Miss Louise Hill gave a charmingly arranged tennis tea at the Country Club on Monday afternoon for Miss Dorothy Crookall, New York. The pretty little clubhouse on the bank of the Rideau never looked prettier. Great bowls of daisies and buttercups were everywhere, and the tea table, where Mrs. F. W. Hill made tea, was lovely with dainty china and roses. Tennis was played on the excellent courts, and those who did not play enjoyed watching the others who did. Among those present were General Hill, Mrs. McMillan (Ottawa), Mrs. Frederick Alderson, Mrs. George E. Wait (Ottawa), Miss Edith Ritchie, Miss Aileen Rogers, Miss Eleanor Phelan, Miss Barbara,

Miss Peggy and Miss Norah Bidwell, Miss Helen Strange, Miss Doris and Miss Gwendolyn Folger, Miss Kitty Torrance, Miss Doris McKay, Miss Aline and Miss Cecily Ruthford, Miss Tullis, Miss Nora Macnee, Miss Virginia Fair, Miss Elizabeth Lyster, Miss Mary Crookall (New York), Rev. Kenneth Taylor, Major Sherwood, Major Larter, Capt. Lee and Capt. Heron.

On Tuesday afternoon Mrs. Guy Gamsby, King street west, received at the tea hour when her sister, Mrs. P. H. Rew, New York; Mrs. Stuart Crockett, New York; her niece, Mrs. Archer Hubert, Colorado Springs, Col., and her daughter, Miss Marjorie Gamsby, received with her. The charming rooms were made even more charming with lovely flowers, and the tea table in the dining-room, where Mrs. Herbert Robinson and Miss Betts made tea, was centred with exquisite red and white roses. Miss Millie Ferris, Miss Mary MacKillivray and Miss Marjorie Evans were the tea assistants. Crowds of visitors came and went during the afternoon, admiring the dear old-fashioned walled garden with its lovely view of Lake Ontario's foam-flecked waters.

A most enjoyable picnic was given early this week in honor of Miss Mamie Mooney, Toronto, who is with her parents at Portmouth. Miss Elsie Lawless was hostess and through the kindness of the owners, the party had the freedom of Graham's Point on the Front Road. Games, singing and a splendid supper served in the grove, added to the enjoyment of the occasion. Among those present were: Mrs. A. C. Givens and the Misses Mamie Mooney, Marie McDonald, Carmel O'Reilly, Christina Kohoe, Isabel Webster, Kathryn Burke, Elsie Lawless and the Messrs. Roy Lacey, Clair Devlin, Harry McNeill, Dr. V. L. Old Housekeeper: "My husband and I have never given a wedding anniversary party but we thought we'd like to do so this coming Fall. You see I am writing you well in advance of the date! Can you help me by suggesting some kind of appropriate game to play?"

Answer: I wish all of my Reader Friends would write me as far in advance of timely events as you have! So many of them wait till a week or two before the time, and then I may be overloaded with readers' letters, which for the sake of fairness I must answer in rotation, the first to come receiving the first answers. Send me a stamped, self-addressed envelope and I will gladly send you (or any other reader) my multigraphed article called "Games for Special Occasions," which gives directions for playing a splendid Wedding Anniversary Game as well as directions for games suitable for Halloween, Christmas, and St. Valentine's Day. regatta on Saturday and were much admired, especially by the visitors from across the border, who have long looked upon Kingston as a military station, but were astonished to find the navy represented. Mrs. E. R. Young, Toronto, and her two children, are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Harpur, Nelson street. (Continued on Page 13.)

The Editor hears That Kingston will never be truly democratic until the poor man and his family have the same privilege as their fore-well-to-do neighbors—that of getting out into the open on Sunday afternoon. Cars, motor boats and the big boats which take hundreds of citizens down the river or over to Cape Vincent, are used by people able to afford them, and who live in comfortable homes with balconies and gardens. But the poorer folk who live in the small houses or perhaps in a few rooms have to content themselves with a stroll to the parks, if they are near enough for the little ones to walk to, and, after all, parks, beautiful as ours are, are still within the city and not real country.

That Canada's oldest house, the first residence of the Jesuit Fathers in Sillery, Que., is now the property of the province of Quebec. Two sons of the late Hon. J. R. Dobell, minister in the Laurier cabinet of 1896, have just given what is considered as one of the most valuable treasures of the country to the Commission of Historical Monuments, lately created by the Provincial Government.

That St. George's Boy Scouts are in camp at Brophy's Point and many of their parents and friends took the advantage of the cathedral Sunday school picnic to-day to visit them. Scoutmaster Hall is in command of the camp.

That the men of Mowat Hospital greatly appreciate the entertainment arranged for them by the various Kingston societies. When you are ill and away from home it is indeed pleasant to have friends who consider your comfort.

New Kind of Girdle Reduces Waist and Hips—almost while you wait! The instant you put on this new girdle—worn in place of your ordinary corset, the bulky fat on waist and hips seems to vanish, the wasteline lengthens and your body becomes erect and graceful. Faithfully slender! And—then with every step, with every breath, with every little motion it gently massages away the useless disfiguring fat and you look and feel many years younger!

Look Slender While Getting Slender. Produces Same Results As An Expert Masseuse. The Madame X Reducing Girdle is built upon scientific massage principles. It is made of the most resilient steam-cured Para rubber, especially designed for reducing purposes, and is worn over the undergarment. Fits as snugly as a kid-glove—has garters attached—and is so constructed that it touches and gently massages every portion of the surface continually. The constant massage causes a more vigorous circulation of the blood not only through these parts, but throughout the entire body! Particularly around the abdomen and hips this gentle massage is so effective that it often brings about a remarkable reduction in weight in the first few days.
