

NEWS AND VIEWS FOR WOMEN READERS

LIFE'S SOCIAL SIDE

Editor of Women's Page, Telephone 2613. Private phone 857w.

Will the ladies who will be guests at the June ball at the Royal Military College send a short description of their gowns to the editor of the Women's Page before Saturday, June 14th. No names will be published without a description of the gown and we hope for the co-operation of our readers in making the list as complete as possible. Telephone 2613 or 857w.

The brightest of June sunshine made the anniversary week at Ontario Ladies' College, Whitby, even more delightful than it would have otherwise been.

At the banquet on Wednesday evening, when six hundred and twenty "Old Girls" dined, sitting together in decades, eight of the class of 1874 were present and twelve of the class of 1875. The largest representation was from the class of 1914. The graduates had come from Denver from Edmonton and other distant places, and the inspiration of the gathering was wonderful. At the commencement on Thursday, Miss Marlon Anglin, Kingston, graduated. Twelve hundred people were received on the lawn by the lieutenant governor of Ontario and Mrs. Cockshutt and the principal of the Ontario Ladies College. Luncheon was served from marquees on the lovely grounds. Among the Kingstons present were Mr. and Mrs. Frank Anglin, Miss Helen Anglin, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Davis, Miss Margaret Davis, Miss Mary Rowland, Miss Olive Woodman, Mrs. Ernest Sparks, Mrs. A. W. Winnett.

Miss Grace Dunlop, Miss Daisy Chown, Mrs. J. E. Mabey and Miss Frances Asseltine, Odessa, were also among the "Old Girls" present.

Miss Mowat, Johnson street, asked a few people to come in at the tea hour on Thursday afternoon to meet Mrs. Frank Mann, Windsor, who is with her daughter, Mrs. A. N. Lee. The rooms were lovely with white lilac and red tulips, and a great bowl of lilies-of-the-valley was on the piano, shedding its fragrance through the rooms.

Mrs. Beverley Browne gave a small mah jongg party at the Catarqui Golf and Country Club on Thursday afternoon for Mrs. Eric Greenwood, who is being much entertained, and who will be much missed in Kingston society.

Mrs. H. F. Richardson, Stuart street, entertained at tea on Wednesday afternoon for Miss Dorothy Ford, Minneapolis, who is Mrs. W. T. Connell's guest.

RECIPES FOR CHOCOLATE DOUGHNUTS.

In response to a recent request from a reader for Chocolate Doughnuts, two Reader Friends have kindly sent me the following recipes: "Mrs. C. M." and "Mabel sent identical recipes: "Chocolate Doughnuts with Eggs. Two eggs, one tablespoon of melted butter, one cup of sweet milk, three-fourths of a cup of granulated sugar, one-half teaspoon of salt, two tablespoons of melted chocolate, three cups of flour, two teaspoons of baking powder and one teaspoon of vanilla. Sift together the flour, baking powder and salt. Beat the eggs and add the sugar to them, then also add the chocolate, butter, milk and vanilla. Stir in the sifted dry ingredients, which will make a medium-thick dough. Roll out about one-half inch thick and cut with a doughnut cutter. Fry in deep, hot fat as any doughnuts. When cool sprinkle with powdered sugar. This recipe makes three dozen doughnuts."

"Mrs. C. M." also sent the following: "Chocolate Doughnuts without Eggs: Two tablespoons of butter melted, two-thirds of a cup of sugar, one-half teaspoon of salt, one-eighth teaspoon of nutmeg, one-half teaspoon of vanilla, two and one-half ounces (or squares) of unsweetened chocolate melted, one cup of sweet milk, three cups of flour and three teaspoons of baking powder. Mix butter and sugar together, then add the salt, nutmeg, vanilla and melted chocolate (cooled). Also add the milk and the flour sifted with the baking powder. Mix well and roll out on a slightly-floured bread board, about one-fourth inch thick. Cut with a doughnut cutter and fry to a light brown in deep fat which is hot enough to brown a small piece of bread in 60 seconds. Drain well and sprinkle with powdered sugar.

"Or, better yet, sugar the doughnuts as follows: Put six doughnuts into a large paper bag with a couple of tablespoons of powdered sugar; close top of bag and then shake well. When the doughnuts are well coated with the sugar, remove them and put six more into the bag, shaking as before and adding more powdered sugar as necessary. Save left-over sugar for next baking. This method will save lots of trouble and leaves no sugar-dust to clean up afterwards."

I want to thank these kind Reader Friends for sending us their recipes, which I am sure many housekeepers will use and value. Tomorrow—Crocheted Silk Booties For The Baby.

The Editor Hears

That the Catarqui Golf and Country Club is looking its prettiest just now and will extend a welcome to the visitors in town for the Royal Military College closing events which will be more largely attended than ever this year. A dance on Saturday evening will end a very gay week for Kingston.

That the bale sent to the lepers by St. George's Mission Sewing Circle was a splendid one and all the knitted garments represented hours of work by the members. Miss Hague, a former Kingston girl, who spoke on the occasion of its packing on Wednesday evening, was delighted with the articles to be sent to the far east.

That the following clipping from the Toronto Star will be of special interest to Kingstonsians just now: "Only once has a 'Mac' been President of the United States. For the first time a 'Mac' appears in the list of British Premiers. Canada has had two and Ontario one. And the Macs are the salt of the earth and no mistake. When a man is called Mac, be it in relation to his first or his last name, or only a nickname, there is a man you can tie to 99 times out of 100. Hyrrah for the Macs!"

That if one is to judge by the description of the dresses sent in to the Whig, the R.M.C. hall will be a splendid sight. Crystal, pearl and sequins will make a riot of color which will be set off by the black gowns which are numerous and the simple crepe and taffeta frocks which seem to be much worn by the young girls this year.

That the ready-to-wear shops and the drygoods are finding the effect of a few warmer days cheering. Women are realizing that we always need summer frocks in Ontario, even if the season for them will be rather short as this year.

Education has for its object the formation of character.

It brings summer to your table in winter months. Preserve it now while plentiful and cheap.
