Simple Way to Get Rid of Blackheads. There is one simple, safe, and sure way that never fails to get rid of blackheads, that is to dissolve them. To do this, get two ounces of peroxide powder from any drug store—sprinkle a little on a hot, wet cloth—rub over the blackheads briskly—wash the parts and you will be surprised how the blackheads have disappeared. Big blackheads, little blackheads, no matter where they are, simply dissolve and disappear. Blackheads are a mixture of dirt and dust and secretions that form in the pores of the skin. The peroxide powder and the water dissolve the blackheads so they wash right out, leaving the pores free and clean and in their natural condition.

To Free Your Arms of Hair or Fuzz

(Boudoir Secret) No toilet table is complete without a small package of delatone, for with it hair or fuzz can be quickly banished from the skin. To remove hairs you merely mix into a paste enough of the powder and water to cover the objectionable hairs, apply and in about 3 minutes rub off, wash the skin and every trace of hair has vanished. For perfect results be sure you get delatone in the original package and accept no substitute.

That every day news comes over the wire of accidents which might be avoided with a little care. It is not the brave man or woman who is reckless, but the foolish one. A young man said recently to a seasoned motorist, "I can drive to the station in so many minutes (mentioning less than half the time it would take at the regulation speed)."

That in spite of the cold weather the country is looking lovely to the eyes of the motorist but the farmers say many of their fields are under water and much damage is being done by the continued rain.

That Miss Florence Hudon has consented to allow her pupils to take part in the dances which will be put on in connection with the Kingston Historical Pageant and every one who has seen these young Kingstonsians dance will regard this as good news.

That Lady Byng of Vimy is now at her country home in Essex, England. It will be of interest to lovers of flowers in Canada to know that Lady Byng, among her many interests, is a naturalist of no mean ability and it is an open question if there are any native-born Canadians who can boast of a wider knowledge of Canadian wild flowers, trees and ferns. She has a "Canadian" garden of wild flowers at her home in England, and her collection is very considerable; notwithstanding the fact she is searching for other rare plants and now has on her list some ninety-three varieties which she has recently ordered from Canada. To make the collection complete, however, it will probably take more than a year.

That much interest is being taken by the boys and girls of Frontenac in their school fair gardens and no doubt a splendid showing will be made in the fall from the seeds recently given out by the department of agriculture. It is a pity something of the same kind could not be done in the city where many people have gardens. The stimulus given to the useful and interesting industry of gardening during the war seems to have abated, which is a great pity from several view points.

That the eleventh conference of the Y.W.C.A. opened at Preston, Ont., on Saturday. There is a four day programme with many interesting speakers. Tako Kato San will speak on "Prevailing Conditions Amongst the Chinese Girls."

BETHEL'S JUBILEE ANNIVERSARY SUPPER

John Veale Tells of the Organizing of the Congregation in 1874.

The anniversary supper served by the ladies' aid in Bethel church on Monday evening was a happy event, and the Sunday school was not large enough to hold all those who attended. The tables looked lovely, and the energetic ladies who provided such a splendid supper deserve much praise for their untiring efforts to serve and please everyone.

After the first table an orchestra provided by the Musicians' Union rendered splendid music in the church until eight o'clock when the programme was commenced. Solos were given by Mrs. Archibald, Miss Elsie Duncan and F. A. Haffner; recitations by Miss Lorraine Potter and Miss Florence Pringle, and piano solos by Eldon Boyd, who also acted as accompanist.

John Veale, one of the oldest members of the church, told of the organizing of the church in 1874, on the site where Louise school now stands, and gave some early history of the workers and their work. He urged the young people who are now taking their place in the work of the church to hold high the torch which it is their privilege this day to carry.

Rev. G. A. MacKenzie, Stratford, a former pastor, who came here to conduct the anniversary services also gave some very helpful advice. "Winter comes" said Mr. MacKenzie, but we must remember that it is always followed by spring, and not spring followed by winter. We will find God always the same whether it is winter or spring with us, and we can depend that all will be right. We are all useful one to the other and can help one another as we go through this life.

Rev. G. A. MacKenzie will give addresses on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday evenings at eight o'clock, and Mrs. MacKenzie will speak to the ladies on Wednesday afternoon.

OUR LADY OF TWILIGHT

When the day is past and the shadows grow Our Lady of Twilight steals soft and slow From the starlit gardens of Paradise, Bringing her dreams to weary eyes.

The misty moonbeam paths are sweet With the silvery chiming of her feet; And the dusk is full of murmurings, Faint and lovely, of unseen wings.

In the garden close, at sight of her, The tall white lilies are all astir; And she walks among them with dreaming eyes

Fresh with the dews of Paradise, So nightly adown the moonbeam stair With winds of slumber in her hair, Bringing her dreams to weary men, Our Lady of Twilight comes again.

MOTHERS And Their Children

To Foster Unselfishness.

One Mother Says: The only child is so easily made selfish that a substitute should be found for brothers and sisters to teach her unselfishness. I took my little girl to a crippled children's home once when I was making a charity call and she became particularly interested in one of the little patients. I encouraged her to remember to pass on some of her books and games and to share pleasures with her. Now she does it as a matter of course. Unselfishness cannot be taught in the abstract.
