THE QUEEN STREET METHODIST PICNIC

Held on Monday Afternoon to Millhaven Was an Enjoyable Event.

Queen Street Methodist annual Sunday school picnic was held on Monday afternoon to Millhaven, on the Bay of Quinte shore, and was a big success. The steamer Brockville carried the greater number of the picnickers to the new government wharf at Millhaven and others went by motor along the Lake Shore road. On the beautiful spot of ground bordering the little river which runs out at that point the games, scrambles and merry-making went on apace. The results of the different contests were as follows:

SHOTS HEARD ON STREET IN THE EARLY MORNING

Citizen Tells the Police There
Was Shooting on Brock Street.

Did some person fire off a revolver on Brock street, in the vicinity of Clergy street, about two o'clock on Tuesday morning?
A citizen informed the police Tuesday forenoon, that about that hour he heard two shots fired. He was quite sure they were shots from a revolver or a gun. It was suggested that the noise might have been that of an automobile tire, but he was satisfied that such was not the case.
The police had no reports of a burglary during the night, and no reason can be given for the shooting, unless a citizen had been disturbed by cats and was taking a couple of shots at the disturbers.

MAY BE SUCCESSOR TO SIR JOSEPH POPE

Prof. O. D. Skelton of Queen's University Slated for High Position.

The Ottawa Citizen says: "It is believed that Dr. O. D. Skelton may ultimately succeed Sir Joseph Pope, under secretary of state for external affairs, when the latter retires. This will not be for some time, however. Dr. Skelton accompanied the prime minister to the Imperial conference last year, in the capacity of a technical adviser. He is also known as the biographer of Sir Wilfrid Laurier and author of the Life and Times of the former Liberal leader."

Killed in Pulp Factory.
Toronto, July 15.—Stanley J. Butler, aged 27, second engineer of the Keewatin Pulp and Paper Company, Kenora, Ont., was accidentally killed on Saturday, according to advices received here. Butler fell into a beater machine and was mangled.
Last December Butler left Toronto for Kenora. He was a native of London, England, but has resided in Canada for a number of years.

Not Charles Andre.
The witness who gave evidence in the Morris case at the court house on Monday afternoon was not Charles Andre of Cherry street, but a boarder in a Bagot street house, named Clarence Andre.

"Coty Face Powder." Gibson's Contemporaries appreciate the man rather than the merit, but posterity will regard the merit rather than the man.

It is a greater thing to know how to acknowledge a fault than to know how not to commit one.

WITH THE GIRL GUIDES AT BEAU RIVAGE

Monday was spent in tests in second-class work and in advanced signalling by the trainer, Miss Saunders. Much important work has been covered during the two weeks in camp and the results of the various tests were very satisfactory and encouraging to the officers who have worked so faithfully to bring the Guides up to a very high standard. The event of the day was the great camp fire in which all the patrols took part. Recitations, dialogues, songs, dances made up a most interesting programme. Each patrol presented a "Log" and the many witty "hits" at both Guides and Guiders furnished vast amusement.

"Stunts" were performed by each of the five patrols—The "Scarlet Tanagers," "The Nut-hatches," "The Daisies," "The Forget-me-nots" and "Live Wires." Much cleverness was shown in both the costuming and the setting of these "skits."

Three cheers and a "Tiger" were given for the officers and all those who had helped to make the camp both successful and pleasant, including a very hearty one for our kind and genial warden, Mr. Meggs.

Two solos were rendered, a French folk-song, "En Revenant de Noces," by Mrs. Revelle and "You'll Get Heaps o' Lickins" by the commandant, Miss Saunders. Auld Lang Syne and "Taps" brought to a close the most enjoyable camp fire of our stay on Beau Rivage.
Officer for the day, Lieut. Lottie Timms.
