

An English House of Distinctive Design.

This house avoids the commonplace in design; in every detail it shows unusual character; it is a house that would stand out in distinction from its neighbors.

Yet there is nothing freakish about the design, it is throughout, in the best of taste and, at the same time, it is unusual and distinctive. It follows the old English Type.

The architects have so handled the roofs that a pleasing variety in form and outline is obtained. The entrance gable has the roof eaves brought down to the tops of the first storey windows, and the plain stucco walls of this gable form a fitting setting for the heavy oak doorway. The half-timbered gable gives an interesting variety.

The walls of the house are finished in stucco, preferably white; the roof is slate of various colors—and sizes; the chimney is hard burned red brick, and the timberwork, window frames, etc., should be stained a weathered gray, preferably quite dark. This would give a pleasing color scheme that would be quite in keeping with the design. All windows are of the casement type.

The plans of this house present a livable arrangement of good size rooms, the result of thorough study on the part of the architects.

The necessary coat closet and the very desirable toilet room are both provided near the entrance door, where they are most convenient.

A small stair hall gives entrance to the living-room, the dining-room, and provides the stairway. Steps from the main stair platform to the kitchen (with a door) eliminate the service stairway.

On the second floor three bedrooms are well laid out. A large bath is provided. There are plenty of closets.

A cellar is provided under the entire house, and here is the heating plant, the laundry, and such.

This house should have a lot with seventy-five feet frontage, to give it proper setting.

Cost about $11,800.

Complete working plans and specifications of this house may be obtained for a nominal sum from the Building Editor. Refer to House A-86.

HARDEST GOLF HOLE AT OAKLAND HILLS
The eighth green of the Oakland Hills course, Detroit, Mich. A creek races across thirty yards in front of the tee. To get home in two the drive must bear off to the right, skirting a trap of generous proportions. A carry of 220 yards will clear.

23 WERE KILLED IN THIS FIRE!

Twenty-two inmates and the head matron, Mrs. Drew Thomas, died in the fire that destroyed the Hope Benevolent Home for Mentally Deficient Girls at Playa Del Rey, Calif., just outside Los Angeles. From the wreckage, shown in this picture, their bodies were removed. Mrs. Lola May Rodemaker, assistant matron (in set), risked her life to lead inmates to safety.

It is not generally known that flour, sugar, starch, or grain dusts are capable of working greater havoc than a high explosive such as dynamite.

Patience makes that more tolerable which it is impossible to prevent or remove. Perfection is attained by slow degrees; she requires the hand of time.

A teaspoonful of paraffin in the washing tub lightens work, while the same amount in a bowl of starch will prevent the irons sticking when starched things are being ironed.

association in convention yesterday adopted a resolution calling for the repeal of "those sections of the national prohibition act which interfere with the proper relation between the physician and his patient in prescribing alcohol medicinally." The resolution on the Volstead act held that "alcohol is a drug necessary in the treatment of certain diseases in the opinion of a majority of physicians, as heretofore determined by the poll of the American Medical association.

The house of delegates also adopted a resolution introduced by Dr. Howard Fox of New York, urging legislation placing cosmetics under the food and drugs act.
