What the Press Agents Say About Coming Attractions

SIX ACTS OF VAUDEVILLE SHARE BILL AT CAPITOL

The Great American Romance has reached the screen. At last the west, in all its beauty, romance, drama and magnificence has been captured in celluloid.

When Preferred Pictures Corporation announced, some time ago, that they intended making a film version of 'The Virginian,' people were dubious about it.

They may rest assured. The picture is better than the book. This may seem a startling statement, when it is realized that 'The Virginian' has been for twenty years the supreme masterpiece of the west.

The Capitol Theatre has a super programme to celebrate the wind up of its vaudeville season: Harry Thompson's big five-act unit vaudeville show gives a solid hour of entertainment, in a medley of musical, dance and comedy offerings.

The first really fine day of the spring was sent to honor the Kingston Gentlemen's Matinee and Driving Club for their programme of sports at the Fair Grounds on Tuesday.

A couple of accidents occurred during the running of the heats but no serious results came from either and beyond a little excitement they were soon forgotten.

YACHT RACING EVENTS Between Crescent Club of Watertown and Kingston on July 12th.

In conference lately with the officials of the Crescent Yacht Club, of Watertown, N.Y., the Kingston Yacht Club was informed that the Crescent Club could more conveniently come to Kingston on July 12th than on the 1st or 5th, dates that were left open.

This will bring the interclub dinghy races, scheduled for July 12th as a morning event and will leave the afternoon free for yacht racing.

A very good fleet can be assembled here and a larger class of the favorite "R" boats can be assembled than are got together for the George Cup.

The fleet would include about eight yawl rigged boats, two of these, Sheila and Sylvia, from the Kingston Yacht Club. Yachts would come from Sodus, Oswego, Watertown, and the Bay of Quinte Clubs.

On June 3rd the first of the dinghy races was run off, starting with a handicap race. Ten boats were entered.

Half the Club Membership Took Part in Games. Forty-six players, practically half the membership of the club, took part in the holiday doubles tournament held at the Queen's bowling green on Tuesday.

There are to be many special features this evening and on Thursday which is Musical Day.

KARNIVAL KUTS

MUSICAL DAY. Thursday, June 5th. Kingston Choral Society concert. Seventy-five trained singers. Princess of Wales Regt. Band in special selections. Bird house competition for boys for special prizes and Humane Society Cup. Music, dancing and merriment of all kinds.

The big feature at the Kiwanis Carnival this evening is an unexpected one. The Kingston Symphony Orchestra, composed of sixty musicians under the direction of O. F. Teilmann, will give a concert in addition to the numbers by the Victoria School Boys' Choir.

This is an attraction that should certainly draw a crowd. There is not a place in Canada where a symphony orchestra can be heard for the small sum of twenty-five cents, as well as having a boys' choir on the programme—that is, not a place except in Kingston at the Big Kiwanis Carnival. This feature of the programme is free to all those who have entered the doors. There are no further admissions charged, no special seats.

The display of the Sowards Coal Company, with its unique guessing contest, is attracting a lot of attention. To the Carnival visitor guessing the number of lumps in a scuttle of coal will be given a ton of coal free, and some lucky Kingstonian is going to win a valuable prize.

There are to be many special features this evening and on Thursday which is Musical Day. MacDonald's Tobaccos. Just at the right of the main entrance at the Kiwanis Carnival is the display booth of W. C. Macdonald, Inc., Tobaccos, of Montreal. It is featuring the famous British Consols tobaccos and cigarettes, in an attractive arrangement and is under the care of a special representative of the company, J. A. Blanchard, of Ottawa. Smokers will learn interesting details from those in charge of the display.

Monarch Batteries. "Monarch batteries turn the wheels of industry" is one of the slogans displayed on the booth of the Monarch Battery Company at the Kiwanis Carnival. The display is just opposite the main entrance on the right and a Monarch battery is busy at work turning a giant wheel. The special grids and materials used in the manufacture of this Kingston product are shown and the demonstrators will be glad to explain why Kingston's Own Battery is the best bet for motorists. Don't miss the Monarch show.

Hemlock Stock Farm. Kiwanian A. H. Fair's Hemlock Park Farm is gradually becoming famous in this district, and with very good reason. The display of the Hemlock Dairy at the Kiwanis Carnival will give people an idea why users of the milk from this establishment refuse to take any other brand. The Hemlock Farm herd is inspected every month. The stock is pure bred and tuberculin tested. The barns, equipment, clothing of attendants and surroundings are all scrupulously clean and the bottles for delivery are wrapped in the only right manner. There is not the slightest danger of contamination the way the Hemlock Farm sends out its product and every ounce of the milk sent out is of the very highest nutritive quality. Special pathological tests are made regularly by Dr. James Miller, of Queen's University Medical College, to make sure that the milk is kept up to standard. Details will gladly be furnished by attendants at the booth.

BOY SCOUTS CONCERT IN ST. GEORGE'S HALL A Splendid Entertainment on Monday Evening to Raise Summer Camp Funds.

St. George's Boy Scouts gave a concert on Monday evening in St. George's Hall to make money for their summer camp. Rev. W. E. Kidd spoke of the work and during the evening Dr. L. J. Austin, the friend of the boys, presented and pinned on several badges.

The performance reflected the greatest credit on the boys and Scoutmaster Percy Hall who not only trained the scouts in their parts but played for the choruses and took a part in one of the plays, presented most admirably. The soloists were Arnold Fair who brought forth wild applause with his songs, "Irish Names" and "The Big Brown Bear Says 'Woo'." Bjilly Laird was a fine Scotch laddie in kilts and his clear enunciation added much to the pleasure of his hearers. Master Gratton sang and Miss Mary Gratton played a piano number.

The stage was arranged as a Scout camp with a tent from which the Scouts issued to catch the midnight marauders in "The Poschers Poached" put on by Trowbridge, S. Wilder, J. North, secretary Caverly and H. Kelly, E. Cox, D. Crothers, F. Simpson, J. Brookes, G. Cathcart.

"Bob and the Knight's Page" was a clever skit showing the contrast between the boy of the 12th century and the scout on the 20th century. Joseph Gratton took the part of "Bob" splendidly. Scoutmaster P. Hall was a most realistic "Oldest Inhabitant." Patrol Leader Innes Fraser, Patrol Leader Towbridge, Assistant Scoutmaster Rivers and Scouts J. North and G. Taylor took their parts like veteran actors.

A physical drill by the scouts was well done and the music of the orchestra which included Scoutmaster Hall, Patrol Leader Towbridge, J. Gratton, J. North and H. Kelly was excellent. The Dean of Ontario congratulated the scouts on their splendid programme and referred to the excellent work carried on under the direction of Scoutmaster Hall.

"Buy Listerine" at Gibson's. The wedding took place Tuesday, at Christ Church, Dartmouth, N.S., of Edna Alexandria Bauld, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Bauld, of Halifax, to Edgar H. Lougheed, son of Sir James Lougheed, Calgary.
