The Fun Shop

MAXSON FOXHALL JONES
THE LIGHT HOUSE.
By George S. Chappell.
WILD WILLIES.

Willie, at an early age
Found a pot of mucklage.
Some he fed to Sister Sue—
She didn't do so well on glue.

Dental.
Willie, who adores croquet,
Swung his mallet hard one day,
Quite forgetting Cousin Ruth—
Ruth's saving up to buy a tooth.

Barnyard Bit.
A wicked egg lay in a nest;
He wouldn't hatch like all the rest,
In spite of how his mother toiled,
And neighbors whispered "He's hard-boiled."

A Good Word for Temus.
Mr. Rich: "Mose, I've been losing a number of chickens lately and have been unable to find out who is taking them. Do you suppose Temus would do such a thing?"
Mose: "Well, Bossman, Temus is a friend of mine and I wouldn't want to make any 'sinnations' against his character. But if I was a chicken and I knew that Temus was 'round, I'd want to roost mighty high."

Vastly Different.
Flubb: "When Jenks was single he always longed for a chance to settle down."
Dubb: "Yes, but since he's married he's kept rather busy settling up."

Hard Times.
Hanna: "Jobs am mighty scarce dese days."
Mandy: "'Deed, yes. Mah husband' done hab a hard time getting me enuf to do."

The Jingle-Jangle Counter.
Willie is brave, I must declare,
Just smell the tonic in his hair.
—C. S. Mehner.

Shoes have soles and ships have skippers;
Banana peels make good slippers.
—Mrs. Frances Wellman.

Scandal in the air, scandal everywhere,
Lots of women don't know what to wear.
—W. G. Bahnmann.

Sweet the songs of nightingales;
Most all puppies chase their tales.
—John Wellington LaRue.

The moon, a girl, a drifting boat,
These summer nights sure get my goat.
—Frank C. Sanderson.

A Bad Case.
Little Dot was just recovering from the whooping cough.
One morning while she was playing, a neighbor's donkey stuck his head over the fence and brayed.
"Oh, mamma," cried Dot as she ran into the house, "call Dr. Barnes quick. Mr. Berry's mule's got the whooping' cough."
—Billie Black.

A Hint To the Bride.
If at first you dont succeed, fry, fry again.

Geography Lesson.
Finland, say the latest books,
Makes a specialty of rooks.
And, when their supply's diminished,
They'll be, as you might say, annihilated.
—Rollie Shaphard.

Absent-minded man: "Now, let's see. My wife told me to give the cat her milk and put the baby out."
—Lillian B. Turin.

Girl (according to press reports) doesn't seem to be so much that of being considered the best-dressed girl on the beach as the least-dressed one.

The Language of Love.
Kris: "Did her father come between you?"
Kross: "Oh, no," replied the witted suitor, "merely behind me."
—Edith Rose Margoles.

A La Mode.
He: "Will you be my wife as soon as I get my divorce, sweetheart?"
She: "I'm not so sure that I'll have mine by that time, darling."

Advice to the Male Sex.
Young man, when you propose to a girl, and she says "No," don't get blue.
It's when she says yes that you should worry.

GANANOQUE

July 17.—It is pleasant news for the many friends of Mrs. William Davidson, Brock street, to know that she continues to improve in health. This is a busy week on the links with many important events on both the gentlemen's and ladies' programmes, among which are the first flight for president's shield, first flight for the George R. Webb cup and the 12-hole medal play.
