RELIGIOUS TRAINING IN PUBLIC SCHOOLS

country districts impossible for the clergy to take over this work, while he believed the teachers for the most part were willing to do it. He gave Rev. Mr. Barker the credit for outlining the syllabus mentioned above. Canon Jones pointed out that every child in Kingston was receiving religious education, to which Bishop Bidwell replied that he believed the teachers of Kingston were doing all they could but their hands were tied. It was in the scattered schools that improvements were most eagerly sought. Teachers like those in Kingston would also be helped by the proposed changes.

Hadn't Heart of Bible.
Mr. G. F. Rutten, K.C., stated that in his legal duties he had seen children from eight to twenty-five years who did not know what the Bible, God, heaven nor Christ were. It was heartbreaking to see children growing up in heathenism and liable to become criminals.

At the recent Ontario Educational Association convention in Toronto, to which he was a delegate, Canon Smith, Catarqui, said the trustees were deeply interested in this matter. It was now a live question in the country and something was bound to be done. Rural Dean Creegan, Trentham, also spoke strongly in support of more religious education.

Rev. Mr. McTear, in introducing his resolution, said that ground gained now was for all time and it was better to "make haste slowly."

General Synod Delegates.
The election Wednesday noon of the delegates from the Ontario Diocese to the General Synod meeting in London next September resulted as follows:

Clerical-Rural Dean J. H. Coleman, Napanee; Canon Woodcock, Brockville; Dean Starr, Canon FitzGerald, Archdeacon Dobbs, Kingston; Rev. John Lyons, Picton. Substitutes: Canon Jones, Kingston; Rev. F. L. Barber, Gananoque; Archdeacon Beamish, Belleville; Rural Dean Dumbrie, Kemptville; Canon Patton, Prescott; Rev. R. W. Spencer, Camden East.

Lay delegates—Judge Reynolds, Brockville; John Elliott, Belleville; Col. Alger, Stirling; R. J. Carson and Francis King, Kingston; J. R. Dargavel, Elgin. Substitutes—W. B. Carroll, K.C., Gananoque; F. F. Miller and C. F. Rutten, K.C., Napanee; J. B. Walkem, K.C., Kingston; Dr. W. F. Jackson, Brockville.

Executive Committee.
The election of the executive committee resulted as follows:

Clergy—Rural Dean J. H. Coleman, Napanee; Canon Woodcock, Brockville; Rural Dean Dumbrie, Kemptville; Rev. John Lyons, Picton; Canon FitzGerald, Kingston; Rural Dean Byers, Stirling; Rev. R. W. Spencer, Camden East; Rev. F. L. Barber, Gananoque; Rev. T. F. Dowdell, Elizabethtown.

Layman—Judge Reynolds, Brockville; John Elliott, Belleville; W. B. Carroll, K.C., Gananoque; J. R. Dargavel, Elgin; Col. Alger, Stirling; F. F. Miller and C. F. Rutten, K.C., Napanee; Dr. Preston, Newboro; Dr. Jackson, Brockville, O. H. Scott, Belleville.

Appointed by the bishop: Clergy—Rural Dean Crisp, Kingston; Rural Dean Creegan, Deseronto; Rural Dean Davis, Brockville; Rev. J. deP. Wright and Rev. T. W. Savary, Kingston.

Laymen—Col. Andrew Gray, M.P., Brockville; A. N. Lyster, Kingston; H. A. Tofteld, Belleville; Thomas Bishop, Kingston; P. Du Moulin, Kingston.

Delegates to General Board of Missions—Dean Starr, Archdeacon Dobbs, Chancellor J. B. Walkem, K.C., Kingston; F. F. Miller, Napanee.

Delegates to the General Board of Religious Education—Rev. T. W. W. W. H. Schultz, Pembroke, Ont., writes:—"Having been troubled with eczema for fifteen years, during which time I tried everything I could think of, including doctors, but without getting anything to do me much good I finally decided to take Burdock Blood Bitters, and I was certainly surprised to find that two weeks after I had started to take it I was relieved of my trouble. That was nine months ago, and I have not had a sign of it since. I surely wish to thank you for this wonderful medicine and strongly recommend it to anyone suffering from the same trouble as I had."

B.B.B. is manufactured only by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

FOR 15 YEARS WAS TROUBLED WITH ECZEMA
There is no other remedy like Burdock Blood Bitters that can possibly give such relief to all sufferers from eczema, salt rheum and all other diseases of the blood for the reason that this old and well tried remedy goes right to the seat of the trouble and completely and permanently drives these diseases out of the system by cleansing the blood and making it pure and rich.

How Appendicitis Very Often Starts
Chronic stomach or bowel trouble often causes an inflammation which spreads to the appendix, causing appendicitis. Ordinary bowel inflammation can often be relieved with simple glycerine, buckthorn, etc., as mixed in Adierika. Most medicines act only on lower bowel but Adierika acts on BOTH upper and lower bowel and removes all poisons. Helps any case gas on stomach in TEN minutes. T. H. Sargent.

Savary, Kingston; Rev. A. F. C. Whalley, Brockville; Judge Reynolds, Brockville; John Elliott, Belleville.

Religious Education.
A short but very interesting address on the work of the General Board of Religious Education was given by Rev. D. B. Rogers, M.A., supplies secretary of the board.

He asked for the widespread cooperation of the church in this work, especially from the laymen. There were places where teachers could not be had in sufficient numbers for the Sunday schools. The theological colleges were wisely enlarging their courses in pedagogy.

He also touched on the religious education question, pointing out that it was such a matter for the individual school boards. With their consent and that of the community, ministers could enter the schools and teach in school hours. It was being done in Chapleau. He praised the work done by the teachers in the public schools. He believed they were trying to develop Christian character in their pupils.

Valuable work, Mr. Rogers said, was being done for the church along this line in the private schools. More schools were needed, especially endowed ones so that the rich and poor alike could have this privilege. Religious education should be more than a teaching of facts.

The board he represented was enlarging its publications and now reached 150,000 people a week, supplying a large amount of the church's requirements. This year the board has a large exhibit on the lower floor of St. George's hall.

The Synod adjourned at 4.30 p.m. to attend a reception at Bishop's Court given by Bishop and Mrs. Bidwell.

Trinity Luncheon.
The largest attendance in years made the annual Trinity luncheon on Wednesday noon in the Frontenac Club a memorable affair. There were between fifty and sixty graduates and friends of Trinity University present. Dean Starr presided. Following the repeat an inspiring address was given by Rev. Dr. Childs, of the staff of Trinity, outlining the present policy of the church university of Ontario. He gave a description of the work of removal of the university from the present site to Queen's Park, uniting with Toronto University. The buildings are almost completed and reproduce the old buildings on Queen street west.

GANANOQUE
May 2.—Congratulations to Lieut.-Col. F. J. Mooney, who yesterday received confirmation of his promotion to that rank.
Mrs. Frank Keys and son Gerald left Tuesday for Rome, N.Y., by motor, and will remain a couple of weeks.
The wonder and joy of the radio was experienced last Monday evening by friends of Miss Thetis Westcott of Albany, N.Y., when they enjoyed her piano playing from a broadcasting station in Schenectady, N.Y., just as well as if they had been sitting in the same room with her. Frank Mooney, who was testing out a very fine set he has recently installed, caught this interesting item and immediately got in communication with Miss Westcott's friends, and by aid of the telephone connection between the houses and the horn feature on the radio they were all able to enjoy it perfectly.

W. T. Sampson left yesterday for Montreal to attend a director's meeting of the Canada Foundries and Forgings Limited.

The special committee consisting of T. I. Ellis, chairman; W. T. Sampson, W. E. Rees, F. J. Skinner, Arthur Knight, J. Arthur Jackson, Mayor Wilson and Aubrey Lott appointed by the council to look into the matter of new contract with the electric light company passed a resolution at their meeting held Tuesday evening recommending the council to accept the recent proposition made by J. M. Campbell of the Gananoque Electric Light Company. Subsequently this resolution was approved by the council, and the new rates will be put into effect June 1st, and confirmed by by-law at the next municipal election. The contract is for a five year period. Mayor Wilson in dismissing the special committee warmly thanked them for the excellent service they had rendered the town by dealing with this matter in such a comprehensive and capable manner.

Thomas McKendry has been appointed as assistant to Chief of Police Chevis.

The concert in Grace church lecture room under the auspices of the Orphans, Jr., baseball team, was very well patronized, and the entertainment part was Misses Squire, S. Meggs, Mayne Brennan, Mrs. Russell Gray, Rhea Haynes, Wilbur Clow, Edward MacKenzie, Miss Gussie Dempster. The accompanists were Mrs. Stedman, Miss Edith Haynes, Miss O'Neill, J. C. Linklater was chairman. Rev. Mr. Mick gave a most interesting address on sportsmanship and gave some very excellent advice to the boys, which no doubt will be of great value to them and be reflected in their attitude in sports for all time. The proceeds were most encouraging and will help along the junior baseball team very nicely.

A. J. Seale, Miss Pearl Seale and Miss Georgina Pergau motored to Kingston yesterday.

Premier Ferguson is to be asked to lay the corner-stone of the new high school at Athens, the ceremony being timed by the Alumni Association of the institution to take place on June 3rd.

Jingle-Jangles.

Any funny, nonsensical rhyme that will make Fun shop readers laugh is a Jingle-Jangle. It must be in two lines. For example:
After winter comes the spring;
Tonsils hurt like everything.
Cows have horns and sheep
have wool;
Dentists have a lot of pull.
You will undoubtedly contribute funnier Jingle-Jangles than these. Address them separately to Jingle-Jangle Department, The Fun Shop, 110 West 40th street, New York City.

SAVINGS OF LITTLE SOCRATES

As Reported
By Samuel Hoffenstein.
Honesty is the best policy, if you can pay the premium on it.

Oh, to be a he-man, now that they're wanted in the movies.

Physiology and Chiropody.
Five year old Teddy came into the house crying: "I'm not going to play with Jimmie any more," he declared. "He's a bad boy."
"What's the matter?" asked mother. "I thought you liked Jimmie."
"Well," said Teddy, "I did, but I don't any more. He kicked me in the stomach when my back was turned."

Traprock and the Tornado.
"I have had a lot of experience with wind in my time," said my old friend, Dr. Traprock. "In fact some of my critics call me Old Trade-wind because they say I am always blowing in one direction or another. But that is mere professional jealousy which started when I reported an entirely new type of storm which I encountered near the Filbert Islands, a disturbance made up of the three great southern storms, the simoon, the typhoon and the monsoon which, combined, create what is called the octocor or eight-sided whirl-wind."

"But probably the most hazardous wind experiences I ever had happened right here in our own country when I actually travelled inside of one of our middle-western tornadoes—you know the centre of a tornado is a vacuum while the outer edges move at a rate of about five hundred miles an hour.

"I had left St. Louis and was driving my automobile to Kansas City where I was to deliver my talk on the Use of the Oyster as a Beast of Burden. The air turned suddenly murky, a rattle of hailstones sounded on the top of my car, and next I saw a tornado already upon me. I instantly made for a barn in a nearby field.

"Suddenly the barn disappeared in a crash but it had protected me long enough to allow me to get into the dead centre of the tornado. My problem was to stay there. We took our way across country blazing a road as we went, but I had to drive with extreme care to avoid the swirling sides of the funnel which would have instantly sucked me upward. As it was I lost my lanterns and my tires. When the storm suddenly lifted I found myself on the edge of Kansas City into which I rode on my rime, thankful, indeed, to be there at all.

"You may remember that the newspaper at the time hinted at an unusual freak of a tornado which their great press association could not accurately report. That was it.
