OBITUARY

Late Mrs. R. Trethewey. At Dufferin, on June 3rd, there passed to rest Hannah Gates, widow of the late Richard Trethewey, at the age of eighty-seven years. The funeral will be held on Thursday afternoon from her late residence to Cataragui cemetery.

The Late J. T. Truscott. Death on Monday afternoon removed a well-known resident of this district and a prominent figure in the county of Frontenac, in the person of John Taylor Truscott, retired farmer of Portland township, who passed away at the home of his daughter, Mrs. G. O. Aiken, 62 Livingston avenue.

The late Mr. Truscott was born at Harrowsmith and lived on the farm he operated all his life up till a few years ago, when he retired and moved into Kingston to live with his daughter.

Mr. Truscott served in the Frontenac county council for many years and in 1896 was warden. He was an able representative and his wise counsel in municipal matters did much to promote the interests of the county. Deceased was widely known and very highly respected and in his death the county loses a good citizen. Mr. Truscott had been in poor health for the past eight years.

The late Mr. Truscott is survived by two sons and one daughter: F. N. Truscott, on the farm near Harrowsmith; C. H. Truscott, of the John Russell Company, Toronto, and Mrs. G. O. Aiken; also one brother, Charles Truscott, of Sydenham, an ex-warden of Frontenac county, and one sister, Mrs. Eliza Collins, Sydenham. S. A. Truscott, school inspector, Frontenac county, is a nephew of the deceased.

Deceased was very prominent in Orange circles and was master of the Orange Lodge at Harrowsmith. He was a member of the Methodist church.

The Late Mrs. Fallon. There passed away at London, Ont., on June 2nd, Mrs. Dominick Fallon, a former resident of Kingston and of Cornwall, and mother of Right Rev. M. F. Fallon, Bishop of London, Mrs. Fallon, who was seventy-five years of age, had been in ill-health for some time. Mr. Fallon predeceased her twelve years ago. After his death she continued to reside for a time in Kingston but a couple of years ago moved to London to live with Bishop Fallon.

Besides the bishop, she is survived by six sons: Father James and Father Charles, Buffalo, N.Y.; Joseph, Cornwall; Thomas, Buffalo; Frank, Hamilton, and Vincent, Kingston.

Special cars of friends and relatives from London and Ottawa, are expected here for the funeral services. The remains will arrive via C.N.R. at 11.30 Wednesday night and the funeral will be held from the residence of Vincent L. Fallon, 185 University avenue, on Thursday afternoon at three o'clock to St. Mary's cathedral where a solemn libera will be sung at 3.30 for the happy repose of her soul.

Masonic Grand Lodge To Lay Corner Stone

There will be a special communication of Grand Lodge A.F. & A.M. at Belleville on Tuesday, June 17th, for the laying of the corner stone of the United Empire Loyalists' memorial arch during the week of the U.E.L. commemoration. It is expected that a large number of the brethren from Kingston and the district will attend. The ceremony is at three o'clock on that day.

The Late Miss Allen. The funeral of the late Miss Elizabeth Louise Allen was held on Tuesday afternoon from her brother's residence, on Clergy street, in charge, of John Cornelius. The funeral was largely attended and many beautiful floral tributes bore testimony to the high esteem in which deceased was held. The services were conducted by the Rev. Dr. Lennon of Queen street Methodist church. Interment was at Cataragui cemetery.

Cooke's Choir Picnic. The members of Cooke's church choir held a very enjoyable picnic on June 3rd when they motored to Robinson's point, on the lake front, and spent the day there. Noon and evening meals were served, and singing, music and games helped to pass the time of an exceedingly pleasant outing. The party returned to Kingston about ten in the evening.

Last Chance For Naval Oranges. This week will see the finish, while they last, we will give 50c oranges for 35c dozen at Carnovsky's.
