Against the grey stone background of a church built more than a century ago, gay flags and bunting made glorious spots of color on Tuesday afternoon and evening when the women's societies of St. George's cathedral held a garden party on the church grounds in aid of the improvement fund. No admission was charged, and everyone received a hearty welcome from Rev. W. E. Kidd, Mrs. Kidd, Mrs. E. J. B. Fense, Mrs. R. J. Gardiner and the other presidents of the societies. Near the entrance, the A.Y.P.A. sold home cooking at a flower-decked table, in charge of Miss Eleanor Lyons, Mrs. Ernest Cockburn, Mrs. W. Morrison, Mrs. Bert Thompson, Mrs. G. S. Webster, Miss Lily Ker-shaw, Miss Alice White and Miss Elizabeth Clark. The Girls' Aux-iliary had a charmingly-arranged table with sweets in pink and mauve baskets and quantities of flowers for sale. Miss Aileen Rogers, Miss Freda Burns, Mrs. Bruce Hopkins and Miss Muriel Neale were in charge here, and farther on visitors found the ice cream, which was served at small tables on the lawn, presided over by Mrs. Charles Kirkpatrick and Miss Edith Ritchie and the members of the Junior Branch of the W.A. The Church Woman's Aid had two tables under one of the fine old trees. Mrs. W. H. Hughes, Mrs. Thomas Mills, Mrs. T. W. Rowland, Mrs. Frederick Taylor, Mrs. Travers Hora sold the prettiest of handkerchiefs, and Miss Harris took the money, which came in rapidly. The work table was in charge of Mrs. J. C. Poonford, Mrs. W. J. B. White, Mrs. George McGowan, Mrs. George Bawden and Mrs. John Carson. Merry parties gathered round the tables on the lawn and drank tea, served by a bevy of prettily-frocked girls from the long table centred with a big bowl of summer flowers. Here Mrs. E. J. Bidwell, Miss Muckleston and Mrs. Havelock Price made tea, assisted by Mrs. R. J. Gardiner, Mrs. Norman Fraser, Mrs. W. A. Sawyer, Mrs. Cecil Boyd (Regina), Mrs. Edward Rees, Miss Elizabeth Sutherland, Miss Edith Rees, Miss Sylvia White and Miss Doris Baker, Bernardston, Mass. A very welcome visitor came in during the afternoon, Mrs. Lennox Mills, Montreal. She was surrounded by her old friends who well remember her kindness and that of her late husband, the former Bishop of Ontario, and their hospitality at Bishop's Court. In the evening the affair still went on and until nine o'clock. Mr. R. F. Harvey played several favorite numbers on the organ. People enjoyed the music which floated out on the evening air or went into the cathedral to hear it more perfectly. A good sum was realized.

On Tuesday afternoon, Mrs. H. A. Lavell, Earl street, entertained at the tea hour in her charming rooms, still lovely with the floral decorations placed there for her daughter's wedding. She wore grey charmeuse and carried sweet peas and roses. Mrs. C. S. Sutherland received with her in grey and a violet scarf, and wearing a corsage bouquet of violets. In the tea-room, yellow roses made gay spots of color and centred the table presided over by Mrs. Donald Macphail and Mrs. Douglas Dewar, Ottawa. The tea assistants were Mrs. Alfred Hubbs, Picton; Mrs. Bayly Ransom, Miss May and Miss Edna Chown and Miss Mary Clark. The guests were allowed a peep at the exceedingly handsome presents which were upstairs, Miss Sarah Lavell showing them to the visitors. As well as beautiful silver, china and pictures there were pieces of dainty needle-work, gifts of girl friends, and the many useful articles received in a kitchen shower.

To motor some miles through the country lovely in its June dress is always an added attraction to a party, so the bridge given at Collin's Bay on Tuesday afternoon by Miss Edith Rankin, Brooklyn, N.Y., for Miss Edith Kirk, also of Brooklyn, was looked forward to by her guests and the realization quite came up to the expectation. The players sat on the wide verandah where four tables were in play and between the games enjoyed the beautiful view. The winners of the souvenirs were Mrs. Ross Livingston, Miss Gwendolyn and Miss Doris Folger.

baby's christening robe, of white satin and wonderful old lace, was the same one worn by her father. Lady Patricia carried her to the font, which was almost hidden under a mass of white flowers.

That the Garden Island and Wolfe Island summer cottages are filling up with families who enjoy these healthful and pleasant retreats. As soon as the schools close more families will join those who are already getting settled.

That the girls of Glenburnie are playing baseball with a soft ball and making a great success of this fine out-of-door sport. They have quite an audience when they gather in the evening in a big field beside the road and recently several Kingston motors were seen parked near by, the occupants watching the fun.

That about 1,000,000 people heard the song of the nightingale, which was broadcast from the London broadcasting station one night recently at 11 p.m. At many places the song was reproduced by loud-speakers, and groups of people sat in gardens near by hearing the music. This seemed so realistic that the birds might have been on a tree branch above their heads. The birds were actually singing in an old Surrey garden.

Bon Ami

Keeps white shoes looking like new!

For all kinds of white shoes—except kid—Bon Ami works wonders.

Put it on with a wet brush—let it dry—then wipe it off with a dry cloth. You'll find that all the dirt, dust and grass stains have disappeared. Just the fresh original whiteness remains—without any pasty, chalky streaks.

When the original whiteness finally has worn off your shoes, clean them first with Bon Ami, then apply a good white dressing. This avoids the ugly, grimy, clogged-up appearance.

Bon Ami also cleans windows, mirrors, white woodwork, aluminium, kitchenware, bathtubs, etc.—in fact, it has scores of uses throughout the house.

That the women of Kingston take a great deal of pleasure out of the three out-of-door clubs, the Yacht Club, the Country Club on the Rideau and the Catarqui Golf and Country Club. Not only are there the more formal gatherings on club days but little parties of intimate friends meet for a game of bridge or mah jong on the verandah and enjoy the beautiful scenery for which Kingston is famous and the cool air from Lake Ontario.

That the Prince of Wales this week added to his list of god-children when on Tuesday he stood god-father to the baby daughter of Lord and Lady Louise Mountbatten, who has already been dubbed the "richest child in Great Britain." Lady Patricia Ramsay, daughter of the Duke of Connaught, was the god-mother. The
