"SONG OF LOVE"

SCORES BIG HIT In "The Song of Love," which opened yesterday at the Capitol Theatre, Norma Talmadge scores the greatest hit of her career, lustrous as it is. In this First National picture the star reveals new and unexpected facets of the marvellous talent that is hers, beguiling and witching the spectator with the power of her pantomime.

As an Arabian dancer, Miss Talmadge has a particularly alluring role and one that is quite a departure from her recent portraitures of silkclad dames of other periods. gives to the part a tempestuous characterization and appeal that stamp her as the most versatile of film heroines.

"The Song of Love" was adapted from the novel, "Dust of Desire." which has won considerable renown for its author. The star's supporting cast includes such notables as Joseph Schildkraut, Arthur Edmund Ont. Carewe, Laurance Wheat, Maude Wayne, Earl Schenck, Hector Sarno, Albert Prisco, Mario Carillo and James Cooley.

"Cloudy and MacGowan," Irish Nightingales, in songs and chatter, offered the best act seen at at Carnovsky's, Brock St. the Capitol for some time.

Big Event Held at Cricket commodation for four people, and Field-Brig.-Gen. Hill the Reviewing Officer.

Under ideal weather conditions and with nearly 600 cadets on parade the annual inspection of the Kingston cadet corps on the cricket field Friday forenoon was undoubtedly the most successful yet held.

There was a total 597 cadets on parade, made up as follows: Sea Scouts, 20; K.C.I., 248; Regiopolis, 86; public schools (Frontenac, Victoria, Louise, Robert Meek, Central $5-H. B. Trotter, John Cibson, and Macdonald), 243. They were A. Nesbitt, C. Donoghue, George D. under the command of Brigade Pound, William McCammon, E. Major W. J. McManus. The band of Bearance, F. A. McGrath, and last the six platoons of the public school cadets, under Captain Law and Cadet Major Wilfrid Murray.

A square was then formed, and Gen. Hill addressed the boys words very appropriate to the casion, complimenting them on their fine appearance and steadiness parade and the excellence of their marching.

In line again, three cheers were given for the King and more cheers for the G.O.C. and M.D. No. 3. The units were then put through march manoeuvres under the eye of the reviewing officer.

The six public school cadet corps meanwhile competed for the cups and shields awarded for proficiency, the judges being Lt. Col. W. Y. Mills and Col. E. B. Sparks, of the P.W.O.R. The winners were as follows: Kiwan-Robert Meek school; Leslie lenge shield, Central School; Kane cup, Macdonald shool. DR RYAN APPRECIATES

SHOWING OF THE SQUAD The following letter was received by "Art" Murray, secretary of the Kingston senior baseball club, this morning: Secretary, K.A.B.C.:

I am delighted beyond measure at the appearance of the team. Their playing last night was absolutely right. I enjoyed every minute of it. I am enclosing an additional cheque and if the boys play as they did last night there will be more forthcoming. Bear the boys my congratulations and tell them proud Kingston will be if they just play the game. Of course, I trust they will win the pennant, but winning the pennant is not the only thing; the main thing is to play the game.

Yours sincerely. (Sgd.) Edward Ryan, M.D.
