The Editor hears

That the delegates from the Woman's Auxiliary of the diocese of Ontario who will go to the triennial meeting in Hamilton, early in October are Mrs. Havelock Price, Mrs. C. Abbott, Miss M. Lewis, Miss C. Hentig, Kingston; Mrs. John Lyons, Picton; Mrs. Judson Watchorn, Merrickville and Mrs. A. H. McTear, Trenton.

That the slogan both for motorists and pedestrians should be "Look Out." Even so accidents are bound to happen, but care on the part of everyone would keep down the list of fatalities. The story is told of the Japanese count who on a visit to Canada was rushed at high speed through crowded streets to a railway station, arriving in good time. His host gasped breathlessly, "Well, we saved two minutes." "And what shall we do with the two minutes?" calmly asked the Japanese. Half the rush through the streets of Kingston is quite as unnecessary.

That a New York note says the dancing craze is dying out and the Halifax Daily Mail has the following comment on the subject: What is true of New York is true of Halifax, and every large dance proves it. In fact one Halifaxian even goes so far as to declare that the drink habit would not have spread so rapidly among the women and girls of Halifax had they not been bored to extinction by the effort to keep on enjoying dances. "Drinking, too, will die out," asserts a Halifax young woman who has followed the crowd in the search for thrills, "because it has ceased to be considered at all devilish or original, and men instead of being intrigued by the girl who likes an occasional 'nip' now calculate it as an added expense to 'rush-ing' her. Carrying your own flask has lost its excitement, too."

That the Y.W.C.A. had a fine Saturday for its tag day. Almost all the other societies have had to stand on the street corners in pours of rain. The "tag" was successful.

COATCAPE IN RUST SHADE

Because there is some doubt as to whether this is a coat or a cape, it is known in fashionable circles as a coatcape. The lower portion is pleated to a capelike top with an embroidered collar. The material is polart twill in the new rust shade.

Mrs. Colin Campbell and Miss Elizabeth Campbell, Winnipeg, will be at "Densmore House" while in town for the R.M.C. gaiteties.

The Popularity of "SALADA" TEA

has been earned on merit only. One trial will convince you.

TOMORROW'S MENU: Breakfast: Berries, Cereal. Coffee: Scrambled Eggs, Toast, Luncheon, Fruit Salad. Cocoa: Wholewheat Bread, Cream Cheese. Cookies, Dinner: Veal Cutlet, Brown Gravy, Mashed Potatoes, Brussels Sprouts, Spiced Beet Salad.

White Sauce for Chicken Maryland: Barely melt two tablespoons of butter in a small saucepan, then remove from the range and stir in two tablespoons of flour, one-fourth teaspoon of salt and a dash of pepper; blend well, then return to fire and add one-half cup of cold sweet milk gradually, then one-half cup of cold sweet cream. Let come to the boiling point, and set over hot water for ten minutes. Pour very hot over the cooked chicken.

Baked Cheese Eggs: Spread bottom of a shallow glass or earthen baking dish with butter, cover with a thin layer of grated or finely chopped American cheese, then break five eggs on the cheese, taking care to keep them whole. Sprinkle lightly with salt and pepper, add another layer of cheese (thicker than the first layer) and slip the dish into a moderate oven for 15 minutes. (Two hot an oven makes cheese leathery, so take care that the oven heat is medium). Serve hot.

Stuffed Beet Salad: Boil very large beets till tender, then remove skins and hollow out the center of each beet. Chop the part removed from the beets and season with salt to taste. Discard one-half of it, and in its place use finely chopped raw celery; moisten with one tablespoon of French dressing. Refill the beet centers with this celery-beet mixture and top with a dab of mayonnaise.

Tomorrow—Answered Letters.

All inquiries addressed to Miss Kirkman in care of the "Efficient Housekeeping" department will be answered in these columns in their turn. This requires considerable time, however, owing to the great number received. So if a personal or quicker reply is desired, a stamped and self-addressed envelope must be enclosed with the question. MISS GWEN LAZIER. SHE FIXED HIM!

Spends Week-End in Kingston on Return From Washington. Miss Gwen Lazier, the brave little Belleville girl, who rode seven hundred miles to invite the president of the United States to the U.E.L. celebration in her home town, returned to Kingston on Saturday and spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Fair, West street. Her sister, Miss Alice Lazier, motored from Belleville and took the young traveler back with her Monday afternoon. Tip, who shared his mistress' honors on the long trip, which he made in thirty-two days, is as fit as possible and returned by train to his pasture in Belleville on Saturday.

Miss Lazier was cordially received by President Coolidge and shown the beauties of the White House. She has the autograph of the president, of the British ambassador, Sir Esme Howard, of Chief Justice Taft, and Chief Commissioner Rudolf. The bright little Canadian girl was met by brass bands, dined and lunched everywhere. She sat in the chair at Philadelphia in which George Washington signed the Declaration of Independence, saw the only whipping post left in the south at Delaware, visited West Point, Princeton and Vassar, and saw the sights generally. She stayed in New York for several days and also visited Baltimore. Miss Lazier will be in town for the ball at the Royal Military College and will have an opportunity of comparing the hospitality of her own countrymen with that of her recent hosts.

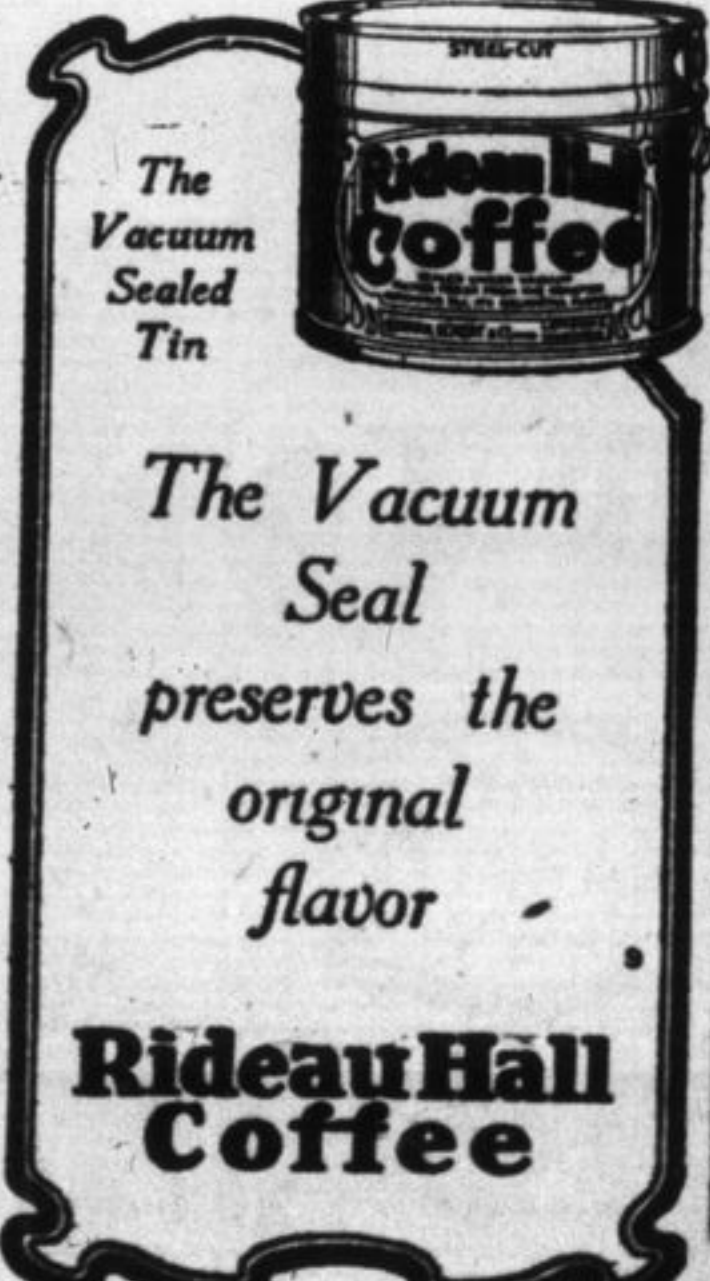

A Woman's Worth. In thirty years one farmer's wife has served 235,425 meals, she told a farm magazine which recently sent out a questionnaire on "How much is a woman worth?"

Other things the one woman has done include: Made 33,190 loaves of bread. Baked 5,930 cakes and 7,960 pies.

Canned 1,550 quarts of fruit. Raised 7,660 chickens. Churned 5,450 pounds of butter. Put in 35,461 hours sweeping, washing and scrubbing.

The woman closed her letter with this: "I estimate the worth of my labor conservatively at $115,485.50, none of which I ever collected. But I still love my husband and children and wouldn't mind starting all over again."

When it takes a young man fifteen minutes to assist a girl to don her coat, she is neither his sister by birth nor by refusal.

GALLAGHER'S TAXI SERVICE 960 DAY AND NIGHT. Be Careful What You Wash Your Hair With.

When you wash your hair, be careful what you use. Do not use prepared shampoos or anything else that contains too much free alkali, for this is very injurious, as it dries the scalp and makes the hair brittle.

Simply moisten your hair with water, and rub it in. Two or three teaspoonsful of Mulsified will make an abundance of rich, creamy lather, and cleanse the hair and scalp thoroughly.
