LONDON LETTER

By Panton House.

London, July 8 .- With so many thousands of Canadians here for the British Empire Exhibition, Dominion Day gatherings were this week the largest that London has ever seen. Over 2,000 guests attended the reception by P. C. Larkin, High Commissioner for Canada, assisted by his daughter, Miss Aileen Larkin. In the evening the High Commissioner presided at a Dominion Day dinner, attended by the Prince of Wales and a large company that included J. H. Thomas, Secretary for the Colonies, and E. H. Armstrong, Prime Minister of Nova Scotia. The prince, responding to the royal toast, said: "I do not think I so on with the Wyandottes, Rhode Is- Anconas. Varieties in Polish fowl are certain love for the dominion.
