"DAWN OF TOMORROW" George Melford's latest production for Paramount, "The Dawn of a Tomorrow," which opens a three days' engagement at the Capitol theatre Monday, is a story of London,

David Torrence, brother of Ernest, has the role of Sir Oliver Holt the greatest money power in London Capital. He overhears a diagnosis of his physicians that he rapidly passing into a state of cay from which there will be no recovery. Sir Oliver determines hide his identity in the slums and put an end to everything. It is his chance encounter with Glad. wonderful character portrayed Jacqueline Logan, that gives renewed hope and fresh incentive. Her audacity and her faith inspire him. He takes an interest in poor wretches around him, joins the crowd that chases a thief through an alley, and for a night lives strange, weird existence of London depravity. Sir Oliver undertakes no reforms; he has his own depression to reform, and from Glad learns lesson of hope and cheerfulness, of which the three-wise-men physicians knew nothing. Miss Logan, Torrence and Raymond Griffith have featured roles in the production.

Grouch and Moore, two clever entertainers, will be the vaudeville attraction.

LITTLE GIRL INJURED: HIT BY STREET CAR

Little Phyllis Andrews, eleven years old, had a miraculous escape from death this afternoon when, riding down Earl street on her bicycle, she collided with a street car which was passing along King street and was knocked down on the track and under the heavy car. S. A. Caverly, of the Bon Marche Grocery, at once summoned Dr. Williamson who attended to the bruises and cuts sustained by the child. Those who were near the accident thought that the little girl had been killed instantly and were immensely relieved to find that, so far as can be ascertained at present, only minor injuries and a severe shaking up resulted.

Mrs. M. Andrews, mother Phyllis, who resides at 29 King street west, has had rather luck in this respect. Another little girl was badly injured while playing on the college hill about two years ago. Little Phyllis was too nervous and frightened to give an account of the accident at the time of going to press but seemed to be well on the way to recovery.

His mother, Mrs. Hannah time. Chalk, was caught in the house and her body burned until only a few bones remained.

The cause of the fire is unknown. At the time, the men folks were engaged in working in the field, some distance from the house, and upon hearing the cries of neighbors, who noticed the fire, ran to the scene immediately. The fire had made such rapid progress all efforts to put it out were of no avail. Mrs. Chalk was alone in the house and was known to have been doing some baking that forenoon. It is generally supposed the house caught fire in some manner from the kitchen stove and that deceased had gone to secure some valuables out of the house and, being unable to fight her way out, fell a prey to the flames. Her body was found under the room where the deed of the property, etc., were kept. Although seventy-eight years of age, the late Mrs. Chalk was unusually active. She was born in England and spent the first part of her life there, coming to Canada a num-

Of Missions in China When the Doors There Are Widest Open.

Just at the time when the doors for Christianity in China are widest open, the Presbyterian home church in Canada is failing in its support of missions, said Rev. J. D. MacRae, a Presbyterian missionary who has spent fifteen years in Honan, and who spoke in Cooke's and Chalmers Presbyterian churches on Sunday. This lack of support from the home church is among the advensaries with which the mission in Honan has to deal. There have been gains in the evangelistic staff of mission in fifteen years. The new Chinese Christians need constant and regular teaching, yet such is practically impossible because of lack of funds. Yet the mission has been asked to retrench still more this year.

The speaker then enumerated sev en "doors" opened of late by which the gospel might enter if means were available. First, the Chinese were better fitted now for Christian leadership, largely because the mission has a complete system of Christion education. The recently organized Chinese Home Mission Soclety is catching the imagination of the Chinese church. Opposition to Christianity is wearing down and it is now reaching the better classes. They were giving the gospel a better hearing. The natives were showing a greater willingness to serve in the church. China now was more open to impressions. Lastly, the various methods tried to obtain a national salvation, such a militarism. had sadly failed. The opportunities therefore for a real presentation of Prospects-Telephone Office Changed.

Wolfe Island, May 24.—The fine weather has been taken advantage of by the farmer. The wet weather of the past ten days left him very much behind in seeding. At the time of writing there is considerable seeding to be done. The farmers are not at all jubilant over the coming prospects but hope for the best. During this week we had frost every night; cattle are still being stabled and fed; cheese factories are all under way, with a small supply of milk. Pressed hay is still on the move to the American market; prices are holding about the same as in the winter. A number of veal calves were shipped today, nine cents being paid per pound. The telephone office located in the Misses Coyle's dwelling, for the past twelve years, is being removed to James O'Brien's residence in the lower end of the village. Mrs. Prinyer, the operator, who has been in the service since its inception, over twenty years ago, will continue to try to accommodate the public as she has always done in the past.

The ladies of the Sacred Heart parish are preparing for a bazaar. Congratulations are in order to Austin Friend, who has received degree of M.D., in the recent examinations at Queen's. Mrs. George Niles, who has been a protracted sufferer, was removed to the city this week, and is at present in the House of Providence, with a trained nurse in attendance.

James Brown, who is at present in the Hotel Dieu Hospital, is somewhat improved. Mrs. Mildred Staley who has been ill with scarlet fever is convalescing.

A number of the witnesses in the Swigart case have arrived home from Chicago. Fishermen are pleased to have their season extended till the first of June. Mr. and Mrs. William Hall, Watertown, N.Y., are enjoying a few holidays with their parents on the island. A number of islanders atchapel of Mrs. W. B. Burnett, wife tended a dance in Cape Vincent last zel, Waterloo, were the guests of during the week. Miss Gertrude

KINGSTON WON HARD BATTLE FROM "PETES"

Used Two Pitchers But Won 6 to 4_Second Straight Victory.

Peterboro, May 26 .- After a battle brimful of excitement, the Kingston Ponies emerged from the Central Ontario League opening fixture Riverside Park Saturday victorious by six runs to four. The visitors won the game in the first four innings when they nicked five runs off the delivery of Charlie Serth, the Petes new left hander, who was unsteady from the gong and was the victim of several costly defensive slips by his team mates.

Heckman went to the mound after the fourth and held the Ponies to one run and four hits for the balance of the game, striking out eight men in the five innings.

Gallagher went along smoothly dicap). for the ponies until the sixth when the Petes began to get to him so freely that after they had scored a les. run and had two men on the runways he was yanked in favor his Kelly who retired the side without a score, only to run into trouble himself in the next inning when the Petes scored two runs and had the series. bases filled with one run needed tie the score when the side was retired.

Another "kid" who made good was Hall, the Petes eighteenyear-old right fielder, who made three fine catches and started a fast double play. Despite the conditions with muddy footing and a cold raw wind blowing it was a remarkably good ball game and the big crowd was enthusiastic over the prospects.

To Ask For Aid. The effy council at its next meeting will be presented with a letter from the Kingston Amateur Baseball League asking for a grant to aid in carrying on the great work it is doing. The City League looks after about a dozen teams, all young boys, and provides entertainment for thousands each summer. Money is raised only by voluntary contribution at the games and this support is sometimes painfully light. The present city league has never received any aid from the city, and a grant will be a great help to it.

Some Walloping.

The Belleville-Oshawa game in Oshawa on Saturday was some wailoping match and the Trunks came out on the small and of a 19-9 score. Oshawa got twenty-two hits and Belleville twelve. Kingston looks better than ever after that exhibition.
