COMMITTEES SELECTED FOR THE ROTARY CLUB

Newly-Elected President A. N. Lyster, Takes Over Duties at Friday's Luncheon.

Business left over from the annual meeting held last week, occupied the attention of the members of the British-American hotel, Friday noon. The retiring president, Leman A. Guild, presided at the opening and afterwards turned over the reins of office to the new president, A. N. Lyster, who was given a great reception. The newly-elected secretary, H. D. Wightman, was also pre-W. E. Swaine and Mr. Aubrey were guests at the luncheon.

In a brief address to the club before calling on the new president. Rotarian Guild referred to the two years he had served as president, stating that the membership had increased from twenty-five to fortyfive. He made reference to the work the club had been carrying on and suggested some new work for the club, including work among the crippled children and juvenile court. He also appealed to the members to engage in community work and in regard to the activities of the club he strongly recommended that the Shoe and Stocking Fund be continued.

"I can see a great future for the Kingston Rotary Club," said the retiring president. "It is a live organization, growing steadily, according to International Rotary, and fort. if we continue to make progress the club will be a force to be recognized in the community."

Rotarian Guild took occasion to congratulate the newly-elected president, A. N. Lyster, and assured him of the hearty support of all the members. I had the support of every member during the time I have been president," added Mr. Guild, "and i was certainly greatly appreciated."

Rotarian Guild then handed over his gavel to Rotarian A. N. Lyster and as the new president took possession of it, the members joined in singing, "For He's A Jolly Good Fellow" and there was tremendous applause.

Rotarian Lyster returned his sincere thanks for the honor bestowed upon him and stated that he would do his best for the club. He thanked the retiring president for his kind

Before proceeding with the business, President Lyster congratulated Rotarian Harold Singleton, on his success at the Ontario Musical Festival in Toronto. Harold captured the honors in the class for tenor soloists and the members of the club voiced their appreciation in singing, "See Him Smiling."

Rotarian Ward submitted the financial statement of the club which was adopted.
