THE MOWAT HOSPITAL

Arrangements Made With D. S. C. R.—Mowat Supplies Medical Personnel.

Dr. J. C. Connell, president of the Kingston Health Association, has returned to the city from Ottawa, where in company with Mr. J. M. Campbell and Dr. A. E. Ross, M.P., he interviewed Hon. Dr. Beland, minister of Soldiers' Civil Re-establishment, in regard to Mowat hospital, as announced in the Whig yesterday. An arrangement has been made with the government highly satisfactory to all parties. An average of about 100 soldier patients will be maintained at Mowat for at least a year. The delegation also succeeded in securing other concessions, such as the construction of the much discussed drain, etc. The Kingston Health Association, and the public spirited men on its board of directors, will now be able to carry on the good work that Mowat hospital has done during the past few years of its history.

The provincial department of health is establishing chest diagnostic clinics at various points in eastern Ontario, viz., Smith's Falls, Brockville, Belleville, etc. The latter two places have already accepted their clinics. This is part of a movement to clean up the eastern part of the province from a tuberculosis standpoint. Mowat hospital supplies the medical personnel for all these clinics.

GRAND JURY REFERS TO CRIME DECREASE

Speaks Well For Kingston and Frontenac — Report on Public Institutions.

The closing session of the court of general sessions was held on Thursday morning when postponement was made till the December sessions of the charge of indecent assault against Hugh Carr, who is ill in the General Hospital. The report of the grand jury was also presented by the foreman, Norman Graterday.

The report said the decrease in crime as shown by the docket spoke well for the residents of the city and county and then went on to describe conditions in the institutions visited by the jury. These included the jail, House of Industry, House of Providence, Rockwood Hospital, Orphans Home, St. Mary's-on-the-Lake and the Court House. All of these were found to be clean and well-managed and the inmates, if any, well satisfied. Various matters attracted special note. The new shower bath in the jail was a decided improvement. Complaint had been made that a chimney at the House of Providence was annoying residents by its smoke but the jury found no fault at the time they examined it. The arrangements at Rockwood Hospital for recreation for the patients were praised. St. Mary's is now accommodating 110 children. A ventilating system in the court room was recommended.

Judge Madden said it was a matter of satisfaction to all to know that such institutions, where people have to spend months or years, were so well managed.
