THE ST. MARY'S PICNIC

At Brophy's Point on Thursday Had an Attendance of 1,200.

After a morning fraught with delays and anxieties over the weather, the annual St. Mary's picnic to Brophy's Point was held yesterday with 1,200 in attendance and every event was a big success. On account of the threatening skies in the morning, the first boat did not leave until eleven o'clock, and further trips were made at 1.30, 3.00, 5.30 and 7.30.

At the grounds the following sports were run off:

Diving—Carr, Plunkett, Robertson.

Swimming—Muchmore, Carr, Collier.

Three-legged race—Flynn and Renaud, Gallagher and Collins.

Boys' shoe race—Muchmore, Burns, McKim.

Tug-of-war—St. Mary's boys won from St. John's.

Tug-of-war—St. Vincent's girls won from St. John's.

Potato race—Boys, Carrier, James, McCarey; girls, Eves, C. Sinnott, C. Fisher.

Girls' blindfold race—M. Baker, L. Ward, M. Jamieson.

Needle and thread race—J. Andre, L. Ward, L. Dorey.

Up to eight years—Girls, M. Eves, S. Menard, L. McCabe; boys, F. Corrigan, James McQuade, E. Thompson.

Nine to eleven years—Girls, C. Scott, N. McCabe, V. Duggie; boys, L. Anson, N. Carrier, J. Cadue.

Twelve to fourteen years—Girls, H. Cadue, J. Birkett, E. Baldry; boys, C. Pilley, D. Corrigan, H. Muchmore.

Prize waltz—Mrs. Robinson and Patrick Dee; prize fox trot, Rhoda Andre and C. Vandewater; prize step dance, Charles O'Connor.

Judges, J. O. Lawrence, C. A. Devlin, W. Fowler.)

A boys' baseball game was held during the day, as well as other amusements, and there was dancing from 7 until 10.30 in the evening.

The committee in charge was: Rev. Father Lacey (chairman), W. G. Baillie, James Sowards, J. O. Lawrence, Thomas Walsh, Thomas Lawlor, John Sullivan, Thomas Stanford, W. C. Macdonald, J. Melville, J. W. Rigney, Dr. Davis, W. Fowler and T. J. Doolan.

A splendid thirty-five-cent supper was served at the attractive tables on the grounds, which were under the convener'ship of Mrs. C. J. Corrigan and Mrs. W. G. Baillie. McGrath's orchestra supplied music for the dancing.

The ton of coal donated by the Sowards Coal Company goes to the holder of the number six hundred and twenty-one.

IN MARINE CIRCLES

The steamer City of Ottawa passed up to Toronto on Thursday afternoon.

The new students include Mrs. F. L. Sine, Sydenham; Sadie Miller, Kemptville; Grace C. Raney, Kingston, and D. E. McLean, Westmont.

Two excursions will be held on Saturday, the geologists going by bus to Kingston Mills, the biologists going by boat to study water plants at Belle's Island.

The softball game scheduled for Thursday night was postponed till Tuesday pending a rearrangement of the districts in order to make the teams more nearly balanced in strength. The girls have their first softball game Saturday night, when West meets East.

Dr. Sclater has been asked to address the singsong on Sunday night.

A panoramic photograph is to be taken of this year's school. That taken last year was printed in the bulletin, 11,000 copies of which were distributed throughout Canada.

One of the seven Manitoba students at the school brought his car with him.

The authorities are mimeographing a directory of the school, which will be distributed among the students.

The Post Office Authorities Notify the City Police of a Discovery.

The finding of a bag containing wearing apparel, under a bush alongside of the road on Montreal street, may mean that goods stolen in some of the robberies which have occurred recently have been recovered.

The bag containing the goods was found by a transfer man from the Kingston post office, while on his rounds on Thursday afternoon. The bag, with its contents, have been handed over to the police and an investigation will be made.

The bag contained considerable children's ware, including hats, stockings, shoes, etc. It may be that the goods were lost or stolen from some of the local stores.
