Wolfe Island.

BERRY-On Wolfe Island, on May 12th. 1924. Archibald Berry, aged 77 &Funeral from his late residence, Wolfe Island, on Wednesday at 10.30 a.m. (Standard Time) to Christ church,

Friends and acquaintances respectfully invited to attend. RYDER-At 401 Alfrad Street, Kingston, on May 12th, 1924, William Ryder, son of the late Ira Ryder, of Pittsburg township, aged 76

Funeral from the residence of his niece. Mrs. R. R. Greenlees, 401 Alfred Street, on Wednesday afternoon at 3.30 o'clock to Cataraqui Cemetery. Friends and acquaintances are respect- AUTOMOBILE LICENSE - Found, on fully requested to attend.

IN MEMORIAM. In loving memory of Mrs. Robert Greenlees, who died May 14th, 1923.

This day brings back sad memories, Of one who has gone to rest, And those who think of her to-day Are those who love her best.

Swift and sudden was the parting. Taken home without a sigh. We could not think her life was ended For she never said good-bye.

IN MEMORIAM. MERGUSON - In loving memory of Winnie, only child of Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Ferguson, and granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Woolgar, who died May 13th

We miss that little face. That peeped around our door, Those laughing eyes of blue, Smile into ours no more. Jesus wanted another sunbeam, To join the heavenly band, He called on you, our darling. And led you by the hand. -The family.

Reading Between The Lines

You can't always get all there is in a message unless g you do a little reading between the lines.

Take the case of the Whig's A.B.C. Classified Section. On the surface this seems to be but a well indexed, accurately classified list of wants and offers-just this and nothing more!

But don't judge it until you have read between the lines-until you have gotten well beneath the surface! One seemingly ordinary little offer may lead you to an everyday source of lifetime profit. Another may be the means of turning your course directly towards suc-

You can't tell what these little ads will do for you -as long as you regard them merely as a certain amount of printers' ink upon a sheet of paper. Get beneath the surface—and get the profits that are
