ST. GEORGE'S DAY IS TO BE OBSERVED

By the Kingston Society Which Will Hold a Dinner Wednesday Evening.

St. George's Society of Kingston, which was revived last year with a strong executive, will observe St. George's Day by holding a dinner in the Belmont restaurant, Brock street, Wednesday evening. This society is not going to allow St. Andrew's Society any longer to be spoken of as the only live national organization in Kingston. The old St. George's Society was very active in Kingston, and the new one is going to be just as strong. The officers are: President, Dr. L. J. Austin; vice-president, R. J. Driver; secretary, Prof. Bridger; treasurer, Capt. Harvey. A number of meetings have been held since last autumn, and the members will commemorate around the festive board the day that Old England has observed for some hundreds of years.

St. George was born of noble parents in Cappadocia and was tortured and martyred on April 23rd, A.D. 305. During the crusades he became the special saint of chivalry in Asia Minor, and the knights who fought in the Holy War wore his red cross on a white field, on their breastplates. He was taken as the patron saint of England about 1348 when St. George's chapel, Windsor, was dedicated to him. He was also a patron saint of Aragon and Portugal, and his cross is still in the Portuguese flag. A legend of the rescue of a royal princess, who was willing to deliver herself to a dragon whose thirst for human blood could only be stayed by the sacrifice of a spotless maiden, by St. George, who slew the dragon, is associated with the young martyr whose name has since become a household word in England, and whose blood red cross is on the banner that stands for the righting of wrongs throughout the world.

NAPANEE BOY SCOUTS HOLD A BIG DANCE

To Raise Money to Defray Expenses of Their Summer Camp.

Napanee, April 22.—Last night the armories presented a gay scene, the occasion being a dance given by the local corps of Boy Scouts under the direction of Capt. Harry Babcock, scout master. The decorations were most pleasing and effective. There was a profusion and variety of flags and red, white and blue bunting, nicely draped and tennis rackets, lacrosse sticks and snow-shoes used in an effective manner, the whole scene being extremely artistic. The orchestra stand in the centre of the floor was a work of art. Too much praise cannot be given to Capt. Babcock and his assistants for the result attained by their efforts to make the large hall attractive.

Seven hundred invitations had been issued. It is hoped that the receipts were large for the Boy Scouts need the money to help them defray the expenses of their annual summer camp.

The charming frocks of the ladies, of infinite variety in color, shade, texture and design, added much to the beauty of the scene; and the motions of the dancers were full of grace, which was no doubt, in part, due to the excellent music furnished by Art Christmas' Orchestra.

At midnight recherche refreshments were served. Then the dancing was resumed until—well, until it was time to go home.

This report would not be complete without reference to the splendid exhibition drill given by the Boy Scouts as the first item in a most enjoyable programme. Suffice it to say that the performance showed the fine ability of Capt. Babcock as a trainer, his magnetic personality, which has gained him the good-will and confidence of the boys, not to speak of the very fine bunch of boys he has under him.

Miss Gertrude Anderson, Belleville, spent Easter with friends in Kingston.

MRS. D. O'BRIEN

Young Lady Gains 15 Pounds

Miss O'Brien, of Peterboro, Finds Wonderful Relief From Digestive Disorders in Dreco, the Famous Herb and Root Remedy. Now Has Fine Appetite and Sleeps Soundly.

Mrs. D. O'Brien, of 621 St. George Street, Peterboro, tells how Dreco is helping her 20 year old daughter regain her wanted health and spirits, by correcting digestive ailments that were making life a misery.

"For about a year, my daughter, Marguerite, has been suffering from stomach trouble," says Mrs. O'Brien. "Gas would form on her stomach and she would have terrible bilious and dizzy spells. Her nerves were very bad and her whole left side would tremble. She had a very poor appetite and, in fact, was afraid to eat because of the suffering afterwards.

"She lost weight rapidly and although I must have spent hundreds of dollars seeking relief for her, it was only when we discovered Dreco that improvement commenced.

"Three bottles of this grand medicine have done wonders for her. She no longer has any trouble with her stomach, has a fine appetite and sleeps soundly at night. Dreco has built up her entire system and she has gained fifteen pounds in weight since starting with it."

Dreco is a reliable tonic and corrective made from the pure extracts of herbs, roots, bark and leaves. It contains no mercury, potash or habit forming drugs. Everybody needs just such a tonic to keep their system in proper shape.

Dreco is being specially introduced in Kingston by Mahood's Drug Store. It is also sold as follows: Napanee, Wallace & Co.; Gananoque, W. E. Austin, and by a good druggist everywhere.

As this is the first since Lent a very large crowd is anticipated. Attractive prizes will be given and specially good refreshments.

MAXSON FOXHALL JIMMIE

The Inquisitive Reporter. Our Inquisitive Reporter yesterday asked this question of four people chosen at random:

"What is the subconscious feeling about the radio-activity of helium produced by spontaneous atomic disintegration, or do you favor an attitude more latitudinarian in specific content towards the universal use of red woollen ear-muffs?"

Gracie Mills, hotel clerk: "Now that us girls wear our hair bobbed, freddie, we don't need no ear-muffs."

Jim Crook, taxi driver: "I deny the charge. I was in Kankakee last Saturday night and I can prove it."

Mrs. K. Peattie, bookkeeper: "I always get that tired feeling in the spring, too; but have you tried sulphur and molasses?"

J. G. Frink, barber: "You certainly said an ear-full. Next!"

A Toast.

HINTS TO INVESTORS.

What To Do With $300,000.

Financial Editor: I have been given the opportunity to acquire some Hot Baby Oil at 10 cents a share on the partial payment system which will give me entire and complete ownership of my stock (10,000 shares) in 1932. A Mr. Thompson is the agent and he says it will soon be on the market and bring anywhere from $10 to $600 a share. Now what I want to know is this: If everything comes out as we expect, would it be better to invest the $300,000 I will make in railroad or real estate bonds?

—Harold Ross.

We do not think very much of railroad bonds at the present minute. Why not put it all back in the Oil Company, which seems to be a splendid proposition?

Financial Editor: I wish to buy a bond for my little girl for her birthday present. What issue do you suggest?

—A. W.

B. & O. are pretty, though the printing is better on some of the Western roads. Municipal bonds would be interesting for a child of three if only for the pictures.

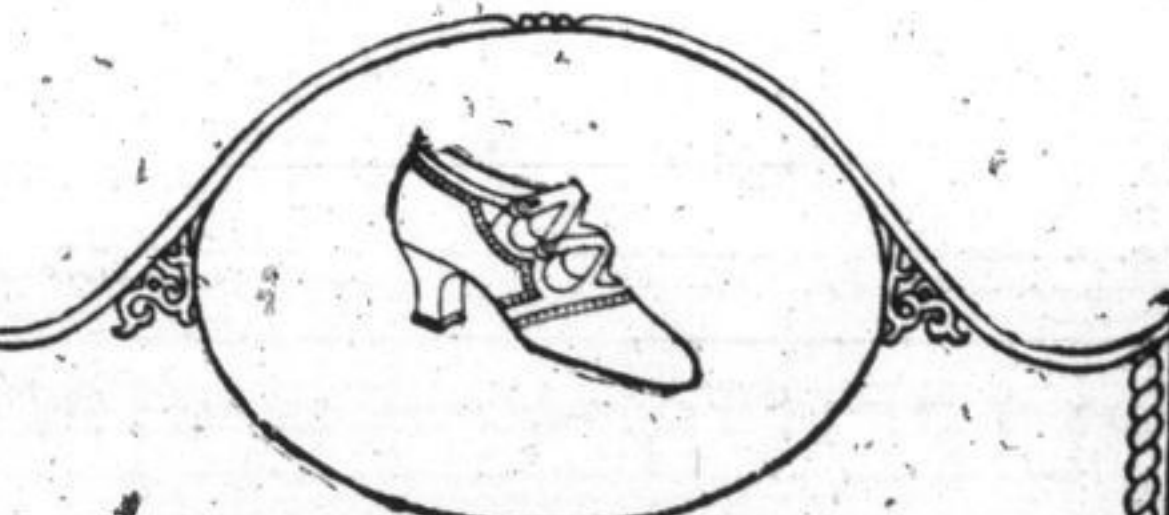

Practical.

Janie: "Are you looking for a man with a future?"
Elsie: "No, for an old man without one."

Spendthrift: One who has a different way from us in getting rid of his money.

JAMES REID

'Phone 147 for Service. The Leading Undertaker

LATE JOHN T. GRANGE.

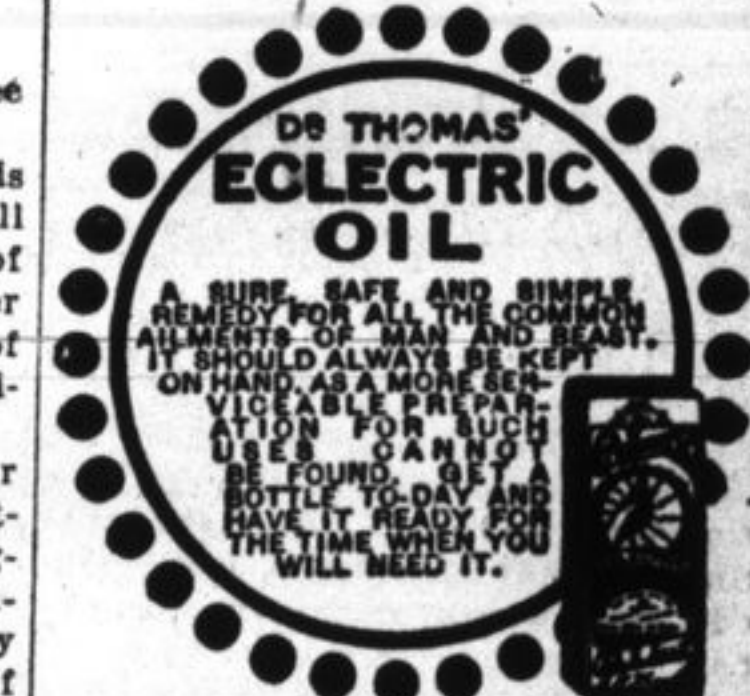

A Prominent Resident of Napanee Passed Away Sunday.

Napanee, April 22.—The flag is flying at half mast on the town hall out of respect for the memory of John Thomas Grange, a former town councillor and ex-mayor of Napanee, and one of the oldest citizens of the town.

Mr. Grange had been in poor health for some time past and latterly has been in hospital at Kingston for treatment. At that institution he passed away on Sunday night, April 20th, at the age of eight-seventy years. He spent his lifetime here, and few men were better known in the town and county than John T. Grange, whose general disposition endeared him to all who knew him.

He was a prominent member of the Masonic Order and was, also, for many years an active member of the Orange Society. He was very much interested in the political affairs of the county and for some years was representative for this riding in the provincial parliament. He was always a staunch Conservative. Mr. Grange also was interested in municipal affairs and held offices here as town councillor and mayor.

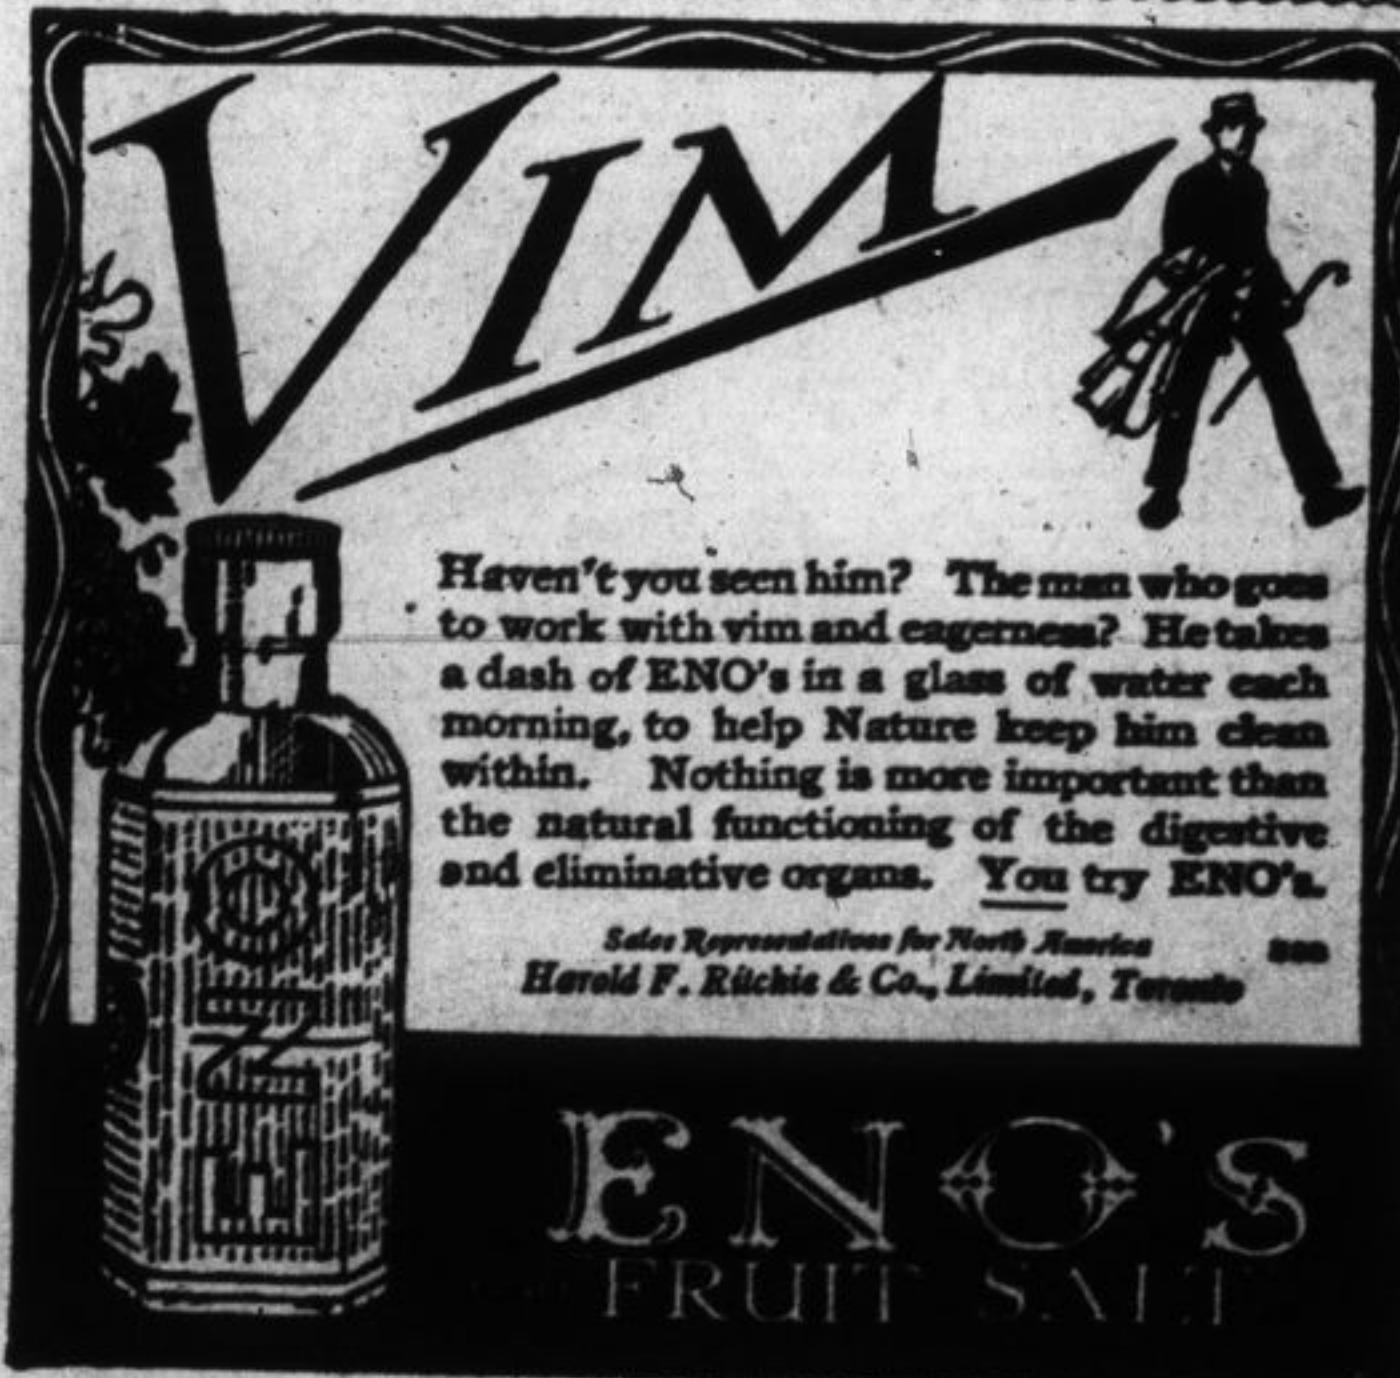

For some years he held the position as one of the auditors of the business and accounts of the county council of Lennox and Addington.

In business he was one of the pioneers of commercial life and, years ago, in partnership with his brother, the late A. W. Grange, conducted a successful drug business, under the style of Grange Bros., which business is still going strong, as Wallace's Drug Store, Limited, in the same premises. He was for some year in the tea business, also in the paper mill business at Newburgh and in other commercial enterprises, which helped build up this section of the country.

The funeral will take place on Wednesday morning at 10.30 o'clock from the residence of his son, W. A. Grange, East street.
