"THE GREAT WHITE WAY."
NEW BIG BROADWAY FILM

Opens At Capitol Theatre on Monday For Three Days.
"The Great White Way," the "surprise" picture woven in and around life on Broadway, will have its premiere in this city Monday at the Capitol Theatre. The new film, picturized from H. C. Witwer's popular story, "Cain and Mabel," is the first motion picture ever presented which accurately draws a graphic illustration of the world's most famous thoroughfare and those persons who bask in its artificial light.

In bringing to the screen this pulsating story of a phase of New York life, the Cosmopolitan Corporation has assembled a brilliant all-star cast to impersonate the characters created by Witwer. The cast includes Anita Stewart, as Mabel Vandergriff, the dancing star and toast of Broadway; Oscar Shaw in the role of Joe Cain, world's welterweight champion; T. Roy Barnes as the breezy press agent, and Tom Lewis, Dore Davidson, Harry Watson, Olin Howland, Hal Forde, Stanley Forde and Billy Gould.

Scores of New York celebrities whose fame in sports, theatricals, arts, literature and other lines of endeavor has become world-wide also appear in the cast of "The Great White Way." Included among these are Tex Rickard, famous fight promoter; Irvin S. Cobb, H. C. Witwer, author of "Cain and Mabel" and numerous other stories; Arthur "Bugs" Baer, humorist; Damon Runyon, celebrated sports writer; Neil Brinkley, George McManus, and Fay King, Winsor McCay, Hal Coffman, J. W. McGurk, artists and cartoonists; Harry Hershfield, creator of "Able, the Agent;" Billy De Beck, creator of "Spark Plug;" Earle Sande, world's leading jockey; Johnny Gallagher, referee of the Dempsey-Firpo fight; Ned Wayburn, and the entire Ziegfeld "Follies" chorus.

In addition to the big feature picture, another good vaudeville act will be presented, Dale and Dale, a very clever team who have an excellent singing, dancing and musical act, which is the type that will please the patrons of this popular house.

Harold Lloyd, who comes to the Capitol, Thursday, Friday and Saturday next in "Girl Shy."

PICTON ALIENATION CASE IS UNDEFENDED

Wallace Covert, Wellington, Is Awarded $3,500 Against James Hunt.

Pictou, April 26.—The spring assize court for Prince Edward county was held on Tuesday, before Mr. Justice Riddell. Three cases were before the court, but two were undefended. The one which created the greatest interest was one which rose out of a promissory note for $3,000, given by Carmen Metcalf to W. R. Brown & Son as part payment of the latter's business in Cherry Valley, sold by them to Metcalf. This note was endorsed by W. R. Brown & Son to F. W. Newman as payment or security for their indebtedness to Newman. Because Newman had protested this note, the Browns claimed that the plaintiff should look to Mr. Metcalf for payment as their liability had ceased. The evidence was all taken in Pictou and argument was deferred to take place in Toronto. W. N. Tilley, K.C., Toronto, and Fred L. Ward, Pictou, were for the plaintiff; I. F. Helmuth, K.C., and E. M. Young for defendants.

ROTARIANS AT SYRACUSE

Next District Conference Will Be Held at Quebec.
The Rotary district convention, which opened at Syracuse, N.Y., on Friday, was attended by 1,148 delegates, according to a telegram received in the city on Saturday from Rotarian Roy Ward, of the Kingston Club, who is in attendance at the big gathering. It has already been decided to hold next year's convention at Quebec. A ball was one of the special features for the convention on Friday night.

One Hundred Chemists To Meet In Kingston

On Saturday morning, Dr. A. C. Nish, professor of chemistry at Queen's University, stated that there would be about one hundred chemists from all parts of the dominion in Kingston on May 27th, 28th and 29th for the purpose of attending the convention in Gordon Hall. At this gathering there will be representatives from the seats of learning throughout the dominion. On May 26th there will be a meeting of the chemistry division of the honorary advisory council of scientific research.

Dominion Medical Council Examinations In Kingston

It is almost certain that the Dominion Medical Council examinations will be held in Kingston this year. For years the students who have been writing on these council tests have had to go to Toronto, but the idea is to have two Ontario centres for the examinations. This will mean that a number of McGill and Queen's medical students will write in Kingston. The date of the examinations has not been made public as yet. The Ontario Medical Council examinations will be held in Grant Hall, commencing May 27th.

In Post Office Quarters.

It is understood that the Soldiers' Civil Re-establishment offices are to be established in the upper flat of the Kingston post office. Although no definite announcement has been made, it is known that plans have been completed for this move. This branch of the service is now quartered at the Sydenham hospital.

INCIDENTS OF THE DAY

There was no session of the police court on Saturday morning.
Daylight saving will be introduced in Kingston on Sunday May 4th. Ernest Anderson, Queen's University, Kingston, spent the vacation with friends in Onemee.
Belleville policemen are testing auto lights to see if they comply with the new highway traffic act.
Miss Gwyn Lanier, the Belleville courier to Washington, to arrive here to-day, wears a navy blue riding habit with hat.
C. R. Hopkins, a graduate of Queen's University, is in Peterboro for the motor show, and the guest of his cousin, Mrs. H. Roberts.
The meeting of the Board of Trade on Tuesday night will be given over to a general discussion on "The Hotel Proposition in the City of Kingston."
A little lad named Baird, who resides on Frontenac street, was taken to the General Hospital on Friday afternoon to have a fracture of the bone in his arm reduced. It is understood that the child was playing with some other children, and fell.
Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock Mrs. Commissioner Sowton will give a lecture in the Salvation Army Citadel, Princess street. Brigadier General Ross, M.P., will take the chair. A cordial invitation is extended to all.

IN MARINE CIRCLES

The steamers Spruce Bay and Popular Bay were billed to clear for up the lakes on Saturday.
The steamer Turbina arrived and entered the dock of the Collingwood Shipbuilding company to undergo repairs.
The steamer Waubesa made her first trip of the season on Saturday morning.
The steamer Connetta, which wintered at Prescott, arrived in port on Saturday.
It is expected that some of the vessels engaged carrying coal between Kingston and Oswego will clear on Monday or Tuesday.

THE NOVAK SISTERS

Local movie fans have long awaited the opportunity of seeing these talented sisters play together in one picture, and at last their long wait will be rewarded. "The Man Life Passed By" which comes to the Strand theatre on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, features Jane and Eva Novak in the leading roles, supported by Percy Marmont and a very great cast. Seidom does one have the opportunity of seeing such a picture as this, combining as it does the efforts of a great author, one of the screen's greatest directors, and one of the most competent cast of stars ever shown in one picture. You can't go wrong if you see "The Man Life Passed By." It will live in your memory for many months to come as the most entertaining picture you have ever seen.

Death of Napanee Lady.

The death of Mary Elizabeth Chalk, aged forty-seven, occurred at the residence of Mrs. Buckley, 292 Johnson street, on Friday. Deceased was the wife of Richard Chalk, Napanee. She leaves two daughters and five sons. The remains were moved for burial at Napanee by the James Reid undertaking firm.

LETTERS To The Editor

Rev. Mr. Ferguson's Explanation.
Kingston, April 25th. (To the Editor): Re "Editor's Note" following my letter.
I am glad that your word "switched" did not intend to convey the impression that I went out of my way to talk of an irrelevant matter.
The terms "lies" and "cowardice" were used by an interrupter on Sunday morning, not by the Whig, and to his charges I was replying. I am very sorry that any other impression was conveyed.
Thanking you for the opportunity of correcting this possibly wrong impression.
Sincerely yours,
—T. J. S. FERGUSON.

CHURCH SERVICES.

Salvation Army—Commissioner and Mrs. Sowton, assisted by Colonel T. Martin from Montreal, Lieut. Colonel Ady and staff captain Clayton from Toronto will conduct special services in the Citadel. Welcome meeting Saturday night at 8 o'clock. Sunday: 7 a.m., prayer meeting; 11 a.m., holiness meeting; 2 p.m., lecture by Mrs. Commissioner Sowton, Chairman, Brig. General Ross, M.P.; 7 p.m., Salvation meeting. Everybody welcome. Ensign and Mrs. Bisher, commanding officers.

Unknown Lady Taken Ill.

A well dressed lady, whose identity is unknown, was taken suddenly ill Saturday morning in front of the Brock street fire hall. Fortunately Fireman Patrick caught the lady as she fell, thus saving her from serious injury. Dr. McCullum was called and had her removed to the Hotel Dieu where it was learned that she was suffering from shock and up to the time of writing has not regained the use of her speech. No one has called to identify the lady.

21st Battalion Club Event.

One of the most successful euchre and dance events ever held in the Orange hall was conducted on Friday evening under the auspices of the 21st Battalion Club. The hall was filled to capacity. Art Christmas orchestra provided the music. Arthur Pallen, W. G. McCullagh, W. Valentine and H. Ashton composed the committee in charge.

Near Pictou the body of a man was found in the bay waters. No identification was made and the remains were buried at Pictou.
John Sward and his wife were brutally murdered with an axe at Sutherland, Ont.
