BOYS' CHOIR LEAVES

To Take Part in the Ontario Musical Festival at Toronto.

Mr. Hill and his boys had a final practice at Victoria school on Wednesday, and the few onlookers felt that whether the boy choir of Victoria school won honors at the Ontario Musical Festival or not, thirty Kingston boys had learned to sing. The tone and phrasing was excellent and joys of joys, the nasal twang that so often mars the singing of our Canadian children had disappeared the syllables were clearly enunciated, and altogether the choir is one Kingston may be proud of. The songs chosen to be sung at the festival are: "It was a Lover and His Lass" (Morley), set as a two-part song, in which the altos took their part splendidly, and "Blow, Blow, Thou Winter Winds" (Arne). These old English songs are by no means easy and the little lads who have so well surmounted their difficulties deserve much credit. Mrs. C. F. Gummer accompanied them, and went to Toronto to-day to play for them in Massey Hall on Friday. Mr. J. G. Ettinger spoke a word of encouragement to the boys, saying that the eyes of Kingston and their own school in particular were upon this, the first boy choir to go away from home to uphold the honor of their city. Mr. Hill, Capt. Finnie and Mr. James Bows will be in charge of the lads.

The boys left Kingston over the Canadian National Railway on the International Limited Thursday afternoon and were given a great send off by their parents and friends.

SAID ON THE SIDE

Ald. Boyd says the firemen have too much speeding going to fires and wants the firefighters to slow up their trucks when responding to fire calls. The aldermen has no complaint to make about the speed of the firemen while fighting fires, however.

Daylight saving will go into effect in Kingston next Sunday. A very large number of citizens are strongly opposed to daylight saving and would like to see the city adhere to the old time the year round.

The members of the city council are good baseball sports. Without one objecting voice, the "city fathers" voted $200 to make necessary repairs to the diamond at the fair grounds.

With the shooting off of the blackbirds in the city parks it will now be in order to have "blackbirds baked in a pie."

Well! April is over and we did not get many showers. Perhaps May will be a wet month.

Time to get off the storm doors and put on the screen doors—and be sure to make a good job of it.

DORLAND AND QUAKERS.

Could Not Take Oath; Left Out of Parliament.

Philip Dorland's troubles with the first Parliament of Upper Canada are further explained by a reader signing himself "Osgoode Hall." It will be recalled that Dorland was a Quaker settler among the U. S. Loyalists at Adolphustown, on the Bay of Quinte, and he was unable to take his seat in parliament at Newark because of his inability to take the required oath. "Osgoode Hall" writes:

The Bytander at the Office Window in this morning's Globe, speaking of Philip Dorland (the Quaker who had been, in 1792, elected the first member for Prince Edward and Adolphustown), says: "Colonel Macdonell, the Speaker ... after consideration of a statement presented by Dorland, declared the seat vacant."

This is not quite accurate. The facts are that on Wednesday, Sept. 19th, 1792, "on motion made and seconded," the House of Assembly ordered that a statement signed by Dorland which had been laid before the House by the Secretary of the Province be read. It was read accordingly. From it, it appeared that in pursuance of a writ to send "one Knight girt with a sword, the most fit and discreet to represent the said county," Philip Dorland had been elected, but that, "being one of the persons commonly called Quakers," he could not conscientiously take the oath required by the Canada Act of 1791.

The House (not the Speaker) decided the incapacity of Dorland and ordered a new writ to issue.

To Be a Cut in Rates.

That there will be this year a substantial reduction in light and power rates for Brockville was the statement of A. L. Farguharson, manager of the public utilities commission, who mentioned the added possibility of reductions in rates in other departments of the commission's operations. The electric department made $50,914.44 in operations in 1935.

Lack of Cases.

There has been a lack of police court cases so far this week. There was no session of the police court on Thursday morning. Two drunks gathered in over the week-end work, the only offenders to fall in the police nets during the week.

For the four months of the year, the building permits issued are valued at $656,831 and for the same period last year, $430,291.

Rain Was of Great Benefit.

The warm rain which fell Wednesday night and Thursday morning was just what the farmers and gardeners needed and it did not come amiss to the citizens who have lawns and gardens, either. The soil was ready for it, and the lawns and trees look much better after what is really their first spring bath. Warm weather for a spell now will work a wonderful difference with vegetation, and soon the city and country will be decked out in all the spring glory.

More have repented speech than silence.
