ODD FELLOWS' GRAVES

In Catarqui Cemetery Decorated on Sunday—Dr. A. E. Ross Gave an Address.

The Odd Fellows had a beautiful Sunday for the ceremony of the decoration of the graves of deceased members at Catarqui cemetery. Two large motor busses and over thirty cars carried the party to the grounds at the fountain just inside the entrance, the opening prayer was offered by the Rev. J. W. Forster, chaplain. The members then dispersed to decorate graves. Two hundred and seventy-two plots were decorated with a geranium in blossom planted on each. Then all assembled round the Oddfellows' plot and a few remarks were made by F. H. Rutherford, chairman of the joint committee, who introduced Gen. Dr. A. E. Ross, M.D., deputy grand master of the Grand Lodge of Ontario, as the principal speaker.

Gen. Ross' address was divided into three lessons: The first one comparing the periodical death and resurrection of the plant nature to the one and only metamorphosis of human life; the immortality of the soul and the great assurance of a future life and chance of happiness; the footprints left on the sands of time by all of us, some for good, others for bad. His hearers were exhorted to shape their footprints towards the Cross.

Two beautiful selections were rendered by a quartette composed of Messrs. A. Lemmon, E. Treener, T. Donnelly and H. K. Filson. The closing prayer and benediction was pronounced by the Rev. J. W. Forster.

Witness Reported Missing; Liquor Case Was Enlarged

"Having liquor in a place other than a private dwelling," was the charge registered against a citizen in police court on Blue Monday morning. He pleaded "not guilty" and had a lawyer on hand to defend him, but as a witness summoned was not present, the case was enlarged for a week.

Two tipplers were fined $10 and costs each. One stated that he had been drinking extract of lemon, while the other said that he had been drinking St. Michael's port wine and two per cent. beer.

A Camp Sing-Song.

The campers at Deadman's Bay held a sing-song on Sunday evening on the lawn of D. A. Shaw's cottage. There was a good attendance and the old favorite hymns were greatly enjoyed by those present. Mrs. Gallows, Mr. Casselman and Mr. Frank Anglin assisted in the service. It was decided to continue the sing-songs each Sunday evening during the season. The next one will be held at Mr. George Ferrier's cottage, "Clara Vista."

A suggestion has been made that the campers take a straw vote and adopt one of the four names now given to the Bay.

Shed Fire; Called Firemen.

The firemen had a run Sunday night to a shed in the rear of Nos. 43 and 45 Ordnance streets where a fire had started from some unknown cause. It was soon under control with considerable damage done to one shed, but covered by insurance. The premises there are owned by the Ockley estate and occupied by Mr. Smith. This is the second shed fire from unknown cause in this district within a few days. The alarms were sent in from Box 87 and also by telephone.

DONNELLY COMPANY RELEASES THE BURMA

Which Was Ashore Near Farran's Point—The Vessel Was Not Damaged.

The barge Burma, which, with the tug Eureka and Barge Augustus, went ashore near Farran's Point on Friday, was released on Sunday afternoon by the Donnelly Salvage and Wrecking Company of this city. The tugs Johnson and Frontenac got to work on her with their pulling equipment and were assisted by the tug Mary P. Hall. The Burma had been previously lightered of 9,000 bushels of wheat from her cargo of 51,000 bushels. After being released she was taken to a place of safety and re-loaded and was able to proceed to Montreal under the care of tugs of her own company.

The tug Eureka was not on hard, and tugs of the Sincennes, MacNaughton Line, of Montreal, owners, will release her. The tug Augustus was lying outside the Burma in deeper water and was not aground.

The tug Mary P. Hall and the barge Mamie returned to their post at Morrisburg and the tugs Johnson and Frontenac are expected back to their harbor at Portsmouth Monday evening. Capt. John Donnelly returned to the city this morning by train.

OBITUARY

Late Mrs. Wallace, Harrowsmith.

The death occurred in Harrowsmith on Sunday of Victoria Joyner, wife of Frank Wallace, in her forty-seventh year. She leaves to mourn her loss her husband and two children, Helen and Floyd; her mother, Mrs. Charles Joyner, Sydenham; three sisters, Mrs. George Freeman, Sydenham; Mrs. Earl Warner, Yarker; Miss Hazel Joyner, Kingston, and four brothers, Edward, George and Frank, of Kingston, and Rupert, Glenburnie.

The funeral is to be held from her late residence in Harrowsmith to Sydenham cemetery on Tuesday.

Late Sergt. E. J. M. Adam.

Sergt. Edward J. M. Adam, aged thirty years, younger son of the late Major George Alexander Finlay Adam, D.S.O., M.C., P.D., passed away at his late residence, 74 Gainsborough road, Toronto, on Sunday. The funeral will take place on Wednesday from the residence of Mrs. O. G. Filmon, 16 Durham street, to Catarqui cemetery in charge of John Cornelius. Surviving are his mother, three sisters, Margaret and Florence, of Toronto, and Delia, of New York city, and one brother, George, of South Africa. The late Sergeant Adam was a Presbyterian in religion and came to this country from Scotland about fifteen years ago. The remains will arrive in Kingston on Tuesday.

The Late Mrs. Grogan.

The funeral of the late Mrs. Grogan, a well-known resident of Kingston, and long to be remembered by former students of St. John's separate school, took place Monday morning from the residence of Mrs. James Hunt, 69 Pine street, to St. Mary's cathedral where a solemn requiem mass was sung for the repose of her soul. The late Mrs. Grogan passed away on Saturday afternoon.
