With true hospitality, Mrs. H. W. Richardson gave to her friends of her best, when "Alvington" was looking its loveliest, when its roses, peonies and tall beautiful irises were in full bloom, invited them to share these beauties with her. On Friday afternoon the sun shone and a light breeze from the lake whistled among the fine old trees, and crowds of people entered the great gateway and were received in the drawing-room by Mrs. Richardson and Mrs. Ford. Here, too, were quantities of flowers, and the dining-room was also lovely with deep red roses and garden heliotrope. Mrs. Walter Connell and Mrs. T. A. McGinnis made tea, and on the veranda Mrs. Frederick Etherington cut the loaves. The assistants were Mrs. T. A. Kidd, Miss Mamie Anglin, Miss Phyllis Knight, Miss Nora Connell, Miss Jessie Mair, Miss Evelyn Ford, Miss Anella Minnes, Miss Nora Scott (New York), and Miss Nora McGinnis. Little parties wandered through the garden, sat on the stone seats along the path bordered with irises and peonies.

whose lovely heads were seen again in the reflecting stone at the end of the pathway. The roses, now at their best, scented the air, and the gold fish in their basin attracted much attention. As well as being the largest reception given in Kingston for some time, it was one of the most enjoyable.

The first of the dances given during the summer season at Queen's University was held in Grant Hall on Friday evening and was an exceedingly pleasant affair. Experiences of the past year were exchanged and acquaintances renewed. Prof. and Mrs. John Matheson, Prof. and Mrs. A. H. Carr and Prof. and Mrs. F. Sine received the guests, who danced in the big hall or played cards in the Levana room.

Mrs. William Davy, Barrie street, gave a miscellaneous shower on Friday for Miss Matilda Wart. The house was decorated with peonies and roses, and the many beautiful gifts were presented to the bride-elect in a gaily trimmed basket, the verses attached to each creating much merriment.

Mr. and Mrs. Milne were expected in the city by boat Saturday evening and will take up residence at 434 Alfred street.

Ald. Milne was the recipient of a telegram of congratulations sent by Mayor Angrove on behalf of the Kingston city council and officials.

Beautiful Roses. Joseph Kehoe, the gardener of the far-famed beauties of the Kingston Post Office, is receiving many congratulations on his wonderful flower garden and especially on the large bed of roses in the centre. There are pink, red and white varieties and they are truly splendid. There is one large German variety, a white rose, which is attracting unusual attention. The plants are loaded with buds and with giant blossoms already in full bloom.

Dark Teeth Bleached in Three Minutes. You have always longed for flashing white teeth. And now, at last you can have them—easily, quickly and safely! For scientists have discovered a remarkable new treatment which often in three minutes bleaches dull dingy discolored teeth from the teeth, leaving them clear, sparkling white and lustrous. This new treatment, called Bleachodont Combination, consists of a mild, safe liquid and a new kind of paste. The liquid curdles and softens the stains, while the paste removes them, and if used daily prevents the formation of future stains. You simply brush teeth with a few drops of the liquid—then use the paste. Almost before you realize it, unsightly surface stains disappear and the teeth take on a dazzling new whiteness and lustre. First application usually leaves teeth whiter than with ten times the scouring of old-fashioned methods. Bleachodont Combination is harmless—does not affect enamel as its mild ingredients are intended to act only on surface stains—Not an enamel itself. Especially beneficial for children's teeth which stain easily. Get Bleachodont Combination today for a few cents. Be sure you ask for Bleachodont Combination. At all good dealers such as Wilfred E. Austin, P. Chow, Jax R. McLeod, Mahood Drug Co., Ltd., T. Harry Sargent.

NATURE PUT IRON FOR YOUR BLOOD. In the husks of grains and the peels and skins of fruits the quantities but modern methods of cooking throw all these things away—hence the alarming increase in anaemia, iron starvation of the blood, with its never ending trend of symptoms of nervous irritability, general weakness, fatigue, disturbed digestion, headaches, pains across the back, etc. Either go back to nature or take organic iron—Nuxated Iron—to help enrich your blood and revitalize your without exhausted nerves. Over 6,000,000 people annually are using it. Nuxated Iron is sold by all druggists.

Burial of Centenarian. The funeral of the late Mrs. Darius Smith, who died on Wednesday, aged 102 years, was held from her late residence at Collin's Bay on Friday afternoon to Cataract cemetery in charge of the James Reid firm. It was largely attended and marks of respect in great number were shown to the venerable lady's memory by prominent citizens of the city and county. The pall-bearers were Darius Smith, Hervey L. Smith, Vernon M. Smith, Anthony M. Smith, Guy Smith and E. N. M. Sproule. Rev. Mr. Sisco conducted the last services.

WOMAN'S INSTITUTE.

Lennox Annual. The annual district meeting of the Lennox Woman's Institute was held in the form of a picnic at Bath on June 30th. The Institute is greatly indebted to Mr. Fred Franklin for the use of his camping grounds on the bay shore about one mile east of the village. The attendance was not as great as last year, but all branches were represented.

Shortly after twelve a substantial lunch was enjoyed after which the work of the year was reviewed. Reports from the different branches and the district secretary being heard. The outstanding feature of the day was the address given by Miss Emily Guest of Toronto. Her topic was "How to make an efficiency study of yourself and your community." Miss Guest is a most forceful speaker and left with us many helpful suggestions for our work during the coming year.

The election of officers was carried out next and resulted as follows:—President, Mrs. W. L. Haight, R.N.; vice-president, Mrs. C. F. Allison; 2nd vice-president, Mrs. James Miller; secretary-treasurer, Mrs. A. P. Young. The vice-president of the Federation, Mrs. C. F. Allison, and Mrs. W. L. Haight, district president were elected as representatives to Ottawa in the fall.

After lively sports and distributing of prizes, the meeting was brought to a close with the national anthem.

WITH THE GIRL GUIDES ON BEAU RIVAGE ISLAND

The number of Guides in camp are increasing every day. Owing to the magnificent weather the work planned for each day can be carried out to perfection. Mrs. L. Guild is a visitor in camp for a couple of days. Mrs. Monk, who has filled the post of camp mother, so admirably during the first week is returning to the city tonight and Mrs. Revell has come to take her place for the remainder of the time. Mrs. Monk provided a treat of strawberries for supper on Friday night which was surely appreciated by the entire camp.

The Fairies Picnic. When fairies have a picnic they always tidy up. It would be most disgraceful to leave a broken cup. They roll up bits of paper and hide each orange skin. And find a most convenient place to put the rubbish in. When fairies have a picnic, they put the fire out. For fear that brother wind would scatter it about. They have a pile of brushwood, for that is always dry. For other picnic people to light a fire by. When fairies have a picnic, they never break the trees. But smooth the grass and daisy buds as pretty as you please. And packing up their basket they gently steal away. And leave the place all beautiful for some one else to play.

FROCK OF TAFFETA

Here is a simple but effective frock that manages to look original and different merely by the selection of the material. It is of taffeta striped in white and black and the intermediate shades of gray, worn with a black cape lined with the same taffeta as the frock. It adheres to the popular silhouette of flat front and back and enough fullness at the sides to give the necessary freedom.

The Editor hears

That the cottages near Alexandria Bay are filling up and the season among the Thousand Islands promises to be a gay one.

That jewelled pins are worn to hold the bobbed hair back at each side of the face with most becoming effect.

That the post office garden is a thing of beauty and next to it is Clarence park and the Custom House garden where the roses scent the air. Visitors greatly admire the profusion of flowers in the business section of the city, and people who have no garden of their own are given pleasure, possibly tinged with envy, at the sight of so much beauty.

That a bobbed haired mother and an unfortunate spoiled child of little more than a year old were objects of pity to the passengers—one of the street cars the other day. The mother, little more than a child herself, had not the slightest control of her small son who wanted everything he saw and cried for it. Slaps and threats increased the uproar, and of course had no other effect on the small culprit. One of the most revolting sights is to see a mother punishing her child in public, and one of the most pitiful is to see a future Canadian citizen beginning life under such unhappy conditions.

That Bath has quite a summer colony this year, several of the cottages being occupied by Kingston families, and the splendid children's camp under the direction of the Misses McTeer providing a healthful outing for children fortunate to have been taken into it.
