One Mother Says:
I teach my girls as well as boys to use a punching bag. It is a splendid physical developer and teaches children to bear a moderate hit on the head without complaint. It is very easy to put a bag up in the attic, basement, or back porch.

WOMAN'S INSTITUTE.

Rockport.
The Woman's Institute of Rockport held their annual meeting at the home of Mrs. J. F. Fitzsimmons with a good attendance. Mrs. J. F. Fitzsimmons was chosen president for the ensuing year; Mrs. William Slats, first vice-president; Mrs. W. J. Edgley, Sr., second vice-president; Mrs. Fred Huck, secretary; Mrs. William Fair, treasurer. Mrs. Charles Macoun will speak to the ladies of the institute on June 3rd at the home of Mrs. Robert Sewias.

Phillipsville.
The following officers were elected by the Phillipsville Woman's Institute: President, Mrs. F. W. Acheson; first vice-president, Mrs. Ziba Gile; second vice-president, Mrs. S. Carly; secretary-treasurer, Mrs. Robert Preston. On June 23rd, Miss M. V. Powell of Whitby, will be the speaker for the day, according to the list of speakers for the summer series. Miss Rowell comes highly recommended as she has done most acceptable work with the Woman's Institute throughout Ontario. Her views of the problems of the day are broad and practical, and every girl and woman should make an effort to hear her.

Her subjects are: "Our work, equipment and efficiency. The Woman's Institute and what it stands for;" "Helping the Fall Fair;" "Citizenship and Civics;" "Women as Nation Builders;" "Our new Canadians; How we get them; How we receive them."

The district convention will be held in Lyndhurst this year. At our May meeting, Miss Mills, Chantry, contributed two pleasing solos and Mrs. H. M. Brown gave a paper on "Aluminum" which proved very interesting and instructive. The printed programme, which will be out in a few days, contains some valuable papers to be prepared and good roll calls.

SAVE THEM!
Don't throw away your old silk stockings, girls. They will come in handy when you need a new dress. If you don't believe it just look at the garb this young woman is wearing. It was exhibited in Royal Agricultural hall in London.

Action Is Dismissed.
Ottawa, May 23.—Without calling upon the defense counsel to produce argument, Justice Wright, in the Ontario Supreme Court, dismissed the $10,000 action brought by R. A. Saunders, Carleton Place, against Dr. A. Downing also of Carleton Place. Saunders was suing the physician for alleged malpractice and unprofessional conduct when attending his wife at childbirth, causing her death on Dec. 25th last. Medical testimony was produced to show that death was due to pulmonary embolism and not excessive hemorrhage, as claimed.

Dr. Foley of Indiana University calculates that 2,434,026 tons of coal are consumed annually in generating steam to blow the United States locomotive whistles.

The word August (the name of the month and the adjective) is derived from the name of the first Roman emperor.

The Silk Coat Commands Respect

By ELEANOR GUNN

Reports from far and near contain frequent reference to silk coats. While black satin leads, there are many smart coats in ribbed silks, which may sound old-fashioned, but are anything but that. Besides, nowadays there are no old ladies!

The alpaca or crepe dress which has an unlined coat to complete it is an ideal traveling costume and just the thing for the woman who drives into town in her car. Alpaca has among its many endearing qualifications, the ability to shed dust. The woman in alpaca has the dust roll off her back about as satisfactorily as water from the proverbial duck.

Could anything be more simple or effective than the coat, with its Puritanical little cape extending into a jabot, the lining of which repeats the soft Lanvin green of the crepe dress beneath?

Lanvin green and rust are the colors, next to red, which seem to be most approved. The greens are, however, almost always chosen by the younger generation. Rust is a more kindly color to complexions which are abloom with something more associated with a compact than with youth. Rust and navy are staunch allies, while Lanvin greens usually fraternize with soft beige shades or with black.

The fashion of wearing fur trimmed coats persists, even though we have gone well into spring. Certainly, if fur jaquettes can get themselves accepted for spring, a little fur edging on a coat need not send it into exile in a dark closet until fall.

Gloves continue to do the unexpected these days. One seldom sees two pairs alike. There are all sorts of color combinations, and as many shades as there are in stockings. One button gloves are the best sellers and end in all sorts of tricky little frills perforated or scalloped, or in a band which turns back to show a colored lining.

Reports of the throngs which attended the opening of the Paris racing season, an event which makes or mars many a fashion, state that women wore white and chamomile colored gloves, which is interesting, since black has been extremely popular.

There are fashions in jewels as in all things and Paris is usually responsible for them. Last season, a furor over white and black pearls in combination was the outstanding jewelry note. This spring, pearls and emeralds, diamonds and emeralds and emeralds all by themselves are commanding the highest prices. Having one's pearl necklace restringed so included in the string, is one of the popular pastimes of Paris.
