CLAIR WINDSOR ON

AT CAPITOL TO-DAY "Nellie, the Beautiful Cloak Me del," the famous Owen Davis melodrama which was so popular a few years ago on the stage has been re produced on the screen by Emmet Flynn for the Goldwyn studios and received its local premiere at th Capittol Theatre yesterday.

The picture is remarkable from every standpoint. A cast composed of the biggest names of the screen interpret the various roles. Claire Windsor is delightful as "Nellie." She has never appeared more beautiful than when arrayed in the gorgeous creations which she wears in this picture. Lew Cody, Mae Busch, Hobart Bosworth, Raymond Griffith, and Edmund Lowe do exceptional work. Lilyan Tashman, ex-Follies beauty, makes her screen debut in this picture and shows great pro-

The story is essentially a melodrama. One whirling sequence moves into another with lightning raridity. The elevated tracks of New York are employed to provide thrills for one sequence. The fire scene in the modiste shop holds one breath- tion. less. A more realistic fire scene is hardly obtainable.
