

NEWS AND VIEWS FOR WOMEN READERS

THE HUMAN ZOO

By C. D. Batchelor

GILLET'S PURE FLAKE LYE

I find it best for cleanliness

Don't call the plumber when the sink drains gets clogged. A little Gillett's Lye will probably clear it in a few minutes. Scour other uses around the sanitary home.

ROYAL DELEGATE
Princess David Kawakawa of Hawaii has arrived in Cleveland as a delegate to the Republican national convention. She is the first woman of royal blood ever to act in a major party pow wow.

Trouble is the only thing a man can borrow without being asked to pay back.

Easily Digestible

Thousands of doctors have recommended Eagle Brand in difficult feeding cases because it is easily digested. Write us for free Baby Books.

THE Borden Co. Limited
Montreal
1-10-24

As Mrs. Pipinrock Smith expected to appear in the news photo—and as she did.

A Lounging Robe a la Chinoise
By ELEANOR GUNN

The Chinese note has been struck and has resounded around the world of dress. It is a particularly happy theme for boudoir wear. The mandarin coat line is as classic and as appropriate there, as in the temple of the gods. True, mandarin coats of exquisite loveliness are also worn for evening and have proven a rather formidable rival to both the Spanish shawl and the modern evening wrap. The negligee and house-gown has come under the sway of the Chinoise, rather more completely than any thing one wears.

The coloring of the model sketched is one of its loveliest features. The coat is a Parme violet purple, the crepe de Chine underslip being Chinese blue. The lining of the coat has a hand-decoration which involves many colors, chateaux among them, for the average woman likes her house gowns colorful, no matter how conservative she may be in the selection of her street costumes.

At one time, kimonos were a sort of standard negligee, but after a while their glory faded, and women went in for other types. The mandarin coat must not be confused, however, with the kimono, since they are from rival kingdoms. The artistry of the mandarin coat assures it a place in the boudoir of a woman of refinement.

Forty Years' Reputation is behind every package of

LIPTON'S TEA

Thos. J. Lipton
Tea Planter
Ceylon

Buy the RED LABEL, Aluminum Package.

1/2 lb. 38c
1 lb. 75c

British Sayings With An Edge
London Observer.

"So long as I hold the purse strings I will never be responsible for any fantastic or reckless scheme which involves national finance."—Mr. Snowden.

"I have noticed that when the first-class brain does something stupid the stupidity of that occasion is colossal."—Mr. Baldwin.

"I am in sympathy with everything unpractical."—Miss Rose Macaulay.

"English Labor politicians, in their speeches, always lay claim to be as good Christians as anyone else."—M. Andre Siegfried.

"I want to know exactly who was having the good time in the good old days."—Lady Astor.

"Our ideas are our chief export. Little as we know it."—Mr. Peter E. Wright.

"There is much more to be said for democracy as a form of society than for democracy as a form of government."—Dean Inge.

"If I had my way I would put a cradle beside the Flag on Empire Day, and make every girl salute the cradle."—The Bishop of Exeter.

"London in the early summer! Is there anywhere richer in the things that matter?"—Mr. Stacy Aumonier.

"I am a true Conservative—a believer in the Middle Ages."—Mr. D. C. Capel Dunn.

"The Welsh are afraid of no man except the deacon."—Mr. Richard Hughes.

"The defence of insanity in a large number of cases is a rich man's defence."—Lord Sumner.

"Those for whom Empire wine is not good enough should be given water, and plenty of it."—Mr. Colebatch.

"I have found that whenever I am right I am attacked, and whenever I am wrong I get universal praise."—Mr. G. W. Stuart Bunting.

"The great problem of a government is how to take what you have inherited and so change it that it is nearer to what you would have liked to inherit than that which, as a matter of fact, you have inherited."—Mr. Ramsey MacDonald.

Joseph G. Standish, for many years excise officer at Beffeville, died at Puce Road, Matstone, Essex county, after an illness of some duration. He was in his seventy-sixth year.

Plantol

Imparts its own exquisite flowerlike fragrance and purity to your complexion. Have you tried Plantol lately? New shape tablet, new wrapper but the same superb quality, now, as twenty-five years ago.

An Exquisite Toilet Soap

A Toilet Soap made only from plant fruit and flower oils.

THE BIRTH OF TWINS.

An interesting event in the village of Parham. June 4.—The warm weather of the past few days is appreciated. The roads are in fine condition. A goodly number from the village intend taking in the K.K.K. this week. John Lowry has the contract for putting up a wood house for the I.O.O.F. The ladies of St. James Guild met with Mrs. Coleman at the rectory on Thursday.

Mrs. S. Barr spending some time with her daughter, Mrs. B. Hannah, returned to Wolfe Island on Saturday. Dr. and Mrs. T. S. Genge spent Sunday with the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Berrim. Born, on May 22nd, to Mr. and Mrs. Benson Hannah, twin boys.

MEMORIAL SLAB ERECTED.

Howard Abbott, Mountain Grove, Gave Life for Country. Mountain Grove, June 8.—The W. I. held its first meeting of the new institute year in the town hall, on Wednesday afternoon, at which plans were formed for the year's work and programmes arranged. They will also have a "bee" at the cemetery on Friday, June 20th, to decorate and beautify it.

A new marble slab has been placed at the grave of Howard Abbott in memory of his services in the late war. When in his youthful vigor the call came for volunteers to help the mother country and he was among the first to respond. While in training here with the 146th he was stricken with an illness which terminated fatally, and he was laid to rest in the local cemetery here. While not destined to die on the far-

CELEBRATED BIRTHDAY.

Mrs. Greenizen, Pittsferry, Reached The Eightieth Milestone. Pittsferry, June 4.—The farmers have finished their planting. Gordon Turcotte and his wife, Kingston, spent the week-end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Turcotte, Roy and Mrs. W. E. Long and son, also Mrs. La Maste, Easton's Corners, spent a few days this week the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Barclay. Congratulations are extended to Mrs. Greenizen, who celebrated her eightieth birthday on Sunday. Her many friends wish her the best of health.

M. E. Clow is building a wood house. Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Black also Mr. and Mrs. Merenus Cronk spent Wednesday at Long Lake fishing. Mrs. J. C. Hartman and son spent a couple of days in Kingston recently. T. A. Wagar and family were in Kingston for the week-end. Mr. and Mrs. S. D. Leslie and small daughter, visiting at M. E. Clow's returned to Kingston on Sunday. James Smith, Smith's Falls, with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Smith. Mrs. William Swerbrick and children spent Tuesday with her mother, Mrs. M. Goodfellow.

S. C. Hartman is loading wood for S. Wilder. The Ladies' Aid held a business meeting at the home of Mrs. M. E. Clow, on Wednesday last. It was decided to hold a social and sale. Mrs. D. Goodfellow is having her house painted. Mr. McCrory is doing the work.

DODD'S KIDNEY PILLS

ALL KIDNEY DISEASES
RHEUMATISM
BRIGHT'S DISEASE
DIABETES
1087 THE PHARMACY

WILL HE DELIVER RUSSIA?

GRAND DUKE NICHOLAS (LEFT), AND HIS WIFE.

In spite of the fact that many of the surviving Romanoffs not long ago chose Grand Duke Cyril—now living at Nice—as protector of the rights to the old throne, thousands of loyal Russians the world over look upon Nicholas as the man who ultimately will deliver Russia from the soviets.

Nicholas wanders about his grounds at Santeny-Servon, France, in the ordinary clothes worn by Frenchmen of the leisure class.

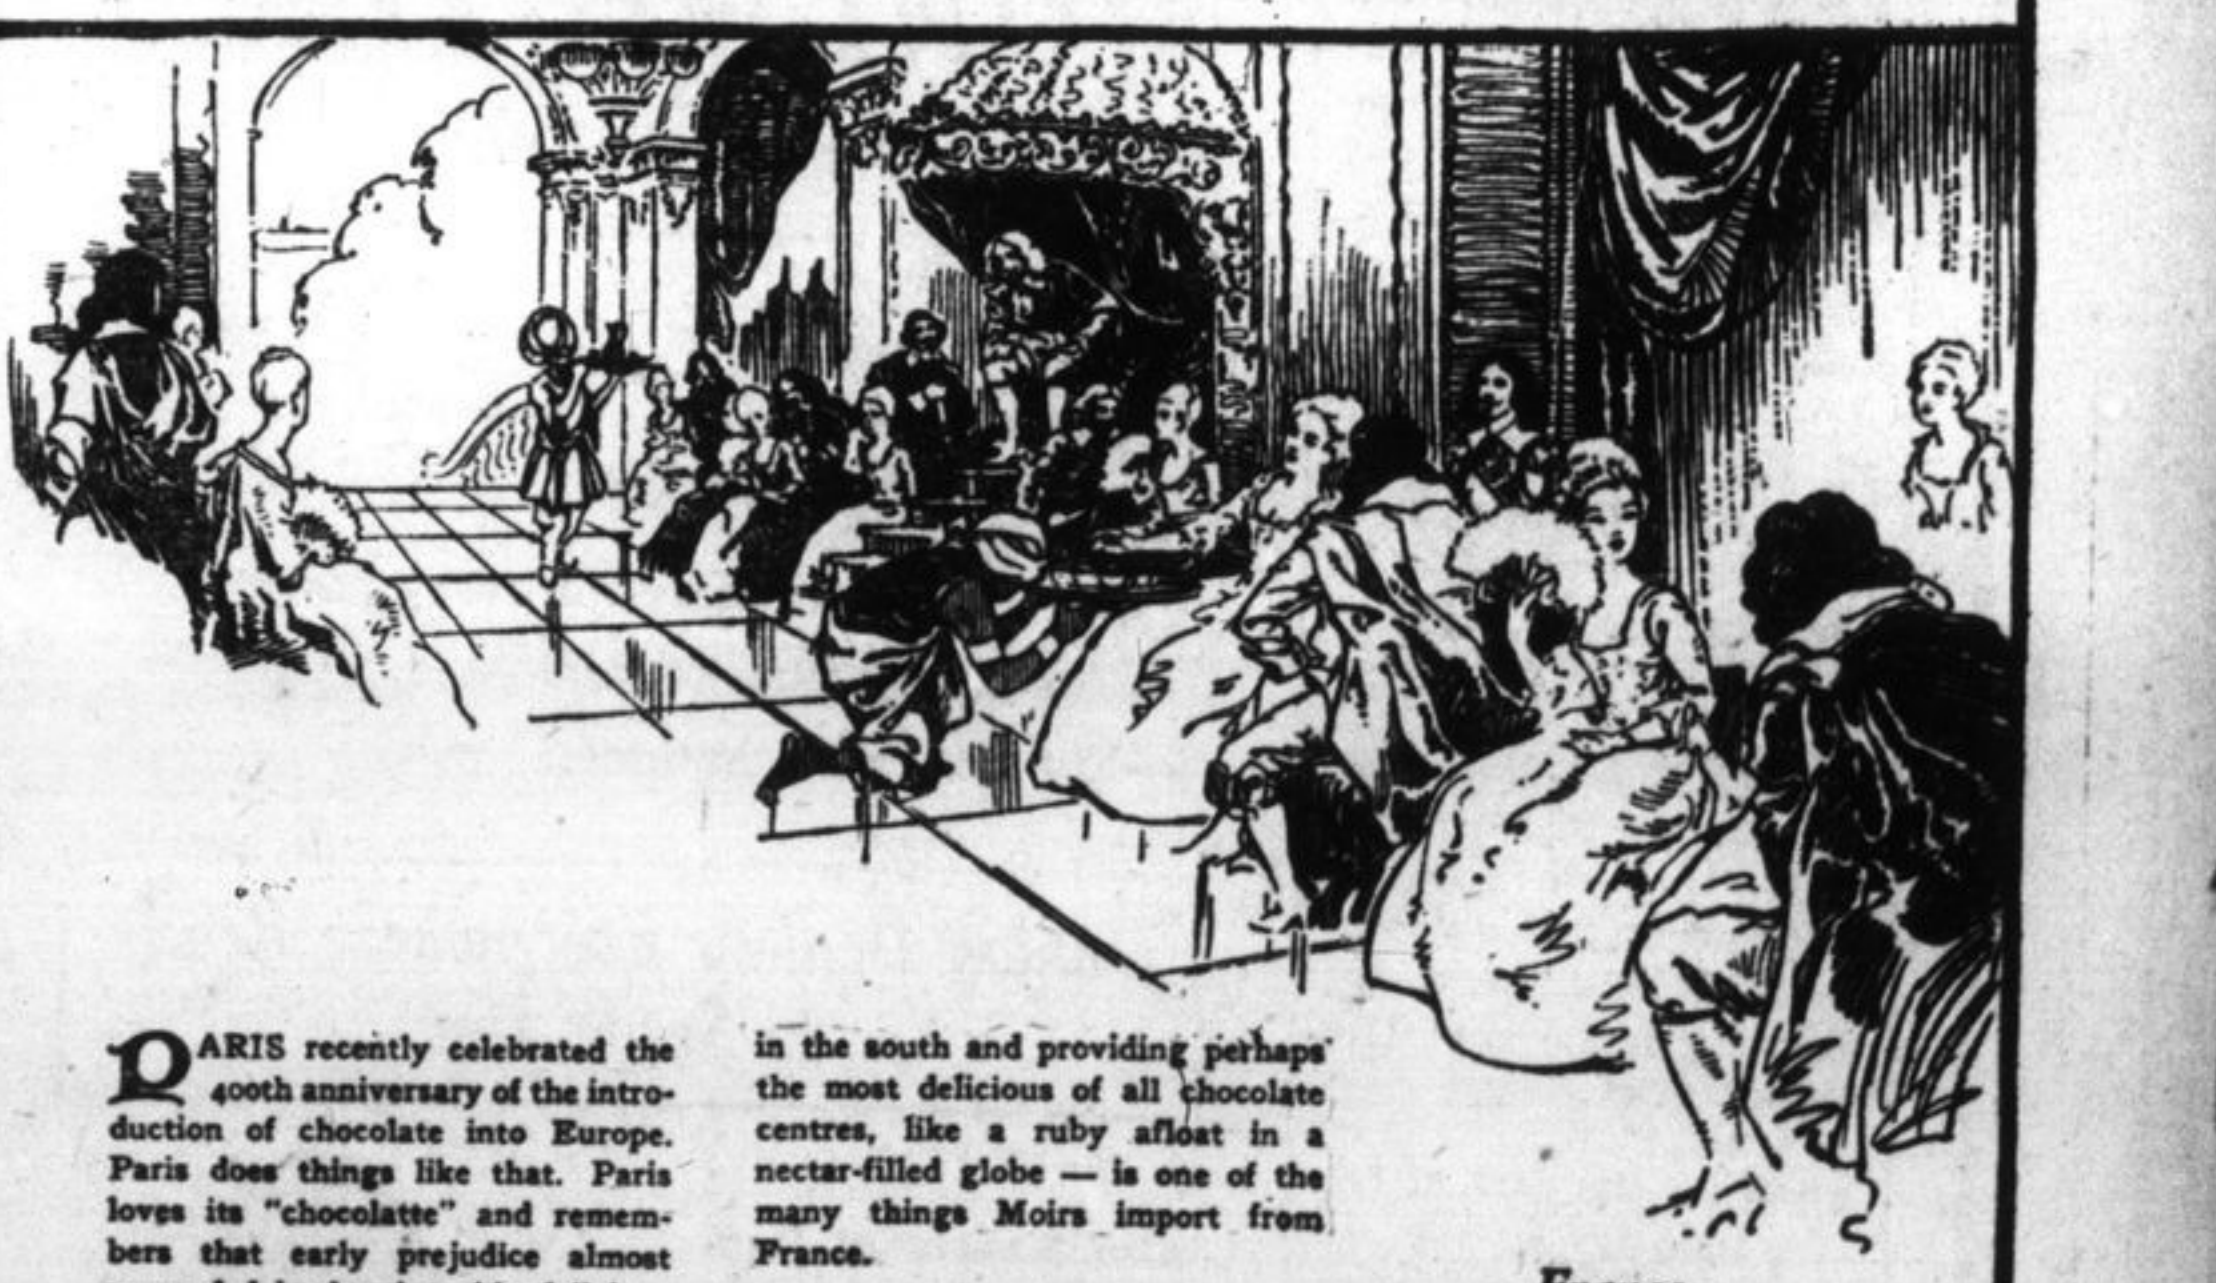

The stork has been busy in the neighborhood leaving a baby girl at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Galway and also a baby girl at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Payne. Miss Hilda Grice, Pine Grove, is visiting with her aunt, Mrs. E. W. Jackson. An auto accident occurred near here on Sunday afternoon, on the highway, which might have proved fatal. A coupe, owned by William Raven, and driven by F. Smith, turned turtle. The car was badly damaged but the driver escaped with a few minor injuries.

The many friends of Mrs. Robert Ranous are glad to hear that she is recovering from her recent illness. The ladies of the Community Aid, of St. Lawrence church, met at the home of Mrs. James Turcotte on Wednesday afternoon. After the business meeting Mrs. Turcotte was called forward and Miss Alma Millous read an address and Mrs. Robert Brash presented Mrs. Turcotte with a beautiful table linen in behalf of the ladies of the Aid, of which she was a faithful member. Mrs. Turcotte thanked them for their gift in a few words, after which a dainty lunch was served. Mr. and Mrs. C. Bell and son also a few other friends from Kingston spent the holiday with Mr. and Mrs. William Brash.

"The Wise Bird's Advice,"
There was a white owl sat on a limb.
He looked at me and I looked at him.
Whether I see by night or by day,
The more that I see, the less I say,
Whether I hear it above or below,
The more that I hear, the less I know.
Whether awake or asleep in your bed,
Silence is golden, my boy," he said.

There are times when the average boy would like to assume the role of father to the man for a few brief moments.

Vive la Chocolate!

MOIR'S Chocolates

Messrs. R. H. Toye & Co., Distributors for Kingston.

PARIS recently celebrated the 400th anniversary of the introduction of chocolate into Europe. Paris does things like that. Paris loves its "chocolates" and remembers that early prejudice almost succeeded in denying this delicious confection to the French people.

All that France has discovered in 400 years as to the use of chocolate in candy form has been learned by Moir's candy makers. Her succulent flaming red cherries, ripened in the south and providing perhaps the most delicious of all chocolate centres, like a ruby aflame in a nectar-filled globe—is one of the many things Moirs import from France.

In Canada Moirs have been identified for many years with the blending and combining of the world's finest chocolate with all the high quality materials that may be gathered in for candy-making from all corners of the world.

France
Anne of Austria, wife of Louis XIII, introduced chocolate into the French court. And what a host there was!—It was declared that babies whose mothers indulged were almost sure to be chocolate in shade. But this libel was soon over-come and Paris ever since has been absorbing great quantities of chocolate in the form of bon-bons, cakes and liquors.

Sold in your Neighborhood.

MOIR'S LIMITED - HALIFAX.

Miss O. S. Allen's Tested Recipes

No. 176

Chocolate Roll
(Unusual! Looks like a jelly roll but tastes like your favorite chocolate cake)

1/2 cupful Crisco, scant
1 cupful sugar, 3 eggs
1/2 teaspoonful salt
1/2 cupful cold water
1/2 cupful flour
2 teaspoonfuls baking powder

Beat Crisco, sugar, salt until creamy. Add beaten egg yolks, cold water. Sift flour, baking powder. Add alternately with beaten egg whites. Bake in shallow Criscoed pan lined with brown paper.

Filling
1/2 lb. Baker's chocolate
1/2 cupful sugar
1 tablespoonful Crisco
1/2 cupful hot water
1 rounded tablespoonful cornstarch
1/2 cupful milk
1/2 teaspoonful vanilla

Melt chocolate in double boiler. Add sugar, Crisco, water. Cook until blended. Mix milk, cornstarch. Add to hot mixture. Cook until thick, beating constantly. Add vanilla. Put cake on towel. Trim edges, spread with chocolate. Roll.

CRISCO
Made in Canada
For light, tender cakes
For digestible and flaky pastry
For crisp, digestible fried foods