Romance "Sporting Youth." No production could have been more perfectly timed to public favor, more Tamworth. smoothly tuned to popular sentiment than "Sporting Youth," Reginald Denny's new racing feature, at the Capitol theatre starting Monday.

It has the freshness of an ocean breeze on a sultry afternoon, the vigor of a wonderful spirit of youth and the thrill of terrific adventure plunged into the middle of a dull Sunday.

It has life, color, romance, danger and speed-plenty of speed, with the necessary punch of good acting to make Byron Morgan's story go over for all it is worth.

The public has become inured to spectacles and costume plays as a result are no longer the supreme attraction. Filmdom has reeked with heavy drama. All have had their fling at the public's taste. Now that they have devoured them placidly, perhaps some were even relished, for there have been some pretty entertaining pictures evolved of late, this picture of up to the minute life is welcome.

But "Sporting Youth" is that which will not be placidly devoured. The public will "eat it up," if the public really wants good entertainment.

Here's a picture that keeps pace with today's speed-crazed desires. Everydown in the rush along life's highways.

Father Time must grit his teeth and swing faster his scythe if he is to check the dash of this racing film. And he'll grin, perhaps, enjoying its youthful challenge and reckless spirit.

HARLAN AND DAVIS

AT STRAND MONDAY Two prime favorites of local moviegoers play the leading roles in "Temporary Marriage" which opens at the Strand on Monday for a three-day's Albert Hughes of the Kiwanis Karni- run. Kenneth Harlan, one of the screen's most popular young leading men, and Mildred Davis, wife of the] famous comedian, Harold Lloyd, an actress of no mean ability herself, have roles admirably suited to their talents, while the story, dealing as it does with the ultra-modern jazz-seeking society set, is one of most powerful and interesting stories to reach the screen this year. See it by all means, it offers the utmost in screen entertainment.
