Eye Comfort and What It Means

It means the ability to do close work for reasonable lengths of time, and to see well in the distance without any undue strain on the eyes. Freedom from eye strain means freedom from headaches and many other ills that come as a result of it, so that eye comfort means more than freedom from pains in the eyes. If you need eye attention, my service awaits you.

LETTERS To The Editor

Postal Workers Explain.
Kingston, May 6.—(To the Editor): In your issue of the 5th inst., included in items "Said on the Side," it is stated: "The mail carriers do not want to accept the fifteen per cent. increase in salary. There are many workers who will grab a similar increase and be thankful."

On behalf of the Kingston branch of Federated Postal Workers, I shall consider it a favor if you allow me space to make a few comments on that article, which no doubt will prove misleading to your readers. Any increase in salary for postal workers, which the government offers, is to replace the cost of living bonus and if, as stated, we are to receive fifteen per cent., it is not to be over and above present salary and bonus combined, and would only benefit workers without dependents. Workers with dependents would receive cuts ranging from $36 to $200 per annum under this revision.

Yours truly,
—GEORGE B. SCOTT,
Secretary Kingston Branch Federated Postal Workers.

H. M. Jacquays, Steel Company of Canada, Montreal, was in town yesterday.

D. Ford Jones is spending a few days with friends in Toronto.

Plans and specifications submitted at the vestry meeting in the parish house last Monday evening were approved and tenders are now being asked for from three contractors, which must be in not later than Saturday the 17th May. The contract will be awarded at the adjourned meeting of the vestry committee on Monday, 19th May.

W. T. Sampson, F. Petch and Dr. Bird left to-day to attend the directors meeting of the Ontario Steel Products Company Ltd., in Toronto tomorrow.

In the course of a few days the committee will begin to mail the Linklater Day invitations. There are some 1,600 of these to go to pupils and ex-pupils and it is hoped that at least 1,599 of them will be here on that day to do donor to the occasion. It is safe to say that the full quota will want to come.

Congratulations are in order to Kenneth Johnston, M.A., and W. Robinson, B. Com. both of whom figure in the published results of Queen's examinations. No doubt Gananogue will be represented at a convocation in Grant Hall this afternoon, when the graduates assemble to receive their degrees.

Have Rosy Cheeks Look Youthful

Every Pallid, Sallow Faced Woman At A Disadvantage.

Muddy Complexion Explained.
Many an otherwise charming and interesting girl is passed by simply because of her unhealthy appearance. No amount of paint or powder can atone for a sticky, pasty looking complexion. Beauty of color is more than skin deep. It springs from the blood stream itself.

If you want to be better looking, if you really wish to acquire that clear, pink girl-like tint in your cheeks, you must commence to-day to cleanse and purify the blood.

To free the system of all poisonous wastes, you must first attack Constipation. Get the bowels into an active condition. This is most readily accomplished by the regular use of Dr. Hamilton's Pills. Women favor Dr. Hamilton's Pills because they are so mild, because they don't cramp or gripe, because they give immediate effect.

To improve your looks, to feel full of schoolgirl "pep," to be always at your best—serve steady and full of poise, regulate your system with Dr. Hamilton's Pills. Sold by all dealers in 25c. boxes or by mail from the Catarthozo Co., Montreal.

Misplaced Sympathy.
The pastor's father had been very ill for some time. A sympathetic member of his congregation, meeting him one day, asked:

"And how is your father to-day, Dr. Devine?"

"Ah, Mrs. Brown, he has passed away. My dear father is in heaven."

"Well, that is too bad. I am very sorry to hear it," was the sympathetic reply.

TIPS COME TO HIM WHO WAITS

THE PET PYTHON.

A Reminiscence by Dr. Traprock.

I had asked my friend Traprock if he believed the story of the faithful rattle-snake who held up a burglar while he stuck his tail out of the window and rattled for the police.

"Absolutely," said the great traveller. "Do you see that snake-skin draped over the mantel? That was once worn by Bettina, my pet python, whom I captured near the waterhole of Rhat in the Sahara. I always use the Hindoo method in capturing reptiles, viz: to charm them with music. I used to go out on the edge of the oasis with my harmonica and I found that the Banana Song went just as big with the animal kingdom as with humans. One day as I was playing it over softly I felt the pliant folds of Bettina gently wrapping herself around me. From then on we became inseparable companions.

"She used to sleep coiled about my waist, and very useful she was, too, for in this land of surprisingly cold nights, she took the place of a hot-water bottle admirably.

"And then came the tragedy—a fire. Fire in the desert is terrible because it is an unusual thing. In the thatched buildings which formed a court around the principal well were stored all our supplies. The roofs were of camel-hair. With our primitive equipment of skin-buckets we were terribly handicapped. If we only had a hose. . . .

"As if reading my thoughts, Bettina crept to my feet. As plainly as a snake could, she said: 'Use me.' I hated to do it, but it was the only way. We reamed the faithful reptile out with a carefully sharpened egg-beater, connected one end with the well, hooked up a bicycle pump and soon had the flames under control.

"But I can never look at that skin without my eyes filling with tears. For if ever a snake sacrificed herself for her master it was Bettina."

ANOTHER PLAY AT NAPANEE.

Trinity Young People's Union Give A Fine Presentation.

Napanee, May 7.—A splendid presentation of Jerome K. Jerome's drama in three acts, "The Passing of the Third Floor Back" was given by the Trinity Young People's Union last night in Sunday school hall, and will be repeated again tonight. The large hall was filled to capacity and the young people are worthy of all praise for their fine interpretation of a most interesting play. They well carried the enthusiastic applause which was accorded to them. The stage was most attractively arranged and lighted. Each character was well sustained and the costumes were very pleasing. Lambert Graham took the part of "The Stranger" with great effect and one would say that either the part was made for him or he for the part. Miss Hall was fine as "Mrs. Sharpe," the landlady. Miss Evelyn McKim as "Stasia," the Slavey, did her part to perfection. Her clear voice and good enunciation could be heard well in any part of the hall. She was particularly bright and charming. The music rendered between the acts was much appreciated. Another full house tonight is assured.

AT MOUNTAIN GROVE.

Arbor Day Was Observed in the Various Township Schools.

Mountain Grove, May 5.—Sacramental services were held in the Methodist Church on Sunday. Ladies' Aid tea was not held on Saturday evening as usual on account of the heavy down pour, but was postponed until the 18th. D. Youmans has moved to Harrowsmith. A York has moved in part of W. Cowdy's house. H. Thompson has purchased a new Star touring car from J. Pringle, Arden. A number attended the funeral of the late Mrs. B. Kellar, Arden, on Wednesday. J. Cox has moved in part of D. Youmans's house.

Arbor Day was very suitably observed in the various schools in spite of the disagreeable weather prevailing. The yards are much improved and beautified by trees and flower gardens. James and F. Tryon, Sharbot Lake, were in the village on Saturday. A few attended the I.O.O.F. services at Parham on Sunday afternoon. Rev. O. Hindal spent Friday at A. W. Thompson's. Mrs. G. McGinnis and Messrs. P. and R. McGinnis, Oronto, called on friends in this vicinity recently. Rev. Mr. Coleman, Parham, is at R. Beierly's.

Field work is proceeding rapidly throughout Ontario. Present agricultural prices are below those of 1914.
