On Monday afternoon, Mrs. John Sibbit, diocesan secretary for "The Living Message," the organ of the W.A., asked the diocesan executive to hold the last meeting before the annual which opens in Trenton today, at her charming home "The Greenes" on the river road. She also kindly extended an invitation to some other interested W. A. members, who motored down in time for tea. The late comers lingered on the wide verandah, where a lovely view of the river and the islands clothed in their fresh garb of palest green touched with pink and a drift of white where the wild plum blossoms grow, is obtained, and then went into the cheerful house with its big fires in the library and drawing room and received a hearty welcome from the host and hostess. Mrs. John Baxter made tea and Mrs. Charles C. Abbott cut the loaves in the blue and gold diningroom, a perfect dream of an artist. Against the deep blue of the walls, the silver basket of golden tulips centring the polished table, made a touch of gold, in the window blue phlox and flowering currant carried out the color scheme, and on the sideboard a big blue bowl filled with golden Canadian cowslips was flanked by two tall blue candles. Miss Constance Cooke, Miss Beatrice Lambert, and Miss Louise Kirkpatrick, were the tea assistants. The Dean of Ontario and Rev. A. O. Cooke, who brought some of the ladies down in their motors, with Mr. Sibbit and Mr. Ross Sibbit were also present.

The Editor hears

That the Girl's Fellowship Club went down to U-auto Camp on the holiday to put in the garden. This is generally done on May 24th, but on account of the backward season the girls are a week late. The quaint little cottage where, during the summer months the business girls of Kingston may find a real home, is dear to the hearts of the members of this club, which is one of the finest clubs we have in our city. Week-ends and holidays are spent at the camp for a small sum, no larger than the housekeeping at home would come to. Bathing, boating, camp fires and the best of good times generally are enjoyed by the girls wise enough to join the "Y" clubs. Visitors are always welcome and any busy girl or woman can spend a week-end or a week at U-auto Camp whether they belong to the clubs or not.

That a system setting the holidays on the nearest Monday to the date to be honored would be appreciated by the workers. A holiday in the middle of the week means one day of rest but it does not give much chance for a trip.

That four hundred Daughters of the Empire are meeting in Toronto this week for the annual meeting of the National Chapter, Kingston is well represented. The opening service took place on Sunday in Convocation Hall. The sight was an imposing one as the standard bearers with their Union Jacks marched in procession to the platform. Rev. Trevor Davies gave the address and Canon H. D. Woodcock, Capt. Sidney Lambert and Rev. J. Inkster took part in the service, which was largely attended.

That writing of "Daylight Saving in Toronto" Grace Luckhart, touches in the "Daily Province" on the mother's side of things. She deals amusingly with the "inflexible" mother who puts her children to bed by daylight; she admits that she can put hers to bed but they won't go to sleep when the curfew has not rung for more happily situated children, still playing outside. "I have come to the conclusion that the only thing for the small minority of conscientious objectors—such as the parents and teachers and perhaps the medical fraternity to do is to spend the winter getting built up and ready for the fray. You know, after all it really doesn't matter so much how late we stay up at night, if we only get our usual sleep in the morning. But not this morning nor any morning hereafter whether you get used to it or not. You awake with one thought paramount—to let the children sleep until the last possible minute. They need it indeed, but you are doing it in self-defence. Finally when the hands of the clock tell you you dare not let them sleep another minute, you start to wake them." Dragged to breakfast protesting Mrs. Luckhart maintains they are "cast into the street really asleep. But if you have the proper spirit you will doubtless feel glad that the amateur gardener and outdoor enthusiast has had his little hour—for you certainly have had yours."

Astonishing Results in Rheumatism, This Penetrating Liquid Destroys Pain

So satisfactory are the results from this wonderful external treatment that every one bothered with Rheumatism will be interested. A chemist happily discovered that certain oils, herbs and essences had unusual power over pain. These pain-subduing substances he scientifically combined under the name of NERVILINE. This wonderful liquid is so penetrating that it sinks quickly through the pores of the skin, and rapidly reaches the source of the pain. Being quickly absorbed into the tissues, an astonishing improvement is usually noticed a few moments after NERVILINE is applied. Sore muscles limber up, creaky joints become springy again, painful twinges and aching muscles become a thing of the past. For Neuralgia, Sciatica, Lumbago, Stiff Neck, Strains, Sprains and Swellings it would be difficult to improve upon NERVILINE. Get a large 35-cent bottle to-day.

Cocoon Oil Makes A Splendid Shampoo

Do not use prepared shampoos or anything else that contains too much free alkali, for this is very injurious, as it dries the scalp and makes the hair brittle. The best thing to use is Mulsified coconut oil shampoo, for it is pure and entirely greaseless. It is inexpensive and beats anything else all to pieces. You can get Mulsified at any drug store, and a few ounces will last the whole family for months. Two or three teaspoonfuls of Mulsified is all that is required. Simply moisten the hair with water and rub it in. It makes an abundance of rich, creamy lather, which cleanses thoroughly, and rinses out easily. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and is soft, fresh looking, bright, fluffy, wavy, and easy to manage. Besides, it loosens and takes out every particle of dust, dirt and dandruff. Be sure your druggist gives you Mulsified. Beware of imitations. Look for the name Watkinson on the package.
