designer of several of the costumes and composer of some of the songs. Jack Ayre is responsible for much of the music while Bertram Langley, Alan Murray and Jack McLaren, all of which prove that the Originals have an aggregation of clever people who can write, produce and present an entertainment that always pleases.

ST. DENIS READS CHARACTER BY WALK
"Every woman is plainly labelled in a secret writing that the initiated can read," said Ruth St. Denis in a recent interview. "The lazy girl betrays herself by the way in which she walks. The bad tempered girl is apt to show it by her little steps and gestures and the girl of high mental development broadcasts the fact by her every movement."

"I do not claim that dancing is a cure-all," Miss St. Denis continued. "I do not claim that it can do all for the individual that the practitioners of auto suggestion, for instance, claim for their method, but I do think that dancing, yes, dancing in diaphanous garments, is good for the soul."

In the case of the Denishawn Dancers who together with Miss St. Denis and her husband Ted Shawn, will appear here at the Grand on Thursday, April 24th, it would seem that dancing does bring all hearts into tune, for a happier aggregation of individuals it would be hard to find. The youth and maidens who compose the company have all been Denishawn students for several seasons and are now like one family. In fact it is the invariable rule of Miss St. Denis and Mr. Shawn to refer to their associates as "our children."

STRONGHEART AT THE CAPITOL
Strongheart, the wonder-dog, will be seen on the screen at the Capitol Theatre on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday in "The Love Master."

"Strongheart" selects his own master, irrespective of the party who has the legal title to him. The story is laid in the sparsely settled northwestern regions of Canada, and centres around the mystery of a young man who has just arrived with Strongheart, and ends with the solution of the mystery and the victory of the young belle of the settlement along with the youth. A dog race provides some real thrills.

Ever since Strongheart jumped into fame as the star of "The Silent Call" fans have been asking for more pictures featuring this wonderful dog.

"The Love Master" is a picture even more stirring than his previous pictures; it will quicken your pulse with its thrilling action, its gorgeous scenery, its beautiful romance, peopled with figures of love and courage and Strongheart leaping through scenes that will make you stand up and cheer.

L. & A. Group Formed.
The following letter was received here this morning: "Sporting Editor, Whig: 'The Lennox and Addington Baseball League have organized for the season 1924 with the following officers: President, R. J. Allison, Adolphustown; vice-president, Fred Shortis, Newburgh; secretary-treasurer, Frank Gallagher, Adolphustown. The executive committee is formed of the officers and the secretary and manager of each club. The league is composed of five teams—Tanworth, Newburgh, Napanee, Napanee, and Adolphustown. The league is to remain as it was last year. Will send you the schedule as soon as drafted.—(sgd) R. J. Allison, president."

The News of Tichborne.
Tichborne, April 17.—Owing to the lovely weather the farmers are busy fixing and building fences. A number from around here have had grippe, but are improving. The play put on by young people of this vicinity, last Friday night, was well attended. A. Smith loaded a car with hogs last week. Mr. Garrett has taken on a few extra men on his section to put in ties.

Mrs. William Kennedy spent a few days with her sister, at Trenton, who recently had an operation. Jack Steele and Bruce Allison have gone to Belleville to work on the railway. Mrs. Alonzo Kennedy, 88r., is spending a week with her sister, Mrs. W. D. Bertram, Parkham.

The high school pupils are spending their holidays with their parents. Mr. and Mrs. John Steele spent Sunday at Joseph Steele's; Melville Bertram and mother at John Kennedy's.

Burial of Mrs. Coakes.
The funeral of the late Mrs. Jane Coakes took place on Monday afternoon from the residence of her daughter, Mrs. J. Beck, 135 Raglan road, to Cataract cemetery. Rev. E. H. Burgess, pastor of Zion Presbyterian church, officiated. Deceased is survived by one daughter, Mrs. J. Beck; two sons, David Coakes, Kingston; William Coakes, Toronto. The pallbearers were David Coakes, George Adrian, W. K. Wood, John Hunter, William Brown and John Beck. M. P. Keyes, undertaker, had charge of the funeral.

Want the Bill Passed.
On Sunday a church union petition was circulated in the three Methodist churches of the city asking for the signatures of the members and adherents. The petitions will be forwarded to the Dominion House of Commons and the Senate, asking that the members of these two bodies carry out the wishes expressed by the governing bodies of the Presbyterian, Methodist and Congregational churches that the church union bill be passed.

Samuel Badgley, Muskogon, who had been visiting her sister, Mrs. John MacDonald, Comsecon, has left for Winnipeg where she intends spending several months with another sister, Mrs. J. H. Montgomery.

The Kingston Kennel show, which is being held at the armouries on Monday and Tuesday, was officially opened on Monday morning at ten o'clock.

AT SPRINGWATER, SASK.

Young People Present Play — Two Marriages Recorded.
Springwater, Sask., April 14. — Robert H. Bourk and family have arrived home from Sask., B.C., where Mr. Bourk has taken a large lumbering contract. Miss Jennie Clark, teacher in the junior room of the village school, was called home today owing to serious illness of her mother, who lives near Prince Albert, Sask. Mrs. Culbert Bourk has been suffering for some weeks from a felon on her right thumb.

The play, "The Minister's Bride," put on by the Young People's Society, was greatly enjoyed by a large audience.

The C.G.L.T. group under the management of Miss Rainville, principal of the public school and the Trail Rangers, whose leader is Mr. Anderson, manager of the local bank, will give an oratorical contest in the church on Wednesday night.

Miss Anna McCaughy, on the staff of the Imperial Bank, has resigned and is leaving next week to enter a hospital in Edmonton as a nurse-in-training. A party was given for her last Friday evening by the people of the community and she was presented with a silver fountain pen and a silver pencil. Miss McCaughy has the best wishes of a host of friends.

Springwater lost another popular young lady in the person of Miss Hetty Bourk, whose marriage to Archie Clark, Biggar, Sask., took place on the 9th inst. Miss Bourk was saleslady in her cousin Culbert Bourk's general store, and while here made many friends. Before leaving for her new home the young people of the village gathered at the home of Mrs. C. Bourk on the 7th inst., after a jolly evening of music, games and singing. Hetty was presented with a number of pieces of community plate silver, also gifts of china, showing the esteem she was held in. Best wishes go with her, also to Miss Mildred Bourk, who was married to William Perry on the 2nd inst.

Good Prices for Cows.
Findlay Station, April 19.—On Monday, the 14th, the remains of the late Mrs. Carey were removed from Gananoque vault, and buried in Hill cemetery. Ross Donaldson is visiting at his uncle's, J. Abrams', Front Road; J. Bennett, Kingston, visited his daughter, Mrs. Roberts, recently. Mrs. R. Donaldson is visiting her brother's, Front Road. H. Smith and his mother, Kingston, were recent visitors at J. Agnew's. Miss Myrtle Sidley, Kingston, spent Easter at her uncle's, J. Mullen's. The sale of cows at W. Trotter's, on Monday, was well attended and good prices were realized.

The Ladies' Aid met at the home of Mrs. James Thompson last week. After the meeting closed, lunch was served by Mrs. W. Curtis and Mrs. W. Kiell. F. Thompson, and family, Kingston, visited at Leora Thompson's, on Sunday. Miss Lois Wilson and Grace Donaldson and Leslie Johnston, attending Collegiate, Kingston, are home for the holidays. Miss Campsall is spending her vacation at her father's, H. Campsall's, Hartington. Mrs. Eryon and son have returned from the Kingston General Hospital much improved in health. Mr. and Mrs. W. Simpson and little son, visited at Marble Rock recently.

An industrious life is the best security for food in old age.

Master Derrick Brown, four years old, is traveling from Liverpool, England, to Hollywood, where he will be greeted by his parents. The youngster is making the trip by water and land alone.

Julius Daranyi, 24 years old, who stands exactly 33 inches, assisted one of the Washington traffic officers recently at a busy corner in keeping the vehicles moving.

Miss Annette Kellerman, known far and wide as the "Diving Venus," recently participated in the ladies tennis tournament at Los Angeles, and with her partner were "runners up."

Fearing the entry into the country of the foot and mouth disease, all imports of goats were stopped, so the U.S. department of agriculture has taken up the task of breeding them.

Edgar John Garnsey, Clayton, N. Grindstone Island and had always Y., aged sixty-eight years, died Tuesday. Mr. Garnsey was ill for two years. He was born in 1856 at his old farm to George Jack.
