DEATHS.

PETERS—At Kingston General Hospital on Wednesday, July 16th, 1924, William Peters, of Perth Road, aged 75 years.

SWEETMAN—Suddenly at Honolulu, on July 15th, 1924, J. A. Sweetman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Sweetman, 136 Rideau Street.

IN MEMORIAM.

In loving memory of our dear mother, Mrs. John Cumpson, who passed away on July 13th, 1922. Gone but not forgotten.

Sad and sudden was the call Of one so dearly loved by all: The blow was great, the shock severe, We never thought her death so near.

Two years have passed since that sad day, When one we loved has passed away; Forget her? Never! We love her still, In her memory we ever linger.

In the graveyard softly sleeping, Where the flowers gently wave, Lies the one we loved so dearly, In her memory we ever linger.

When one we loved has passed away; Forget her? Never! We love her still, In her memory we ever linger.

When one we loved has passed away; Forget her? Never! We love her still, In her memory we ever linger.

They Roll In Their Own

Their comfortable, smoothly running automobiles are a symbol of the ease which marks their journey through life.

Effortless acquisition of the things worth while is theirs—

Simply because they regularly read the Whig's A-B-C Classified columns and keep constantly in touch with the most profitable opportunities there are.

The largest per cent. of them get the very cars, in which they roll so comfortably, from the Automotive Columns of the classified section. But these cars are far from being the only things they get.

The A-B-C Ads find good positions for them—or real estate bargains—or household articles at low prices—or profitable business opportunities—and any number of other things which they need in their daily lives.

You may enjoy the same advantages—if you will read the classified section daily!

THE A-B-C CLASSIFIED ADS. ALWAYS THE SAME—IN SERVICE. ALWAYS DIFFERENT—IN OPPORTUNITY.

A PUZZLE

IF YOU READ AROUND THE RIBBON, starting with "The" and ending with "oar," you will discover that the sentence is broken in two places. By inserting a word, or words, at the blank crossing, you can complete the sentence. The word must be read twice, and will fill the breaks. It may be read as a single word in one place, and as more than one on the other occasion.

Yesterday's answer:

There were 170 sheep and 70 cows in the field—240 in all. One child gave 100 as the answer, by subtracting 70 from 170; while the other
