Only a Little Bee.
I saw a bee upon the wing,
It seemed a very little thing,
And yet I knew its single sting,
Could move a president or king.
—Jim Craig.

Benefit of Clergy.
A young minister, noted for his punning, was dining at our house last Sunday, and he was passed a plate heaped with roast chicken.
"Well, here's where that chicken enters the ministry," he remarked, with a twinkle in his eye.
"Hope it does better there than it did in the lay work," rejoined the bright son of the family.
—B.-L. Clark.

No Substitute Wanted.
Dear Stork: I'm writing
You to-day,
To send a brother,
Down this way.
I'd be glad if
He would come,
I truly hope you'll
Send me one.
But please listen, Stork,
If you are out,
Don't send a sister—
They fuss and pout!
—Clara Gilliam.

Mmmm-Daddy!
Father: "What is Gertrude doing?"
Mother: "She's busy in her room, learning the dance of the seven veils."
Father: "I want to see her. Tell her to drop everything and come right here."
—Edmund J. Kiefer.

Three O'Clock in the Morning.
Hickory Hickory Dock,
The mouse found a flask in the clock,
Three drinks of that stuff
Made the mouse feel so tough
That she chased every cat in the block.
—Margaret Smith.

Caution Up To Date.
"Yes, children," said mother, "you may go and play on the railroad tracks. But be sure to keep off the streets, or the autos will get you."
—Janus Gotch.

Liquid Profits?
Restaurant men pore night and day
O'er profit sheets to learn
The answer to the question deep—
"What does the coffee urn?"
—Edwin Wesselmann.

Birds of Passage.
Wife: "A little bird told me you were going to buy me a diamond brooch for my birthday."
Husband: "It must have been a little cuckoo."
—Victor Dennis.

Health Hints for Motorists.
1. Always give a woman driver room enough to change her mind—and then some.
2. Avoid trying to beat the fire-truck to the fire-picking you up may delay the fire-fighters.
3. Don't use a rubber tire when you want to chip off a chunk of curb-ing.
4. Don't crowd a heavy truck to the curb—you may be a truck driver yourself some day.
5. Always try to beat the engineer of the Limited Train to the crossing—It sort of livens up things.
—George F. Paul.

Flaming Youth.

For seven long years I have realized that sometime or other, I shall have to make the extreme sacrifice (for my country) and marry. Now that I am approaching twenty, the thought perturbs me.
However, if an eligible millionaire of the "interesting" age falls madly in love with me, I shall marry and have three beautiful children; an author, a surgeon, and a prima donna.
I have decided on these, inasmuch as presidents and attorney-generals associate with so many plebeians that one never knows (with graft and all of that) what temptations may confront them.
Yes, I shall surrender my spinsterhood, providing my intended's heart has belonged to no one else previously. Otherwise I shall continue at the soda-fountain.
—Dee Furey.

No Doubt About That.
"What a poor excuse for a bathing suit she is wearing."
"Well, a poor excuse is better than none."
—E. J. K.

The Broadcasting Society.
Jack and Jill went up the hill,
Jill looked very winning,
When they came down
The whole darn town

Was awful busy chinning.
—James A. Sanaker.

The Advantages of Culture.
Mistress: "Why Bridget, I don't believe you dusted to-day. I can write my name on the library table."
Bridget: "Sure, Mom, that's the divintige of an education."
—Anne Kurtz.

Point Anne Wins Baseball Game—Dannie Burns Severely Cut With Knife.

Deseronto, July 11.—Point Anne and Deseronto baseball teams met at Deseronto on Tuesday evening at the high school grounds, in a very one-sided game, the score being 14-3 in favor of Point Anne. Deseronto team has not been in practice to meet such a capable team but the boys put up a good fight. GREAT Y.M.C.A. CAMPAIGN. FRONTENAC CHEESE BOARD.

By Which Three Million Dollars Was Raised in St. Louis.
What the Y.M.C.A. is capable of accomplishing cannot be better illustrated than in the success of the recent campaign in St. Louis by which three million dollars was raised in two weeks. Some time ago the "Y's" central building there was burned and the association was slipping behind. Then Lester Haworth was sent there as general secretary. He proposed the campaign and with the help of the churches the thing was carried through with unbelievable success. Big corporations became interested and let "Y" speakers address their directors' meetings. Prominent "Y" and church speakers were brought in to help. A slogan was "87 millions in bonds for civic improvement—three millions for the young men and boys." There was one contribution of $300,000 and another of $200,000. The money will be used to build five new buildings and improve three old ones.

Mr. Haworth, organizer of the campaign, was "Y" secretary at Bombay, India, just before Secretary Harlow, of the Kingston Y.M.C.A., was made secretary there.

The meeting pledged its unanimous support. The government was called upon to issue the writ at the earliest possible moment.

Thomas Phillip Christopher, Brockville, who had been ill for three weeks and in poor health for the past two years, died on Wednesday. He was born at Johnstown, in 1869, a son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Christopher.

Mrs. Vincent Lennox, Algonquin, died Wednesday after a long illness, aged seventy years. She was born in the township of Wolford, a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Albery. Besides her husband she is survived by four daughters and two sons.

A young domestic in a Brockville house admitted stealing money from it. She will be tried on Monday.

Too Many People Guess About Their Eyes

In fact, I believe most folks do that. It seems they try to make themselves believe they have normal sight, rather than submit to an examination to learn the true condition of their eyes. Such an attitude is decidedly unwise. Why not give your eyes the consideration they deserve? Glad to be of service to you.
