IN MEMORIAM.

In loving remembrance of Alice V. Taylor, wife of P. Edwards, who died une 20th, 1915. Call not back the dear departed Anchored safe where storms are o'er, On the border land we left her, on to meet to part no more. When we leave the world of changes, When we leave this world of care, We shall find our missing loved one

QUEEN MARY OBJECTS TO WOMEN SMOKING

An Incident at Royal Ascot-Breach of Etiquette By a Visitor.

London, June 19 .- It has always been an understood thing that women invited to the enclosure at Royal Ascot, which is just in front of lem? the royal box, should not indulge even in a cigarette while within the yesterday this unwritten law always has been obeyed. Apparently this year among the six thousand invitations issued to the enclosure one was sent to a woman who was not acquainted with all the rules of behavior required there, or who was more daring than the others. Court officials were horrified to witness a flagrant breach of etiquette on the part of a visitor not very far from the royal box and- today instructions were issued to the green and gold liveried attendants, to see that the offence was not repeated.

The first four Imperial preference resolutions were voted on in- the British douse and defeated by a small majority. A mad dog in Newark bit eleven people. One boy died of his injuriest The others were given pasteur
