"FUN SHOP" FILM AT CAPITOL THEATRE

On June 5th, 6th and 7th—This Whig Feature is in the Movies.

Readers of the Whig, and especially those who follow "The Fun Shop," one of the latest features of their paper, will soon have an opportunity of seeing this column in a different form in the city.

Manager E. O. Smithies, of the Capitol Theatre, has contracted with the Canadian Educational Films Inc. for the film production of this great comic and the initial presentation will be made on June 5th, 6th, and 7th. Mr. Smithies says that the screen adaptation of "The Fun Shop" is even funnier than the newspaper column, but we are leaving that to our readers to decide.

There is a curious and interesting thing about "The Fun Shop" films in that the cities having newspapers running the column are given preference on the film. For instance, if no newspaper in Toronto had the column, the Kingston theatres would be given first chance on the screen adaptation. Thus the Capitol Theatre here will be showing the feature before many of the largest cities of Canada and the United States.

The feature will continue daily in the British Whig and will be entirely different from the presentations which will shortly appear at the Capitol Theatre—but they will both be "Fun Shop" and the readers know that means just what it says.

THE Y.W.C.A. ANNUAL

Splendid Work Done During the Past Year by This Active Organization.

The annual meeting of the Young Women's Christian Association was held in the clubroom on Thursday evening with a good attendance of members present. Mrs. William Jackson was in the chair, and the devotional part of the meeting was conducted by Rev. T. J. S. Ferguson.

Miss Emma Gwatkin, the secretary, read the minutes of the last meeting, and then the interesting reports were heard, interspersed with songs by Mrs. Nelson and a duet by Mrs. Nelson and Mrs. Jackson. Mrs. Thomas Reid acting as accompanist, Mrs. Crossley played a violin number.

Miss Van Straubensee read the report of the religious committee referring to the Bible class held on Sunday afternoon and the prayers said daily. Mrs. H. F. Geary, gave the house committee's report, speaking of the efficient way the work of the house was carried on by Mrs. Moscrip, of the splendid supply of jam, pickles, etc., laid away and the general excellence of the meals. The house had been filled with students and transients.

Mrs. Elizabeth Lyman reported 207 members. Miss I. Ross read the report of the social committee, speaking of the entertainment of the various clubs and referring to the great help the Fellowship Club had been. Then Mrs. L. H. Breck, the treasurer, gave what the chairwoman said was the most important report, for without funds none of the good work could be carried on. The total receipts amounted to $9,447, which met the expenditure with a few outstanding bills to be paid.

Miss Buhlig, the secretary, gave a comprehensive report of the year's work which was most encouraging. The "Y" stands for the religious, social, intellectual and physical development of girls and this was kept in mind in all the work.

U-Auto camp had been of great benefit and much enjoyed. Mrs. Breck, Miss Elsie Mackenzie and Miss Florence Wilson, nurse-in-training, St. John's hospital, New York, had been of great assistance as well as the camp president, Miss Edith King. Thirty school girls in addition to the business girls had spent their holidays at the camp. Factories, the jail, the hospitals and new comers from the old land were visited. Thanks were due to the press and the clergy for publicity.

Then came the reports of the clubs showing the splendid work of the "Y" and the interest taken in the various organizations in connection with it. Miss Ella Porter reported for the Saturday afternoon sewing class, samples of the work being on view. Miss Gladys Bateman and Miss Mabel Oakes had been most efficient helpers. Miss Annie Gow, who has been teaching in the cooking, referred to the interest in the work and to the need of improvements in the diet kitchen. Miss Lillian Stephen read the "Sunbeam" club's report. This is the "Y" baby, lately formed; their colors are blue and gold and they hope to go to the U-Auto camp. The Sunshine Club, now merged in the Sunbeam, had done well and Miss Katharine Quigley read the report.

Miss Buhlig and Miss Elsie Mackenzie had been most kind and the days spent at the camp happy ones. Miss Gladys Bateman reported for the Rainbow Club. They want to raise enough money to spend several weeks at U-Auto Camp and will sell the basketry which they have been taught to make by Mrs. Calvert Caruthers, at a sale to be held shortly. Miss Alice Bateman read Mrs. Caruthers' report. Miss Marie Goswell read the doings of the Unity Club and Miss Grace Aylsworth told the meeting about Recreation Club.

Then came what most people considered the most interesting reports, that of the Girls' Fellowship Club, read by Miss Myrtle Teepell, the retiring president, whose place will be filled this year by Miss Myrtle King, and that of Miss Edith King, the camp president. An astonishing amount of work is done by these girls, which is not only of benefit to themselves but to the citizens, and the public owes them a debt of gratitude. References to the kindness and helpfulness of Miss Buhlig and Mrs. Breck were many, and the visit of Miss Foster, Durban, South Africa, a former secretary, was referred to with pleasure.

Mrs. W. Jackson, spoke of the splendid and efficient work of Mrs. Moscrip, the house mother, without whom the work of the house could not be carried on. It was done quietly, but it was necessary to the usefulness of the institution. Miss Hazel McCune read the report of the Bible class.

Three new members were added to the board, Mrs. C. K. Curtis, Mrs. G. S. Otto and Mrs. M. S. Richmond.

Paragraph 1364, K.R. & O. has been changed so as to allow English, Irish, Scottish, Welsh and French soldiers serving in units of the Canadian Militia to wear their respective national flowers in their head-dresses on their respective national holidays.

Arrangements are being made by Eastern Ontario municipalities to call a meeting for consideration of St. Lawrence power development.
