Clothes for the Home Run Season!

Some far-sighted economist has figured out that baseball and our many other summer sports give the Canadian nation a chance to vent its surplus energy. He terms it the "national safety valve."

And here are the Clothes that help men dress the part. Fabrics, colors, styles all unite with comfort—and do it in a quality way—at an economical price. We can prove the point — if you'll just see these Suits.

BUILT BOAT AT 93.

The Accomplishment of a Fine Old Plevna Gentleman.

The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Hiram Vaness, Plevna, are sorry to hear that they have both been very ill. Mr. Vaness, who is ninety-three years old, has enjoyed the best of health until lately. This spring he made a splendid boat for himself and a water wheel for his brother, Able Vaness, who owns a saw mill at Plevna.

Queen of Oshawa Selected.

The Queen of Oshawa for the grand historical pageant has at length been selected. The fortunate person is Miss Helen Fowler, of the G.M.C. staff. Miss Fowler is well fitted for the enviable role, says the Oshawa Reformer, being a popular young lady and a splendid example of the modern Canadian girl. She is tall, belongs in the brunette class and has that essential qualification required of a queen, that is grace combined with stateliness.

The young lady is a daughter of Joseph Fowler, 191 University avenue, and formerly of Glenburnie.

Burial of Sergt. Adam.

The funeral of the late Sergt. Edward J. M. Adam took place on Wednesday afternoon from the residence of O. G. Fillion, 16 Durham street, to Cataragui cemetery, under the direction of John Cornelius. The pall-bearers were Thomas Flint, J. Fanning, G. Copeland, A. H. McCalfe, W. Carman and G. G. Fillion, all Great War veterans. Services were conducted by the Rev. J. W. Stephen. The Masonic burial services were conducted at the grave. Many beautiful floral tributes were placed on the casket.

Tried to Break into House; Disturber Was Frightened Off

From additional reports, which are now being made, it would appear as if burglars have been trying to get in their work in various parts of the city. It was learned by the Whig on Thursday morning, that an attempt was made to break into a home on Upper Princess street, between Division street and University avenue, but luckily the members of the household were awakened and the burglar or burglars made off.

Rev. C. A. Sykes Accepts Call.

A call from the North Presbyterian church of Denver, Colorado, has been received by Rev. C. A. Sykes, pastor of Central Methodist church, Calgary. He has accepted and is preparing to leave for his new post. Mr. Sykes stated that it is possible he may return to Canada next year, and that in the meantime, he is not severing his connection with the Canadian Methodist church. Dr. Sykes was formerly pastor of Sydenham street Methodist church, Kingston.

Happy is the man who is skilled in tracing effects up to their causes. Nothing can be lasting when reason does not rule.
